

RIGID SCHEDULE OF LIFE EASED FOR BABE RUTH

NEW YORK (UP)—Mrs. George Herman Ruth, wife and general manager of baseball's Bambino, is letting Babe take things easier these days.

The Babe laid away his bat after the Boston Braves released him and took up golf. Mrs. Ruth, who once kept the home-run king on a diet and a clicking schedule of regularity, thinks it's all right for him to let down a little after 22 years on the diamond.

She's still handling his business, however, and looking out for his interests. She's turned down some $100,000 worth of contracts since the former home run king was sent home from Boston just because "The Babe has been the idol of American youth for a long while and I won't have him mixed up in anything that isn't just right."

Ruth's business has always been baseball and as far as his manager wife knows it will continue to be. However, she is not sure whether he will attend the mid-winter meeting of club owners but supposes he will.

Merry Honk Honk Given Hunters As Geese Grow Wise

WALLA WALLA, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Geese on the Eureka flats near here have adopted "safety first" as their motto and as a result are out-smarting hunters.

Hunters said the geese feed in the morning before 7 o'clock, the hour shooting starts, then fly back to the rivers to remain until after 4 p.m. when hunting for the day is at an end.

A few brant and Canadian honkers were bagged during recent days. They apparently didn't know how to tell time.

G. P. MAN VICTIM HIT-RUN DRIVER

GRANTS PASS, Nov. 1.—(Sp.)—A hit-and-run driver left Walter Wyant, 61, of Isham street lying in the street in front of the Josephine County Flour mill on G street with a compound fracture of the lower left leg about 7 a.m. Thursday. The injured man had no idea who hit him.

Wyant was rushed to the Josephine General hospital by Tom Palmer, who came along the street shortly before 5:15 o'clock and found Homer Grable, city fireman, working over the man. Grable had heard the crash while sleeping at the fire hall, dressed, and hurried down to the street.

The elderly man was on his way to work, he told hospital attendants, and was pushing a two-wheeled cart before him as he crossed the street. The cart was demolished, members of the city fire force said.

City police were checking all possible clues that could lead to the identity of the hit-and-run driver.

ASHLAND PLANS POULTRY SHOW

ASHLAND, Nov. 1.—(Sp.)—In response to scores of requests from many western Oregon points, the rabbit and poultry show so successfully handled by the Ashland chamber of commerce last year, will be repeated in the local armory this year on Friday and Saturday, December 13 and 14, according to plans announced Thursday by Gordon MacCracken, chamber secretary.

Many more exhibits are indicated this year from places as far away as Portland. Many entries were made last year from Canby, Coquille and other coast points, as well as from southern Oregon, and all the breeders have promised to return.

Cash prizes will again be awarded by the Jackson county court, and will consist of $1.50 for first, $1 for second, and 75 cents for third, slightly under the prize scale of last year, when over $400 was distributed among the exhibitors.

SIAMESE-PERSIAN CAT PRODUCED BY SCIENCE

NEWTON, Mass. (UP)—Science has produced a Siamese-Persian cat, believed the only one of its kind.

Debutante, owned and bred by Mrs. Virginia Cobb, represents the fourth crossing and was produced according to genetic formulae derived by Dr. Clyde Keeler, geneticist at Harvard medical school.

The cat's parents were black hybrids that were crossed with pedigreed Siamese and Persian cats.

If mated with one of its own kind, a pure-breeding strain of Siamese-Persian cat will be produced.

$10 Fire Costs City $50

QUINCY, Mass. (UP)—It cost the city of Quincy $50 to fight a $10 fire. A city truck collecting street repair lanterns on Squantum Causeway, fronting Quincy Bay, caught fire. Six pieces of apparatus responded. Damage to the truck was only $10.

Shipping records, according to Oklahoma A. & M. college, reveal that next to potatoes the public eats more lettuce than any other vegetable.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

Master Golfer Carded Pair of "Aces" But Says "Wee" Putt Was Greatest Shot

(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
HIGHLAND, N. C.—(AP)—The greatest stroke in the brilliant golf career of Bobby Jones was a putt!

At least Bobby thinks so.

Reminiscing of his 22-year competitive career, Bobby readily singled out a 12-foot putt for a tie with Al Espinosa on the last green of the fourth round in the 1929 United States open at Winged Foot as the prize stroke of them all.

"It was that or nothing," said Bobby. "I had lost six strokes to Espinosa on the preceding six holes."

Bobby's pitch to the home green rolled into a deep bunker. A second pitch stopped 12 feet short. There was a curving "rainbow" line along a slope to the cup.

"Most Perfect Putt."

BOBBY JONES

"Well, I just managed to sink it," Jones explained in a slow drawl. But Al Watrous, who was playing with Bobby, called it the most perfect putt he ever saw.

"If that hole had been a four-and-a-quarter-inch circle on the green," said Watrous, "the ball would have stopped in the center of it."

Jones won the 36-hole play-off next day by 23 strokes, defeating Espinosa, who he had tied at 294 strokes. Jones, who retired in 1930 after taking the four major championships of the world in one season, is recuperating leisurely at his summer cottage here from an appendix operation last June.

Turning to freak shots, Bobby readily recalled the "lily pad shot" he made at Interlachen in 1930, a spectacular stroke that probably saved him from defeat in the last United States open championship in which he played, his "grand slam" year.

"His Luckiest Shot."

"The ninth hole at Interlachen," he recalled, "is a par 5 which can be done as a normal 4 if you drive close to the small lake and hit a good second shot cross to the green. If you drive out to the left and go around the lake, it's a par 5, all right."

"I had hit a drive fairly well down toward the shore, but my spoon shot—well, it wasn't exactly topped, but it was hit right in the back; one of those line drives that don't get up more than a foot or two. It looked like a drowned ball, with me playing the fourth shot from the bank of the lake and prospects of a 8 or maybe a 7.

"Sure enough, the ball hit the surface of the lake about half way across. A lot of lily pads afterward that it hit a lily pad, bounced and hit another lily pad—they were pretty thick around there—and bounced again, finally hopping out on the bank just short of the green."

"Anyway, it got out on the bank. It traveled like a flat stone skipped across the water. It was perhaps the luckiest shot I ever played in a championship."

Loss One Hole Four Times.

The leading "freak" shot of Jones' career probably was a niblick blast on the 18th on the Cape hole at the National Links of America in the foursome section of the first Walker Cup match with Great Britain.

Technically speaking—and not being too strict with the definition of "stroke"—Bobby lost the hole for his side four times with one shot.

The ball, pitched by Bobby's partner, Jess Sweetser, imbedded itself to the equator in the soft green. There was nothing to do but blast it with a niblick. It popped up, hit the club, glanced, struck the player's left foot and rolled over near the cup.

The American pair thus lost the hole (1) because the ball had struck the club after it was played; (2) because it had hit the player; (3) because the player had struck a moving ball, and (4) because Bobby had played a stroke out of turn.

Very likely, this was the most conclusively lost hole on penalties ever played in an important match. Incidentally, Jones and the Americans went on to win the Walker cup.

Bobby Jones has made two holes-in-one, the first on the 175-yard 11th hole at East Lake, Atlanta—his old home layout—in 1927, and the other on the Hill course, Augusta, Ga., a No. 7 pitch shot to a hilltop green, in 1931.

It was suggested that his batting average on holes-in-one might be interesting. If an estimate could be made of the number of holes he had played during his career on which an ace was feasible—the par-3 holes.

So Bobby took a pad and pencil and jotted down the approximate statistics.

Figuring he played on an average of four times a week from 1909 through 1930, April to September, inclusive, once a week during the six winter months, and about two rounds a week in the five years since his retirement, Jones estimated he had made 3,380 18-hole tours.

That meant Bobby had played a total of 69,840 holes, with an average of four par-3 holes per round, or 13,520 one-shotters.

Having aced two of them, Bobby has averaged one hole-in-one in 6,790 chances.

Southern Oregon Speakers' Topic

Southern Oregon was the main topic of conversation at the recent meeting of the Speakers club, with Justice of the Peace Johnny Reed of Gold Hill acting as master of ceremonies. O. A. Eden spoke on the resources of this district of the state, and Larry Pennington summed up the remarkable advantages in outdoor recreation offered here.

The rest of the members each delivered a short discussion on the same topic.

Twenty-five students enrolled in a class at Honolulu to learn the expert use of the ancient type of calculator, the abacus.

Hobson Lines Up Games With SONS

ASHLAND, Nov. 1.—(Sp.)—Howard Hobson, former director of athletics at Southern Oregon Normal school was in Ashland Thursday conferring with Jean Eberhart, the present coach, regarding tentative dates for Sons-Oregon basketball games here this season.

Hobson, who is now head basketball and baseball coach at Oregon, said he was holding the first workout on the Oregon campus tonight.

FOOTBALL THIS WEEK

(1934 Scores Are Listed In Parentheses)

SATURDAY

Mississippi State vs. Army	West Point
Dartmouth (2) vs. Yale (7)	New Haven
Boston College (7) vs. Providence (13)	Boston
Carnegie Tech (3) vs. Duquesne (0)	Pittsburgh
Columbia (14) vs. Cornell (0)	Ithaca
Pittsburgh vs. Fordham	New York
Rice vs. George Washington	Washington
Brown (0) vs. Harvard (13)	Cambridge
Holy Cross (22) vs. St. Anselm (0)	New York
Lafayette (6) vs. Rutgers (27)	Worcester
Mannattan (21) vs. City College of N. Y. (0)	Easton
Boston University (13) vs. New Hampshire (12)	Durham
Bucknell vs. New York University	New York
Navy vs. Princeton	Princeton
Fenn State (0) vs. Syracuse (16)	Syracuse
Michigan State vs. Temple	Philadelphia
Baltimore vs. Western Maryland	Westminster
West Virginia vs. Washington & Lee	Charleston

Central

Notre Dame vs. Ohio State	Columbus
Purdue vs. Minnesota	Minneapolis
Pennsylvania vs. Michigan	Ann Arbor
Illinois (14) vs. Northwestern (3)	Evanston
Indiana (0) vs. Iowa (0)	Iowa City
Nebraska (13) vs. Missouri (6)	Columbia
Creighton vs. Washington University	St. Louis
Iowa State vs. Marquette	Milwaukee

South

Alabama (34) vs. Kentucky (14)	Birmingham
Alabama Poly (6) vs. Louisiana State (20)	Baton Rouge
Florida (0) vs. Georgia (14)	Jacksonville
Georgia Tech (12) vs. Vanderbilt (27)	Atlanta
Tennessee (14) vs. Duke (6)	Durham
Coigate (20) vs. Tulane (6)	New Orleans
Maryland (20) vs. Virginia (0)	Charlottesville
North Carolina (7) vs. North Carolina State (7)	Raleigh
South Carolina (20) vs. Virginia Poly (6)	Blackburg
W. M. I. (13) vs. William & Mary (6)	Williamsburg
Washington & Lee (0) vs. West Virginia (12)	Charleston
Texas A. & M. (7) vs. Arkansas (7)	Fayetteville

West

California (3) vs. U. C. L. A. (0)	Los Angeles
Santa Clara (7) vs. Stanford (7)	Palo Alto
Montana vs. Washington	Seattle
UConn (13) vs. Washington State (6)	Pullman
California Aggies (0) vs. Nevada (0)	Rego
Oregon State (39) vs. Portland (12)	Portland

Southwest

Kansas (7) vs. Oklahoma (7)	Norman
Oklahoma A. & M. vs. Texas Tech	Lubbock (N)
Kansas State (0) vs. Tulsa (21)	Tulsa
Oklahoma City (6) vs. Arizona (28)	Tucson (N)
Texas Christian (34) vs. Baylor (12)	Waco
Texas (7) vs. Southern Methodist (7)	Dallas

Rocky Mountain

Colorado State (21) vs. Utah State (21)	Logan
Wyoming (26) vs. Montana (6)	Bozeman
Utah (43) vs. Brigham Young (0)	Provo
Colorado College (5) vs. Colorado (31)	Boulder

(N)—Denotes Night Game

Pick Support Card For Braddock Show

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Cerefino Garcia and Otto Blackwell, hard hitting negro, will battle 10 rounds in the main event of the November 12 fight card on which James J. Braddock will appear here.

Babe Still Hopes For Managership

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Babe Ruth is going to give the major league baseball magnates one more chance to hire him as a manager.

At a gathering of the Circus Saints and Sinners yesterday, the Babe, reiterating his statement that he never would play again, said he intends to go to the major league winter meetings in December in search of an opening.

Royal Mounted Unmounted
MAC LEOD, Alta. (UP)—The Royal Canadian Mounted Police detachment here does not own one horse.

NOW PRICED FOR ALL TO ENJOY

NOW Brown-Forman brings back famous King of Kentucky... as a special favor to those who appreciate a truly fine Kentucky straight whisky! Made the old, costlier, good way—for old-time royal flavor. For real old-time enjoyment, try it today!

KING of Kentucky

KENTUCKY PINT STRAIGHT WHISKY

Code No. 190-G Fifth $1.15 Code No. 190-B

70c

BROWN-FORMAN Distillery COMPANY, Louisville, Ky.

Write The VanLandingham Company for Illustrated Recipe Booklets, Bell Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

SALE AT LAMPORT'S

Decorated Glass Water Sets $1.25 values, Saturday and Monday	$1	Heavy Wool Sweaters $5.00 values, Saturday and Monday	$1
Chrome Plated Tea Kettles $1.50 values, Saturday and Monday	$1	4-inch High Grade Paint Brushes $1.30 values, Saturday and Monday	$1
Copper Percolators $1.75 values, Saturday and Monday	$1	Assortment Hollywood Crockery $1.35 values, Saturday and Monday	$1
Enameled Percolators $1.35 values, Saturday and Monday	$1	Qts. Johnson Liquid Wax $1.40 value, Saturday and Monday	$1
2-Qt. Pyrex Casseroles $1.25 values, Saturday and Monday	$1	Good Grade Single Bit Axes $1.50 values, Dollar Days Special	$1
Georgian Novelty Dolls $1.40 values, Saturday and Monday	$1	Winch'er Nail Hammers $1.50 values, 10-ounce	$1
Baby Dolls with Sleepy Eyes $1.45 values, Saturday and Monday	$1	Weaver Egg Poachers $1.50 values, Saturday and Monday	$1

SPECIALS DURING THIS SALE

All Wool Blazers Reg. $4.00 values. On sale at	Oxford Shoes $5.00 and $6.00 values. Special	All Wool Blazers Reg. $5.00 values. On sale at
$2.50	$1.49	$3.00

LAMPORT'S

226 East Main Street

SPECIAL FOR DOLLAR DAYS SATURDAY and MONDAY

SHADES $1.00

For Floor, Bridge and Table Lamps

Choose From A Fine Selection

Here Is Real Value For Dollar Days

- Earlco FLOOR LAMPS$2.00
- Earlco BRIDGE LAMPS$7.50 up
- Earlco TABLE LAMPS$1.65 up
- Earlco PIN-UP LAMPS$1.80 up
- Earlco BED LAMPS$2.00 up

Use Earlco Lamps for Better Light and Better Sight

- EARLCO LAMPS are individually manufactured
- EARLCO LAMPS are individually styled
- EARLCO LAMPS are guaranteed for quality
- EARLCO LAMPS are guaranteed in Workmanship
- EARLCO LAMPS are lamps with refinement
- EARLCO LAMPS are different
- EARLCO LAMPS are examples of craftsmanship

PEOPLE'S Electric Store

214 W. Main St. Phone 12