At dinner Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, of the Pacific highway.

Mrs. Iva Thomas attended the coat school at the court house in Medford where she was one of the assistants. The coat school is being conducted for three days by Mrs. Sager, clothing expert from Corvallis, under the supervision of Mrs. Mabel Mack. Mrs. Thomas reports a very interesting meeting. The women are making some very nice coats at a low cost.

The next meeting of the extension division will be at the court house in Medford October 21. It will be on guide patterns, the help-ers from Oak Grove district being Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Saltmarsh. If Mrs. Saltmarsh is unable to attend, Mrs. Hansen is to substitute for her. Mrs. Mabel Mack is to supervise this meeting and it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

The women finishing the guide patterns last spring report them as being very satisfactory. The meeting is to start at 10 a. m. Each member is to bring a covered dish and her service. Those making guide patterns are to bring their gingham pattern, if one has been made, and a tape line, needles, pins, thread, scissors, etc.
