

Classy Fight Card Lined Up by CCC at Elks Lodge Arena Tonight

BOYS WILL WORK FOR CHANCE AT PORTLAND TRIP

Winners of Previous Bouts Will See Action—Knight to Face Shupeck in Main Event of the Evening

The Medford Elks will be treated to the greatest fight card in their history when the CCC fighters climb into the ring tonight, in the opinion of local boxing fans.

The CCC district is planning to send an eight-man team to Portland November 19 and 20 for the International Far Western Diamond Belt Boxing championships, and from now on will use only its outstanding scrappers on the Elks' cards in order to eliminate all but the best eight for the team.

Tonight's card will be made up almost exclusively of winners on previous Elks' cards. Charles Knight, 162, of Upper Rogue will meet Bill Shupeck, 137, of Ocos Head, in the main event. Tiger Curran, 160, of Oak Knoll, will meet Gordon Houston, 158, of Diamond Lake, in the special event. The winners of these two bouts will meet on the next card for the district middleweight title and the right to represent the district in this weight at the Portland tournament.

A pair of heavyweights will see action when Mel Johnson, 180, of Headquarters Detachment, climbs into the ring to meet Battling Case, 180, of Diamond Lake. It will be the first heavyweight fight in several months and since both boys have good records, it is hoped to pick one of them for the Portland trip.

Joe Savicko, 137, the "Frankenstein" from South Park, will meet "Flash" Bergiel, 135, of Ocos Head, in another battle that will bring together Elks' card favorites.

John Cavelli, 147, of Headquarters Detachment, will make a bid for the Portland trip when he meets the Miller, 149, of Upper Rogue. Neither boy has lost a bout on the Elks' cards here.

STATE ATHLETIC PRESIDENT QUILTS

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 24.—(AP)—Paul D. Jackson of Klamath Falls has resigned as president of the Oregon State High School Athletic association, effective November 30.

John L. Gary of West Linn, association secretary, said Jackson's letter explained he is away from Klamath Falls on a year's leave of absence to head the national youth administration for Oregon and feels his district is not properly represented on the board.

No successor to Jackson will be named until the annual board meeting in Portland late in December. The new member will be elected from southern Oregon.

Beavers Get Bid For Arizona Tilt

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 24.—(AP)—Phoenix Kiwanis club members waited today to learn whether the Oregon State college football team will accept an invitation to play the University of Arizona in the second annual Fiesta Del Sol football game here Friday night, December 6.

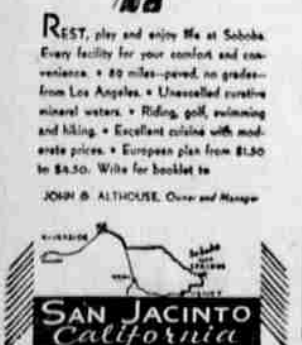

Oregon State, winner over Southern California last Saturday, was selected because a large number of alumni reside in Arizona.

GRANT HIGH SMEARS ROOSEVELT, 31 TO 0

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 24.—(AP)—The Grant high Giants suddenly realized their power and ground Roosevelt high down under a 31 to 0 defeat yesterday in another upset. Cleason, Grant quarter, ran wild in the first half to score three touchdowns behind sparkling interference.

U. S. ATHLETES TO ENTER OLYMPICS

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—(AP)—The United States positively will be represented in the 1936 Olympic games, Avery Brundage of Chicago, president of the American Olympic association and chairman of the American Olympic committee, said today in a briefing statement in reply to opponents of this country's participation in the games.

"The Olympic games belong to the athletes and not to the politicians," his statement said. "Knowing the temper of the true sport leaders and of the amateur athletes of this country who are unanimous on this subject, I say positively that there will be teams representing the United States in the 1936 games. The opponents of this country will not tolerate the use of clean American sport as a vehicle to transplant old world hatreds to the United States."

John Cavelli, 147, of Headquarters Detachment, will make a bid for the Portland trip when he meets the Miller, 149, of Upper Rogue. Neither boy has lost a bout on the Elks' cards here.

KING COX WINS IN WILD MATCH

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 24.—(AP)—Ted "King Kong" Cox, the Lond. Cal. brute of wrestling, won two of three falls from Babe "The Great" Zaharias of Pueblo, Colo., in their heavyweight match here last night.

By agreement nothing was barred, and more fits flew than usually do in a 10-round boxing match. Zaharias won the first fall and Cox the next two, each time rights and lefts to the jaw being the strategy.

Blue Son Jennings, Tulsa Indian, tossed Andrew Adoree in the third round.

Bob Kruse of Oswego and Brother Jonathan Heston of Hurricane, Utah, drew in three rounds.

Bird Slaughter, Profeated CONNEAUT, O.—(UP)—Bird lovers in this town are up in arms. They blame the slaughter of hundreds of song birds on a bran-mash compound that is used by fruit growers to protect their trees from climbing cut worms.

Obviously, not all football players are dumb-bells. Three of the five "veterans" from last year's Medford squad received honor grades in their first six weeks of school, just finished. John Dickinson, star running guard who has also been working at blocking back to relieve Bob Ettinger's sprained ankle, received three A's and a B, and Bob Smith, southpaw half and Stan Kunzman, star end, each got three B's and one A. That may indicate why the present edition of the Black Tornado is considered smart. Dumb players, at least those who have falling grades, are a source of constant worry to coaches. Once a clicking combination is arrived at, it is most disconcerting to have the office announce that Heskiah Okunkovitch can't play because he has three F's and an E.

There is plenty of discussion these days as to whether Joe Smolinsky, who last on a foul to Chief Thunderbird at the Army last week, is really the "Masked Marvel" who appeared here some time ago. He certainly looks and acts like he might be, but of course, it is hard to tell with the mask gone. If he isn't he ought to be, for he'd be a perfect masked mauler. Although the last match was awarded to Chief Thunderbird, Smolinsky really won it. He won't win against Kenaston, unless he shows something more than he did last Monday.

Regardless of the fact that Kenaston is considered something of a louse by the fans, there's something likeable about him, as there is about everyone. In the first place, he's powerful with a perfect physique. He's a headlock-crab, is sufficiently effective to leave his victims half paralyzed. The hold is perfectly legal, even if it is brutal. One of the things that made the fans hate him a little less cordially happened last week when he had that hold on London. He knew that it was hurting the big Greek, but he couldn't very well let go once he had it, and London wouldn't give up. That was a mistake, for he was unable to appear for the second fall.

But while the Mad Marine was clamping it on, he looked at Priebie, and was ready to drop it as soon as London signaled, a thing that he wouldn't have considered a few months ago. If you think the hold is phony, just have some of your friends try it out on your own back some evening when you don't have to be at work the next day. That's also a very convincing way to find out why the Boston crab leaves the boys in a cold sweat. Figures show that most of the wrestlers who have died as the result of a battering in the ring got their injuries as the result of one of these two punishing grips.

Reports from Eugene, issued by Coach John Warren, hand a real bouquet to Bob Hinman of Medford, now playing first string end for the Ducks. Warren cited him as one of the best on the squad, and publicly complimented him on his game at Astoria. What isn't generally known here is that Hinman played the entire game with his right arm taped to his side, because of a nasty shoulder injury received early in the year and aggravated in the game here against the SONS of Ashland. And not a single play was run around his end all evening, he driving the end runs inside so that the tackle could stop the play. He should be real vapid.

ON THE FOOTBALL FRONT

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 24.—(AP)—Those irresponsible Oregon State college football players pointed eagerly today for their game against Washington State college in Portland Saturday.

Coach Lon Stiner warned his young ball club it would catch the Cougars on a determined rebound following their loss to Washington, just as the Beavers caught Southern California on a furious rebound from Illinois. However the Beavers were able to beat Southern California, and were fired up with hopes of dumping the Cougars.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 24.—(AP)—Ed Brett, end, was on the sidelines with three bruised backfield regulars in the Washington State's practice session last night for the Oregon State game Saturday at Portland.

Dougherty, Christofferson and McBride were the ailing backs. Coach Babe Hollingsberry expects them to be in shape to start against the Beavers.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 24.—(AP)—The University of Oregon football team, led by a sensational punter and a sparkling line smasher, rolled southward today for its game Saturday against University of California at Los Angeles.

Stan Riordan, rugged end who has averaged 39.2 yards in his punts this season, and Frank Mochek, speedy, shifty, hard-hitting fullback, are the best offensive weapons the Webfoots boast.

material next year, along with Yerby at the other wing post.

Reports from Salem list the Medford squad as "big, with words of experience. The team has eight lettermen back from last year's first string." Coach Boverman was glad to hear that, and is anxious to get in touch with the lettermen mentioned, to have them turn out. Only five of the entire 37 on the squad ever played football before, Kunzman, Smith, Dickinson, Hat Ettinger and Lewis, Kowro Maruyama played last year with the second team, but is out with a broken ankle.

The rest of the new black headgear for the Tigers are expected to arrive today or tomorrow, along with a complete set of stockings, as advocated by this department some time ago. The stockings are expected to cut down leg injuries materially.

Pilots Take Final Gridiron Workout

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 24.—(AP)—With their entire squad ready for action, the University of Portland Pilots held their final workout today before their departure tonight to play Santa Clara at San Francisco Saturday.

Coach Gene Murphy will start the backfield which has carried the Pilots to wins in all their games thus far this season.

Rosson Burns Up Eugene Golf Links

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 24.—(AP)—Bill Rosson, University high student, reigned today as Eugene's golf king. With a dizzy display of sub-par golf, he won the championship by defeating the veteran Bert Prescott, 3 and 2. For the 36 holes Rosson was 11 under par at 183.

He set a course record of 63 strokes on the second 18.

TIPPIN, O.—(UP)—Beryl Hill, 30-year-old merchant, appeared in pre-bate court an hour after his marriage to Miss Alma Bean and complained, with tears in his eyes, that the girl's mother had "kidnaped" the bride.

HURD REPRESENTING ALLIS CHALMERS CO.

C. T. Hurd, representative of the Allis Chalmers Manufacturing Co., is headquartered in Medford while covering the southern Oregon territory. He reports that the business of his firm continues to be above expectation and that the third quarter statements which have just recently been issued show that the company is making a substantial profit on their sales.

Mr. Hurd is well known to a number of local people having, for a number of years, called here frequently as manager of the Portland branch of the Jobbers' Supply Co. He recently resigned from this position to take up work with the Allis Chalmers company. He is registered at the Hotel Medford.

SEATTLE, Oct. 24.—(AP)—A brief scrimmage today will conclude the body contact work of the University of Washington Huskies in preparation for the Stanford game.

Under a warm sun and on a dry field, the Huskies have been going through a passing practice, with Jimmy Cain and Byron Haines doing most of the tooting.

Pope's Work For Peace Published

VATICAN CITY, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Pope Pius' work as "the prince of peace" was spread before the world today by the Vatican official newspaper, Osservatore Romano, in answer to assertions he had done too little in the Italo-Rhodian conflict.

Extracts of his recent address were published as evidence his holiness has urged an amicable settlement of the conflict long before it reached the clash of arms.
