ROGUE RIVER FILM SETTING VISIONED

The possibility that Rogue river may some day be the locale for an outdoor moving picture, a possibility long dear to the imaginations of the Rogue, shooting birds and fishing. He impressed was he with the recreational offerings here that he assured Ernst that he will return regularly, intending to bring a party of at least 10 next year.

Clark Gable and his wife were to have been the guests of Lloyd on this trip but last minute business prevented their coming. They will probably be among those in the party next year, Lloyd told Ernst.

GANGSTERS MOLL FOUND MURDERED

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Red haired Vivian Chase, sharp-featured female public enemy No. 1, is dead—apparent victim of a gunman for whom she carried bullets in her purse.

Police renewed their search for John Langan, fugitive bank robber, after the body of the attractive 34-year-old consort of gangsters was found in a motor car near St. Luke's hospital in a fashionable country club plaza district.

The bullet which ripped through the woman's chest downward from the back of the neck was 45 calibre—the same as that which Langan fired into a Kansas deputy Sept. 12 in a gunfight in which Langan's wife was killed.

Marooned Shriners Taken From Island

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., Nov. 5.—(UP)—A party of Shriners, headed by Monte Blue, film actor, landed here safely last night after being marooned for two days by a gale and high seas on lonely Santa Cruz Island, 23 miles southwest of here.

They were rescued by the coast guard patrol boat, Ewing, after several minutes their way to shore in a boat and reported the party's predicament.

None was seriously hurt, although several suffered from exposure. James Jump, 72, of Los Angeles, broke his leg when a wave washed him against the rigging.
