Newly-wed Couple Return To Medford After Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Rafael J. Simpson have returned to Medford from their honeymoon trip to Seattle and other northern points. Mrs. Simpson was Verna Odell Burton before her marriage.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Odell, in McMinnville, Oct. 20.

The scene was typically autumn, with the living room fireplace banked high with autumn foliage and flowers. Candelabra, entwined with ivy and flowers, formed the altar for the bridal pair.

Mrs. E. C. Arthur, sister of the bride, was charming as matron of honor, wearing imperial blue crepe and carrying a nosegay of pink and yellow rosebuds and delphiniums.

The bride wore white lace with a bridal cap to match and carried a small white Bible, a shower of ribbon and lilies of the valley. Her going-away ensemble was of wood violet crepe, a brown aquiline coat and matching accessories.

Several showers and affairs in honor of her marriage awaited the bride on her arrival in McMinnville previous to the wedding date.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson will be at home at 316 Howard street in this city.

★ Mrs. Brickley Leaves for Home.

Mrs. T. F. Brickley, of Ogden, Utah, who has been a house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanby for the past ten days, left early this week for Los Angeles, where she will visit a short time with her son before going on to New Orleans for the winter.

During her stay here, Mrs. Brickley was entertained with a number of affairs in her honor. She is a cousin of Mrs. Hanby.

Eastern Star-Mason Homecoming Is Being Planned For Dec. 6

Plans are being made by members of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges for a homecoming dinner and dance to be given Friday evening, December 6, in the Masonic temple.

Plans for the dinner are going forward under the direction of Mrs. Addie Wilson and Mrs. Lorraine Young, who are chairmen for the October and November committees. Dance arrangements will be made by C. M. Houston, G. B. Alden and A. G. Bishop.

Invitations will be issued to all Eastern Stars and Masons, and the affair promises to be highly entertaining.

Any ladies not contacted by the committee are requested to bring a salad or hot vegetable.

Departing Resident Honored At Several Affairs This Week

Mrs. Mable Marsh, who with her son is leaving soon for Grand Island, Neb., to make her home, was the honor guest at luncheon arranged by Mrs. A. H. Gregory at her home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Marsh was presented with a picture of Crater Lake as a farewell gift from her friends. Guests for the afternoon were Mesdames J. T. Davis, R. Guyer, J. O. O'Brien, T. C. Latham, W. Kindred, L. C. Horne, C. H. Hon, W. E. Baird, Caroline Leaders, R. L. Cook and the honor guest.

Mrs. Marsh was also honored by members of the Past Noble Grand club when they met recently at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Ripley. A shower of handkerchiefs complimented the honor guest. Mrs. Marjorie Pearson directed the guests in games during the evening.

Decorations were in the Halloween spirit which was carried out in the refreshments served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Pearson and Irene Shilley.

Pocahontas Dance Arranged Friday

Social events of the week included the dance arranged by the Pocahontas lodge Friday evening for members and their invited guests. As was the case with almost every entertainment the past week, Halloween decorations and spirit were the order of the evening.

In charge of arrangements for the dance were Peggy Purdin, Esther Dooms and Florence Hush. Refreshments were served by Glenn Abbott, William Pinne and O. A. Hubbard.

Mrs. Thayer Hostess To Society Auxiliary

Mrs. F. C. Thayer was hostess last Saturday afternoon to members of the Auxiliary to the Jackson County Medical society at her home for luncheon.

Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, of Ashland, president, was in charge of the brief business meeting which followed the luncheon. As part of the program following the business session, Mrs. MacCracken presented a report of the meeting of the state auxiliary to the state medical society, which met at Gearhart some time ago.

Readings were given by Mrs. Charles W. Lemery and Mrs. T. C. Heine to complete the program.

Baptist Auxiliary To Have Guest Day

A special "guest day" meeting of the Baptist Ladies' Auxiliary will be held November 12. Each member is expected to bring a guest. An interesting program is being planned and refreshments will be served.

Place of meeting is the C. A. Whitlock home on the old Pacific highway, across from the Howard school. Anyone wishing to go but with no transportation is requested to call Mrs. D. W. Roberts.

Married Fifty Years

150 Guests Offer Congratulations To Wendolin Meyers

Receiving about one hundred and fifty guests during the day, Mr. and Mrs. Wendolin Meyer celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with an open house last Sunday at their home on Orchard Home road.

Yellow chrysanthemums in profusion formed a beautifully appropriate setting along with other autumn foliage. All decorations carried out the golden theme.

Guests were served refreshments in caetera style at tables set in the rooms. Occupying the center of attention was the table holding a large wedding cake decorated with gold. The cloth of gold cover for the table was imported from Austria for this occasion.

Many beautiful gifts were brought by friends and acquaintances who called during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer repeated their wedding vows at the eight o'clock mass in the Catholic church Sunday morning, receiving a blessing together with their children. The five sons and daughters of the couple are: Wendolin Meyer, Jr., of Breese, Ill.; Mrs. H. J. Nordham, of Deland, Fla.; Elizabeth Meyer, Mrs. Rose Griffin and Joe Meyer, all of Medford.

Chi Delta Chapter Has Session Friday

Chi Delta, newly organized chapter of the Delphian society, met at the Girls' Community club rooms Friday morning. Reports were given on the subject of English contributions to American civilizations.

Individual topics were: Racial Inheritance, Mrs. Jerry Barr; Language, Mrs. R. A. Duff; Literature, Mrs. J. W. Grigsby; Love of Fair Play, general discussion; Our Debt of Law, Mrs. C. E. Kuns; Science, Mrs. Bernard Roberts; Social Ideals, Mrs. A. Hagen; Political Ideals, Mrs. D. R. Wood.

Tuesday Meeting Of Altar Society

St. Ann's Altar society met in regular session Tuesday afternoon. The president appointed committee to take charge of the dinner following the bazaar late in November.

Reports were given by various committees, and plans were completed for the card party in parish hall Tuesday evening, to which the public is invited. Mrs. Jensen will act as chairman for the affair.

Improvements in the kitchen were inspected, following which refreshments were served by Mesdames Naumes and Weston.

Delphian Society Holds Discussion Of Tudor England

The Thursday morning meeting of Beta chapter, Delphian society, was largely taken up with a discussion of "Social Life in Tudor England," which was broken up into individual topics presented by various members.

Also on the program was a review of "North to the Orient," by Anne Morrow Lindbergh, which was presented by Mrs. Foster Cone. Current events were discussed by Mrs. E. H. Hedrick.

Elizabethan literature will be reviewed at the Nov. 7 meeting. Individual reports will be: General character of the period, Mrs. Arch Work; the political career of Bacon, Mrs. E. M. Butler; Bacon's literary career, Mrs. G. E. Strader; Spenser's unsuccessful suit for favor, Mrs. Ted OeBauer; a brief discussion of his masterpiece, Mrs. Bruce Bauer; Elizabethan lyrics, Mrs. Wm. Holloway; The Sonneteers, Mrs. Olen Arnsperger.

Methodists Have Hallowe'en Party

Typically spooky in atmosphere and decorations, was the annual Hallowe'en party of the South Methodist league, whose hostesses were Mrs. Ray Arthur and Adabee Seiler at the Arthur home one evening this week.

Guests were bidden to come in ghost costumes, which successfully hid the identity of each from the others present.

Hallowe'en games of all sorts were the order of the evening, with doughnuts and coffee served later by the hostess.

★ Past Matrons To Meet Wednesday.

Past Matrons' club of Nevita chapter O. E. S., will hold its monthly meeting at the country home of Mrs. Bertha Bursell Wednesday, Jennie Merritt, Alice Hanley and Lella Pason will assist the hostess.

A one o'clock luncheon will be served by Berta Pankey and Mable Bennett, after which the regular business meeting will be conducted. President Jennie Merritt will preside.
