Miss Handler Wed To Raymond Riter In Thursday Rites

With the beautiful colors of autumn forming the setting, Miss Mildred Handler of Portland and Raymond R. Riter of Medford were united in marriage Thursday afternoon at "Flushing Waters," summer home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Slater Johnson.

The attractive living room of the lodge was further enhanced by the addition of sprays of autumn foliage and vases of fall flowers, forming a colorful and seasonal background for the ceremony, which was performed by Judge Earl B. Day, a close friend of the groom.

Following the ceremony, the few intimate friends present were served a wedding supper.

The bride was attired in a charming dinner gown of black and gold lams' with fluted metallic trim, the same color scheme being carried out in her close-fitting French hat.

The bridal couple left Friday evening for the north on a short honeymoon, after which they will be at home to their many friends at 990 South Oakdale avenue in this city.

Mrs. Helmoth, hostess to club.

Pythian Sisters club met with Mrs. Mable Helmoth Tuesday evening at her home. Following a business meeting, the school lunches brought by the members were served.

Virginia Pick

Word has been received here that Miss Virginia Pick, a gifted musician of Medford and now attending the University of Washington, has become a member of Pro Musica, Inc., national society.

Said the Seattle Times:

"The first thing Seattle chapter of Pro Musica Inc. did at its reception in the Junior ball room of the Olympic was to acquaint new members with those of longer standing." Miss Pick is mentioned as being among the new members of the group. She was wearing black velvet with a deep yoke of black lace.

Job's Daughters And De Molays Entertain At Hallowe'en Dance

Dancing in a distinctly Hallowe'en atmosphere, 55 couples, members and their friends, were the guests last evening of the Medford Bethel of Job's Daughters and the local chapter of DeMolay, joint hosts for the dance, which was held in the DeMolay hall.

Walls and corners of the hall were camouflaged with corn stalks and autumn foliage, with orange and black crepe paper and favors completing the setting. Refreshments were served in the small dining hall, guests being shown the way by the pointed finger of a skeleton guide.

Visiting students from Salem who attended the football game in the afternoon were special guests for the affair.

Patsy Smith, queen of the Medford Bethel, and George Gates were general chairmen for the dance, with Kathryn Ford and Bill Meyers in charge of decorations and Betty Jane Pennington and Dick Roberts taking care of the tickets, and all members of both Job's Daughters and DeMolays co-operating in arrangements.

Mrs. Kabele

Mrs. Carl Fichtner was hostess Thursday to members of the Ladies' Aid society of Zion Lutheran church at her home. The day was spent in sewing.

On the day's program was the birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Geo. P. Kabele. Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher, speaking for the society, presented Mrs. Kabele with a beautiful quilt which had been made by the members.

Another all-day sewing meeting of the society will be held next Thursday in the church parlors.

Alpha Delta

Mrs. Everett Eads and her group had charge of the social hour at the meeting of the Alpha Delta class of the Christian church Thursday evening. The short business meeting preceding was presided over by Mrs. Helen Curry.

The social program included a game of plant exchange, after which the guests were invited to sit at long tables facing the school teacher, while a short session of school was held. A number of magical tricks were presented by Prof. John Eads.

Lunch was served in typical school fashion to about thirty guests.

Joint Hostesses

Members of the Don't Worry club were entertained Wednesday by Mesdames Iverson and Molloy at the former's home on Rose Court. Guests arrived dressed as little girls to fit in with the program of an old-fashioned school entertainment.

Sweeney's Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney left this week-end for San Francisco, where he will attend the annual meeting of the American College of Surgeons, of which he is a member of the executive committee.

They are expected to be gone several days.

Mrs. Dickey

Mrs. Walter Dickey and her sister Mrs. Florence May, left Friday evening for Porterville, Calif., where Mrs. Dickey will spend two or three weeks as the guest of another sister, Mrs. Mary Sheldon. Mrs. May will make her home in Porterville.

Several parties were arranged in their honor preceding departure, among them one given at the home of Mrs. F. Lindley and two at the home of Mrs. B. Burgher.

Shower For Bride-To-Be

Miss Alma Fenell, who is leaving soon for San Diego, where she will become the bride of L. H. Scott, was honored with a shower Thursday evening.

Guests were Eleanor Wall, Frances Barber, Mrs. Vivian Williams, Mrs. Geneva Duffy, Mrs. Leona Powell, and Mrs. Fay Bauer.

Miss Eleanor Wall will accompany Miss Fenell as far as Oakland. Also leaving soon is Miss Frances Barber, who will go to Seattle.

Town Club Dance Among Hallowe'en Festivities of Week

Hallowe'en, first and one of the most festive of fall holidays, looms on the social horizon, with dances, parties and festivities of all kinds being planned in celebration. Several affairs in this spirit have taken place during the last week, notable among them being the Town Club Ball Masque last night.

Fletcher Fish headed the committee in charge, and assisting him were Mesdames Harold Johnson, W. F. Quisenberry, A. A. Aldrich, Ryan, Everett Brayton and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spaulding.

A midnight supper was served after an evening of dancing.

Mason Past Masters Honor Guests Friday At Annual Banquet

The annual banquet and entertainment held at the Masonic temple Friday evening in honor of past masters of the Medford lodge was a marked success, an unusually large number of members being present.

The banquet was held in the dining room and was followed by an interesting program in the lodge room.

Harvey Field, Jr., sang two baritone solos, accompanied by Miss Connie Moore. Entertaining songs were given by E. L. Wilson and W. A. Gates.
