LEGION TO MARK NAVY DAY NEXT MONDAY EVENING

The American Legion's regular meeting Monday night, October 28, will be devoted to celebration of Navy Day. Four reels of naval talk pictures have been secured and will be displayed through the courtesy of H. D. Kern of Copco.

After a brief business session of the Legion and Auxiliary the two organizations will join in the Legion hall for the showing of these pictures.

Efforts are being made to secure a reel of naval films for each of the down town theaters and the schools for showing Monday.

All Legion and Auxiliary members are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served by the Auxiliary afterwards.

Navy Day was inaugurated in 1922 by the Navy League of the United States, and its observance is sponsored annually by the league.

October 27 was selected because it is the anniversary of the birth of President Theodore Roosevelt, so much of whose life was devoted to establishing a sound naval policy for the United States. It will be remembered that President Roosevelt first achieved a national reputation by writing a naval history of the war of 1812, a work of such merit that it was incorporated into Clow's Royal Navy, a monumental history of the British sea service.

Later, as assistant secretary of the navy, and finally as president, Roosevelt bent his tremendous energies to impress upon the American people the necessity for an adequate navy, and endeavored through his leadership to realize this ideal.

October is also the month in which the American navy was founded, in 1775, by the continental congress.

In addition to paying a deserved tribute to the sea heroes of the nation and recalling the splendid part the navy has played in making and keeping us a nation, the Navy Day observance has proved a valuable means of fostering a better understanding of the navy and its work.

Such information, in a country where government is by public opinion, is essential to the formation of correct judgments affecting naval policy, and in this work of information the Navy Day observance has played a considerable part.

With the co-operation of radio, the press and the motion pictures, and with the participation of the navy and other governmental agencies, as well as the American Legion, Daughters of the American Revolution, Veterans of Foreign Wars and other patriotic societies, Navy Day has developed into a day of serious thought on the subject of reasonable naval defense.

BOY CRIME RING AT EUGENE HELD ON MOTHERS 'TIP'

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 26.—(AP)—More than a dozen boys between the ages of 15 and 17 were being grilled by city police Saturday in connection with a series of burglaries, stockpiling over the past two months and involving hundreds of dollars in cash and stolen property.

One of the youths, apparently the leader of the hoodlum gang, which has harried city and state officers with daring entries of local restaurants, service stations and mercantile establishments, had by late afternoon allegedly confessed to a startling string of exploits, and had implicated a half score of companions.

The mother of one of the youthful burglars provided the tip which aroused the suspicion of police officers.

Early Saturday morning the woman, whose name was withheld by police, entered the station to report that she had found a large sum of money secreted in her home. Police immediately investigated and found a large sack of coins.

Confronted with this sack, the woman's son admitted that he and several companions had accumulated the contents in a long series of crimes.

Here's an example of persistence well rewarded. F. T. Emerick of Medford and Orville Holland have tried all season to kill a deer, and last Sunday took a trip into the Lakeview country of eastern Oregon after mule-tail. The nights were cold, the frost bothered them, and they could find nothing but does to reward their efforts.

But on Friday morning, the last day of the open season, Emerick finally got a shot at a four-point buck at 130 yards and dropped him with one shot. The two returned home Friday.

George Borne, Mary Dougherty and Walter Michael returned from the same district Friday night with two fine mule-tail deer.

NEW TRADE CLUB FOR STATE NOTES RAPID EXPANSION

The recently formed Columbia River Gateway Foreign Trade association has been receiving membership applications in increasing volume from all parts of Oregon, thus assuring success of the organization. It was stated today by Gordon R. Green, manager of American Fruit Growers, Inc., who is one of the 19 trustees of the association as a representative of southern Oregon.

The association was formed in Portland in August for the purpose of stimulating foreign trade through the Columbia river and of creating a wider interest in markets abroad.

Marketing problems will be considered at meetings to be held in Portland every two months and ways and means will be discussed for the solution of problems peculiar to the northwest.

Need is Cited
"This organization," Mr. Green said, "is going to be a very useful one. Portland in past years has been quite lax in promoting foreign trade and it is the purpose of the association to change this state of affairs and make Oregon foreign trade minded. Our neighboring states, California and Washington, have been strongly promoting foreign trade while we have sat on the sidelines and applauded."

Southern Oregon should be especially interested in the association, Mr. Green pointed out, because much of the fruit grown in the Rogue River valley must find foreign outlets. Because of this, he said, Medford has been keenly aware of the value of a foreign trade association.

Support Urged
Other sections, however, are not so conscious of the value of foreign trade to the state and for that reason, Mr. Green said, "every business organization in Oregon is urged to take an interest in this new association. To be successful, it will need a lot of support."

Those desiring information regarding the association and its aims may consult Mr. Green. An important meeting of the organization is to be held early in November.

Another development in the case came tonight when Walter "Red" Butterfield, a workman on Grand Coulee dam, told state police that Hall attempted to persuade him to aid in kidnaping two children of a wealthy Seattle business man in July, 1933. Butterfield said Hall also wanted him to aid in a department store robbery. The dam worker rejected both proposals and left Seattle because he feared Hall.

OAK GROVE AREA SEES SMART BUCK

There's a smart deer somewhere in this part of the valley—one that's too smart for the local nimrods who yearly have tramped the hills of the Umpqua divide, the plains of eastern Oregon, and the fastness of the Applegate region, looking for him.

While the hunters hunted, the deer ambled down into the valley, feasting on the lush meadow grass of the farmers. Friday evening, the last day of the deer season, a big buck was spotted in the Oak Grove district on the Jacksonville highway, inquiringly peering into the barn at the Fred Reich farm. Mrs. Reich and Mrs. R. L. Isaacs watched the animal from the Reich rookery.

They reported that the deer wandered all over the neighborhood, circling the Knipe barn and coming over to give the ladies the eye. It then jumped a fence, sauntered across the Jacksonville highway, and disappeared into the Pitts pear orchard, with what the ladies believe was a self-satisfied smirk upon its face. A very smart deer.

FOUL PLAY SEEN IN FIRE DEATHS

RIVERSIDE, Cal., Oct. 25.—(AP)—The death of two men in fires in the Woodcrest Acres settlement southeast of here, at first believed to have been accidental, was disclosed early today by Sheriff Carl Rayburn as a case of murder. The victims were Fred Leonard, 75, and Killis W. Snider. Both formerly were sea captains and Sheriff Rayburn said he believed the motive for the slaying probably concerned some feud between the men when they were on the water.

Sheriff Rayburn said a note was found in Snider's home, admitting the slaying of Leonard and stating he was going to kill himself.

MUSSOLINI RAPS LEAGUE ACTIONS IN FASCIST TALK

ROME, Oct. 26.—(UP)—Italy will fight against League of Nations penalties by organizing "the most desperate defense." Premier Benito Mussolini told the nation today in a ringing proclamation commemorating Monday's 13th anniversary of the fascist march on Rome.

Italy salutes the 14th year of fascism "with a warlike spirit and with flags unfurled," Mussolini declared.

In a veiled threat to those who impose sanctions, Il Duce said Italians will long remember such action and in the future be able to "distinguish between friend and foe."

The text of the message follows: "Blackbirds of all Italy: "The 13th anniversary of the march on Rome finds the Italian people gathered about the regime in a compact mass, spiritually mobilized since the last mobilization of October 2, which was unique in history."

"The Italian people are ready to face any development. Thirteen years of fascism have not passed in vain. The world of plutocratic, conservative egotisms is obliged to take notice."

"Those who are about to commit the most shameful injustice against us will realize that the Italian people are capable of heroic deeds similar to those of our soldiers who have gloriously avenged Adua and brought civilization to Africa."

"An eventual year terminates. The year fourteen of the fascist regime begins."

"We salute it with a warlike spirit, with flags unfurled, with the impetus of our faith and also with our strong will, by now tempered with innumerable and difficult trials."

BUSINESS PULSE SHOWS STRONGER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Two trade indices reported the business pulse stronger today as the chamber of commerce of the United States struck again at "inequitable and discriminatory" rules.

The monthly summary of business and finance issued by the federal reserve board noted further increases in industrial production and employment in September "reflecting in part seasonal influences."

Retail trade "throughout most sections resumed its upward trend" during the week ended Wednesday, said the commerce department after scanning reports from 33 key cities.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The Daily News says in a copyrighted story that the late Arthur ("Dutch Schultz") Flegenheimer left $1,000,000 in a Boston bank for his third wife, known only as "Ann."

The woman is not Mrs. Flegenheimer, now held in Newark, N. J., nor the woman who wrote affectionate letters to the estate while prohibition beer baron signed "Mommy," the News says.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 26.—(AP)—Albert Stern, the youthful gunman wanted by police for questioning in the Dutch Schultz tavern slayings and a half dozen other gang killings, was found strangled in a gas-filled room in the Italian-American neighborhood today.

Positive identification of the body was announced by Lieutenant of Detectives Joseph Cocozza of the county prosecutor's staff.
