

AMERICANS GAIN HEAVY SHARE IN SWEEPSTAKE POT

Total of $2,729,000 Coming to Holders of Tickets in United States — Commander III Finishes First

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Oct. 30.—(AP)—American purchasers of tickets in the Irish Hospital sweepstakes added $1,423,900 to their winnings today when Commander III, Man's Pal, and Finalist finished in that order in the Combridgeshire race at Newmarket.

Today's winners, added to previous allotments from the draw, means that a total of $2,729,000 goes to the United States.

Americans won about 43.5 per cent of the total pot.

Previous to today's running of the race, they had gained prizes totaling $1,305,100 by winning horses which did not finish "in the money." residual purses and "consolation" prizes.

Six lucky Americans held tickets on Man's Pal, the horse which came in second. Each one of these tickets pays $73,650.

Tickets on Man's Pal were issued to: Lawrence Johnson, Chicago; J. B. Broderick, 511 South Louise street, Glendale, Cal.; "Hard Luck," Bridgeport, Conn.; James Angelou, the Bronx, N. Y.; E. J. McDonnell, New York; and J. G. Cashman, North Towanda, N. Y.

Two tickets were held in the United States on Finalist, the third horse. Each one of these tickets is worth $49,100.

Tickets on Finalist were won by "Bookery," New York, and an unidentified holder at Forest Hills, Long Island.

NEWMARKET, Eng., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Commander Third, 5-year-old French bred by owned by G. R. C. Foster, galloped off with the Combridgeshire stakes today.

A 28-to-1 shot in the betting despite the fact he was runner-up last year, Commander III defeated Mrs. V. D. Selinsky's Man's Pal by a length and a half. Man's Pal, a 100-to-1 shot in the betting, was a short head in front of Lady Hall's Finalist, the 6-to-1 favorite.

O. V. Watney's Wychwood Abbot, which defeated Commander III and 31 others in the 1934 running of the classic, wound up in fourth place and Col. F. T. Halse's Law Court in fifth. The only American-owned thoroughbred, Ralph Beaver Strassburger's Boethius, ran unplaced in the big starting field of 40 horses.

J. P. Hornung's Pegasus, the favorite for some days before the race, also was among the trailers.

Wychwood Abbot was top weight in the field with 133 pounds, while Man's Pal got in with the "feather" of 91 pounds; Commander III, ridden by the apprentice jockey, T. Hawcroft, carried an impost of 109 pounds.

The race, run over a course of a mile and a furlong, carried a purse of 1000 pounds with extras.

BADMINTON CHAMP EXPECTED TODAY; WILL PLAY FRIDAY

Jess Willard, world champion professional badminton player, will arrive in Medford some time this afternoon or evening to work out in advance for the badminton exhibition to be presented here Friday evening. It was learned in a telegram to the Medford Badminton club.

Accompanying Willard will be Bill Hurley, champion of the Los Angeles Badminton club, of which Willard is manager, and Chester Goss. Goss recently smashed through all opposition the Pasadena club had to offer to definitely establish the superiority of the Los Angeles club.

When Willard, Hurley, Goss and Law come onto the floor, they will represent the cream of the Pacific coast badminton stars. Adding to the impressive array of talent will be Mrs. Del Barkhoff of Seattle, who arrived in the city last night to work out with Hamilton Law on the courts of the Medford club. Mrs. Barkhoff will be the only lady appearing on the bill, Miss Zoe Smith of Seattle being unable to attend. Miss Smith is considered the only lady on the coast capable of pushing Mrs. Barkhoff, who has a slashing forehand, coupled with a deft backhand and skill of displacement, that makes her dangerous even to the best men players. She will be paired with either Ham Law or one of the Goss-Hurley team in a doubles match.

The feature match will be between Law and Willard, of course, but another match of unusual interest will be the regular doubles encounter. Willard and Law will probably be opposed to each other, with Goss and Hurley paired with them, but plans are not yet definite, depending upon the condition of the players after they start.

Badminton stars, like all other athletes, have their "on" and "off" days, and will be chosen for their skill at the time.

Willard has acted as instructor to Law in Seattle and pronounces that Law is the best prospect of the thousands that he has trained. The Medford pride, armed with a fast style of play modeled after the master's own, will be out to hand Willard a waxing if he can. Those familiar with his play think that he will come close if he doesn't actually win.

Law will also appear in a singles contest against Mrs. Barkhoff, and Goss or Hurley may play a singles contest against Willard. The matches will start at 8:15.

ON THE FOOTBALL FRONT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Possibility of a capacity crowd of 105,000 for the California-U. C. L. A. football game at Memorial Coliseum here Saturday was seen today with more than half the tickets sold and the contest still three days in the offing.

When the ticket offices closed last night more than 50,000 had been sold and all of yesterday's sales had not been recorded.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Sophomores who received their first major test under heavy firing in the Washington State game, will form the bulwark of the Oregon State college lineup against University of Portland here Saturday.

The team that finished the game against Washington State and scored the final touchdown was an all-sophomore crew, with one exception.

SEATTLE, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Coach Jimmy Phelan today tackled the job of putting fire in his University of Washington Huskies for the Montana game.

Phelan, indicating he felt the grizzlies might furnish plenty of trouble, concentrated on his regulars who have taken things rather easy since the Stanford game.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Snow and freezing temperature have sent the Washington State college cougars into the field house to finish preparation for their "revenge" meeting with Gonzaga here Saturday.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Ray Mauro, trainer of the Gonzaga Bulldogs, is willing to go to great lengths to get his football players in condition.

"If you guys will get into good enough condition to beat Washington State next Saturday, I'll walk every step of the way from Pullman to Spokane—yes, walk, and be on my honor not to hitch hike," he told them.

Judge Crews, who lives near the new school, is an ardent school supporter, and a great athletic fan.

George Eads last night rolled a 267 out of a possible 300 in a bowling game at the Smoke House alleys for high score of the month. The high score rolled since the alleys were opened was also turned in by Eads, a 278 score last spring.

Lots of peculiar things happen in bowling. In a game between the Brill Metal team and the Medco rollers last week, the teams split the scoring honors with two games each. That sounds like a close enough score for anyone, but doesn't tell the whole story. For Brill Metal, Hohlweg rolled a total of 468, Getig 373. Hoey scored 420 and Hiltner turned in 472, high for his team. The Medco team, the old Owen-Oregon aggregation, turned in a 473 score by Hester, 340 for Nutting, 462 for English, and 508 for Clancy, making a total of 1788 as against 1787 for Brill Metal. After bowling all evening there was only a one-point difference in total pins! Even more unusual was the match.

The resolution was presented to the school board, and they broadened the powers of the pass to include all Medford school functions. When the order was sent in to Marshall-Smith-Leonard to print the pass, they refused to take money for it, and the parchment card, the printing and art work was done gratis. The pass was put into a handsome bill-fold and a committee composed of Philip Lowry, student body president, Gordon Benson, student body manager, and Mildred Buckles, president of the Girls' League presented it to him recently.
