What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

Girl Scouts are busy these days working on scout rank and proficiency badge tests in preparation for the Court of Awards to be held on November 1, at the court house assembly at 7:30. The committee on Badges and Awards have spent some time in preparing a program that will be interesting as well as comprehensive. Several special features have been arranged apart from the main event, the awarding of badges. A general "sing" will be held as a part of the program, beginning at 7:30. In preparation for this leaders are giving time from their regular troop meetings to practice the songs to be used. Then, on Monday evening, October 28, all troops will meet at the Girl Scout headquarters, at 4:30 to practice in this part of the program. The following "capers" have been assigned to various troops in preparation for this Court of Awards: presentation of colors; Troop 5; entertainment; Troop 6; decoration; Troop 7; hostess; Troop 4; arrangement of chairs; Troop 2. Several new interesting groups have been recently formed, one of which is a group working on the Back Finder's badge. Mrs. Alan Carley has been supervising this group and cordially invites any girl interested in this phase of nature study to study with this group. Information concerning the meeting of this group may be had at the office. On Thursday the group visited Lawrence's Jewelry store at which time Mrs. Lawrence explained and exhibited many interesting stones. The girls have also made several observation tours to find new specimens for their collections.
