Kathleen Ness And Francis Bash United In Surprise Wedding

Coming as a surprise to friends and relatives, the marriage of Miss Kathleen Ness and Francis B. Bash took place at the home of the bride, 203 N. Ivy, at ten o'clock yesterday morning. Rev. Barham read the ceremony, which was performed before the immediate families and intimate friends.

The bride and groom took their vows before the fireplace, which was flanked by tall tapers and yellow chrysanthemums. The bride was gown in a plum-colored afternoon dress of heavy crepe, and wore a corsage of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Miss Ness attended Oregon State college, and has been employed at Copco for some time. The groom is a graduate of the University of Washington, and is also an employe of Copco.

Mr. and Mrs. Bash will spend a ten days' honeymoon in Canada and Victoria, B.C. and will then return to Medford, where they will make their home.

Delphian Society To Organize New Medford Chapter

Interest in the activities of the Delphian society in Medford has been so pronounced since the organization of the Beta chapter here, September 18, that a second new chapter, Chi Delta, will be organized on Monday morning at ten o'clock at the Girls' Community club rooms.

Mrs. Lena Goble, Pacific coast director of Delphians, will again be heard by all Delphians and interested friends. A speaker of rare ability and inspiration, Mrs. Goble has been exceedingly well-received by Medford ladies. She will speak on contemporary events, causes and effects.

All ladies of the Beta chapter are cordially invited to this organization meeting.

Degree of Honor Has Costume Party At End of Contest

Members of the Degree of Honor Protective association and their invited friends were entertained on Thursday evening with a costume party in the Halloween spirit.

A program was presented, consisting of a whistling solo by Mrs. Ruth Goddard; a song by Naomi Hovler; a ukulele number by Ada Bee Selzer, and a reading by Frances Bentley. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing and playing games.

Refreshments were served by the losing team, marking the end of a contest which has been in progress for the past three months. Mrs. Elliot, captain of the winning team, gave a short talk in appreciation of the entertainment given by the opposite side.

Mrs. Schieffelin Entertains Guest

Mrs. Paul G. Austen, of Pasadena, arrived this morning to be the guest for a time of Mrs. Rose G. Schieffelin, of this city.

Guest of Durso's Leaves for Home

Mrs. J. P. Durso, of Eugene, left this morning for her home. She has been the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Durso, for the past two weeks.

Burton-Simpson Wedding Today In McMinnville

Choosing the home of her mother, Mrs. C. E. Odell, as the scene of her wedding, Verna Burton will become the bride of Jack Simpson at four o'clock today in McMinnville. Reverend Henry, of the Baptist church there, will read the ceremony.

The bride will wear an ankle-length gown of ecru lace. She will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Ernest Arthur, as matron of honor, who will wear a long dress of blue.

Ernest Arthur will act as best man for the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur left Friday for McMinnville.

Mrs. Walter Crow, of Portland, will sing "At Dawning" and "Oh, Promise Me." Miss Stella Prazier, pianist, of Portland and Seattle, will play.

The bride has been associated with the Copco offices here for the past year. Mr. Simpson has for four years been with the Standard Oil company in Medford.

The couple will honeymoon in the north, visiting at Seattle for a week, and will then be at home in Medford.

Ethiopia, Topic At Meeting of Wednesday Club

A very interesting meeting of the Wednesday Study club, was held on October 16, in the Girls' Community club rooms on North Barlett street, the president, Mrs. B. G. Harding, presiding.

Mrs. E. N. Warner gave the first number on the program, a most instructive talk on Ethiopia, reviewing much of its present day history, and connecting many recent happenings with Biblical prophecy. In answer to questions by Mrs. Warner, members of the club gave added information concerning the country and its people.

"Hell Hole of Creation," written by L. M. Nesbitt, is the story of the first successful expedition of white men to penetrate some parts of the Danakil desert, which lies in the eastern part of Ethiopia. Mrs. J. O. Grey gave an exceptionally fine review of this book.

Wilson's Honored On Eastern Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Wilson have recently returned from a two-months' stay in the east, making the trip in celebration of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

While in Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were entertained by a musical arranged in their honor by Lydia Olive Green, composer-pianist. Miss Green is a cousin of Mrs. A. E. Stratton of the Jacksonville-Central Point road.

The program, played by Lydia Olive Green, consisted of Wedding March, by Lohengrin; Fifth Nocturne, by Chopin; Faust Romanza, Gounod; Wedding of The Winds, J. T. Hall; Il Trovatore, Verdi; Ship of State, Illinois, Lydia Olive Green; Nocturne, No. 2, Chopin; Other Days, Lydia Green; Nocturne No. 4, Chopin; Wedding March, Mendelssohn.

Schedule For Week Includes Dances At Chateau, Town Club

With Halloween in the not-too-distant future, plans are being made for several affairs in the harvest holiday spirit. Among affairs being arranged is the Town Club Halloween Ball Maque, to be given October 26.

Also planned for next week-end is the no-host dancing party at the Chateau du Compté for the entertainment of Medford's young set. Both of these affairs promise to be of great interest in local social circles, plans being made for seventy-five couples at the chateau dance.

Meeting of Beta Chapter, Delphian

"England Under the Tudors" was the topic discussed by various members of the Beta chapter of Delphian society at the Girls' Community club rooms during the meeting last Thursday morning.

A modern hour followed. Mrs. Evelyn Paddock reviewed Wills Cather's "Lucy Gayheart" and Mrs. Harry Prentice discussed current events. Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, vice-president, presided, due to the absence of Mrs. E. P. Merrick.

The next meeting will be held October 31.

Official Visitors For Redman Lodge

Redmen lodge, Westonka tribe No. 1, will have as their guests next Saturday evening, October 26, the great sachem of California, William E. Farrenhoff and Porter L. Bliss, great chief of records of California, also Mr. Frank Koskich, great senior sagamore, Dr. Duane A. Fellows, great chief of records; Alvin Steers and Arthur Sifers of Portland.

An open meeting will be held and all members of the tribe and council and their families are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. House Honored At Chateau Luncheon

Mrs. Floyd House was the guest of honor at a charming luncheon arranged at the Chateau du Compté by several friends, celebrating her birthday.

Guests were Mesdames Louis Blyth, Frank Hoffman, R. L. Barton, P. M. Thorenson, E. C. Ferguson, Earl Shilley, O. O. Horner and the honor guest.

100 Guests Attend Missionary Society Luncheon Tuesday

An attractive event in the social calendar of the past week was the annual luncheon given by the ladies of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon.

Over one hundred ladies were seated at the ten luncheon tables set in the large dining hall. Table decorations included centerpieces of chrysanthemums and other fall flowers in vivid hues. Hostesses for the tables were Mesdames Walter Frazier Brown, George West, J. W. Merritt, George Oliver, O. Gould, Gribble, D. W. Luke, Carl Brommer, Frank Ray and Miss Anna Detweiler.

The luncheon was prepared by Mrs. E. Iverson, chairman of the menu committee, assisted by Mesdames Albert, Baker, Baker, Spilver, Putney, Wait, and the Misses Elizabeth Burr and Laura Bailey.

Mrs. George Oliver president of the society, opened the program with a few words of cordial welcome, followed by the invocation by the Rev. W. S. Shields.

Mrs. A. J. Hanby presented the program, which was opened by devotion by Rev. R. S. Peterson, followed with a map talk by Mrs. Hanby. As the subject for study this year is Latin America, two-minute talks on Mexico, Colombia, central and southern Brazil, Chile and Venezuela were given by Mesdames Sperling, Hold, Merritt, Luke, Gribble, and Miss Anna Detweiler. Mrs. A. R. Clement spoke on "Where Our Money Goes."

A musical and literary program followed, consisting of a vocal duet by Mesdames George Wendt and William McAllister, "I Would That My Love," Mendelssohn; a solo by Rose Roundell, with Miss Constance Moore as accompanist; a monologue, "Hakuka San," was impressively given by Edna Kumasawa. Mrs. Sperling sang two Spanish songs, playing her own accompaniment.

"Needles Plus," a short one-act playlet, was presented by Mesdames E. Iverson and Frank Albert.

The missionary society holds regular monthly meetings the third Tuesday at 2:30. Any lady interested in missionary work is always welcome.

Aims of B. P. W. To Be Set Forth At Dinner Meeting

Announcement is made of the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club to be held Tuesday evening at six-thirty at the Hotel Medford.

Miss Eleanor Curry has charge of the musical program for the evening. Also at this time, the various committee chairmen of the club will be called upon to outline and present the manifold purposes of the club as exemplified in the particular phase of each committee.

Plans are being made for several civic projects, and expansion and greater activity than ever before are the aims of Ethelwyn Hoffman, club president. Mrs. Hoffmann urges all business and professional women interested to attend this meeting, as the procedure will answer any questions regarding the actual working plans of the club.

Reservations may be had by calling Mrs. Hoffmann at 82.

Surprise Celebration Honors Johnstons on Wedding Anniversary

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Johnston, 32 South Columbus avenue, arranged a pleasant surprise in their honor Monday of this week commemorating their wedding, which took place in Aurora, Indiana, 49 years ago.

Owing to the illness of Mr. Johnston, who has been confined to his home for several months, the day was spent quietly.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston received many lovely gifts and cards from their many friends throughout the valley. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Knips and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ray, Mrs. Elizabeth Lawrence and Laura Lawrence, all of Oak Grove; Mrs. Belle Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Boussum, Mrs. Effie Daily, Mrs. Mary Cave, Mrs. Nora Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckles and family, Fred Thom, Mrs. Nan Hulbert, of Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, of Portland.

P.E.O. Officer Here On Inspection Visit

Mrs. Kate Ainsworth, of Hood River, state organizer for the P. E. O., will make her annual inspection visit to AA chapter of Medford on Wednesday of this week.

A no-hostess luncheon in honor of the official guest has been arranged for 12:30 on Wednesday at the Medford hotel, after which the regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Fieleg.

Mrs. Ainsworth is touring throughout the state, making her official visits to P. E. O. chapters. She is in Astoria for the week-end, and will visit the Grants Pass chapter on Tuesday.

Out-of-Town Guests At Bridge Meeting

Mrs. Anna Mikache was hostess Thursday afternoon to members of the Building Bridge club at her home. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Raymond Mikache and Mrs. John Wilkinson.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Percy, of Portland, and Mrs. Bess Davis, of Wichita Falls, Texas. The latter is a guest at the home of her aunt, the Misses Kellehor, on South Oakdale, and Mrs. Percy is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. R. O'Connor, on Park avenue.

Banquet For Peavey Is Monday Evening At St. Mark's Guild

Alumni, former students and friends of Oregon State college will gather at St. Mark's Guild hall Monday at 6:30 p. m., for a banquet and reception in honor of George W. Peavey, president of the college. A special invitation has been extended by the Oregon State club, sponsors of the affair, to the mothers and fathers of students now attending Oregon State.

L. A. Mentzer, president of the Oregon State club, said yesterday, "We want everyone to come and renew old friendships, and get acquainted with President Peavey."

Reservations may be made by calling Mr. Mentzer at 927-K.

'You Don't Leave This House Until I've Searched Those Bags!'

—Charlotte Farnsworth stormed. "And don't 'Aunt Charlotte' me," she snapped at Anne. "I'm not your aunt."

Charlotte not her aunt? Who, then, was Anne... Anne, who had lived in the Farnsworth house, known to everyone as the daughter of the big man who owned the Farnsworth Fisheries?

Bravely the troubled girl sets out to solve the mystery behind the Farnsworth will, a document which had made her the prey of grasping relatives.

How she discovers the secret, how, befriended by simple fisher folk, she regains her position and sees justice done to them at the fisheries—how in so doing she finds a man worthy of her love—This is the story of
