

Challenge Pelicans to Return Game as Answer to Charges

Post-Game Claims Of Blunder Strain Cordial Relations

By DICK APPELGATE

In reply to charges hurled from various Klamath Falls school officials today, alleging phoney work on the part of Coach Bill Bowerman of Medford and Howard Scheffel of Medford, Bowerman this morning telephoned the Klamath school and offered to re-play the game, here.

"If the Pelicans persist in their allegations that the Tigers won the game on skulduggery and not on football, a fine way to settle the dispute would be for the Pelicans to come to Medford, either November 16, when Medford has an open date, or any other time, and I will guarantee them a 30-0 beating," Bowerman told them.

Idea Not Favored.

The idea did not find favor with the school officials from over the mountain, who said that there was little probability that a second game would be played.

Answering the charges as to Howard Scheffel being a "pinch-hit" umpire, Bowerman said: "Before the game we were to arrange with Klamath Falls as to officials. In their first letter to me they suggested Al Hopkins, L. L. Deal and Clyde Young. I approved the first two but balked at Young, and suggested Bob Turner of Roseburg in his place. Klamath promised to get in touch with Turner.

On October 31, I received a letter from them, making no mention of Turner but suggesting Lynn Roycroft of Klamath Falls, Frank Hall of Klamath Falls and Bob Thompson, also of Klamath Falls. I had never heard of Thompson or Hall, so refused to use them. I had heard of Roycroft, so refused to use him. The evening before the game I wired Deal, asking him to be there without fail. I had Klamath's sanction on Deal.

"Saturday the only two officials who put in an appearance were Deal and Roycroft. I had never approved Roycroft. Al Hopkins had not arrived two minutes before the game. The Klamath officials proposed that ex-coach French of Klamath Falls be head-line-man. There being no alternative, I accepted. Just before the game started Howard Scheffel, who was there as a spectator but who is an approved official, was suggested, and with Avritt's approval, started the game. Avritt wanted Scheffel to referee, as a matter of fact.

Hopkins Arrives Late.

"After the first quarter was nearly over, Hopkins arrived. Klamath wanted him to take Scheffel's place. Since Roycroft had never been approved, I asked that Hopkins take his place. Klamath refused to allow this, so Hopkins didn't work at all. That seems fair enough to me. We promised to pay Hopkins for his trip from Cave City," Bowerman said.

Jerry Jerome, Medford timekeeper quoted by Klamath officials as declaring the ball not over by "18 inches" on the disputed pass, today hotly denied that he had ever made such an announcement. "There was never any doubt, either expressed or implied, on my part, as to whether that pass was over. It was over by at least the length of a ball. The argument over time out, where Klamath charges Scheffel with penalizing the Klamath team for too many times out is ridiculous.

"The argument came as to whether time out should be charged when Klamath made a substitution while the ball was in play. That automatically made time out, and this decision was backed up by Deal. There was no penalty called by Scheffel or anyone else. I can't imagine where they got the idea that there was," Jerome said.

Scheffel Tells Action.

Scheffel, the subject of all the controversy, today made this announcement: "Since all criticism seems to be directed toward me, I'd like to make a statement.

"About two minutes prior to the time for calling the game, Coach Avritt and Bowerman approached me and requested that I umpire the game for the reason that one of the officials had not arrived. I certainly did not solicit the job, and would not have acted in any official capacity for any other reason.

"The only disputed point during the entire game was the completed pass and resulting touchdown during the last few minutes of play. Standing directly on the goal line, I was in a position to determine without question whether the ball was over the line or not, when declared.

"I did not immediately declare a touchdown as I was not positive that the ball carrier was inside the boundary when receiving the pass. I satisfied myself on this point by going over to the sideline and determining that the receiver of the pass was well within the field of play before crossing the goal line. It is customary for the referee to rely on the umpire to call the point of down on completed forward passes and punts, and it was understood between Referee Deal and myself before play was started that this rule would be followed.

Would Do It Again.

"What happened when the game was over is a closed incident as far as I am concerned. I called the disputed play exactly as I saw it, and would again under the same circumstances," Scheffel stated.

Principal C. G. Smith of the Medford school today announced that he has received an apology from Klamath officials for the assault on Scheffel in the dressing room after the game, and said that it was probable that the Klamath authorities themselves would take action against the players who perpetrated the assault on Scheffel.

It is inexplicable to the writer where Klamath got the idea that the pass had been completed on the 18-inch line instead of over the goal line, as it was, the ball would have gone to the Pelicans on downs. True, the pass came on the fourth down, but if it had been completed on the 18-inch line, as alleged, it would have been a first down, with four more cracks at the goal. After carrying

LAST MINUTE WIN BY MEDFORD MEN RANKLES PELICANS

KLAMATH FALLS, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Cordial athletic relations between Klamath and Medford high schools, rivals for over two decades, were on the verge of disappearance today as echoes of last Saturday's disputed football contest on Modoc field continued to rumble.

There was a general feeling here that a blunder on the part of Umpire Howard Scheffel of Medford gave the undefeated Medford team a last-minute victory over the underdog Pelicans. The score was 19 to 14.

Ruled Pass Touchdown Scheffel ruled that a pass, Smith to Kunzman, gave the Tigers the winning touchdown. L. L. Deal, referee from Grants Pass, said he was too far from the play to make a decision. Lynn Roycroft, head linesman of Klamath, and Dr. George Wright of Klamath and Jerry Jerome of Medford, timekeepers, said Kunzman was downed on the 18-inch mark. There were but a few seconds remaining to play in the game.

Les Avritt, Klamath coach, pointed out a difference in opinions over times out. Deal told the Klamath coach just before Medford scored that the Pelicans were entitled to another rest without penalty. When the team took the time out, Scheffel penalized it and gave Medford another down.

Meant Klamath's Ball Had the referee's opinion held, the coach said, and had the touchdown been stopped on the 18-inch mark, Klamath would have gained possession of the ball. With the game practically over, it was felt here that Klamath would have won, 14 to 13.

Klamath, underdog by three touchdowns at the start, led through the greater part of the contest and outplayed the Tigers. The players sought the victory eagerly for Medford has been beaten but once since the first game in 1914. The victory came in 1920, the year after Frank Callison left to become freshman coach at the University of Oregon.

L. B. Emery, principal, said today he was willing to offer the whole situation to the State High School Athletic association for investigation. Avritt planned no formal protest on the result of the contest.

No Comment on Assault As to charges printed in the Medford Mail Tribune that a Klamath player attacked Scheffel after the game, Emery made no comment. Apologies were made at the time, he said, and Scheffel, recognizing the player's emotional strain, passed off the incident lightly.

The dispute was regarded here as casting a shadow on Medford's bid for the state title. Klamath has played both Eugene and Medford, two undefeated Oregon high schools. The players favored the Eugene eleven as the team to play the Portland winner.

Scheffel was a pinch-hit umpire, Avritt said. Al Hopkins of Cave City was originally signed to officiate but was delayed by an accident. It was agreed with Bill Bowerman, Medford coach, that Hopkins should take over the duties when he arrived. The Klamath coach said Bowerman refused to make the change after Klamath scored a touchdown and led in the first period, 7 to 6.

HINMAN PROVING STRONG BULWARK FOR DUCK SQUAD

Bob Hinman, star University of Oregon Duckling end from Medford high school, was rated as one of the most effective players on the field in the first Frosh football game against the Oregon State Rooks at Eugene, according to a special dispatch to the Mail Tribune from the university news bureau. The two teams meet again shortly and Hinman is expected to be a tower of strength for the Frosh.

Hinman's experience as an ace basketball player for three seasons on the Medford maple court squad makes him an extremely valuable man on the offense. His ball handling ability acquired by this sport enables him to catch passes with above average consistency," says the dispatch.

"On defense, the ex-Pear Pickers' 180 pounds of fight on a 6 foot 1 1/2 inch frame presents an obstacle difficult for opponents to eliminate. Despite his weight, the southern Oregon boy is extremely fast in getting down the field under punts. Several times in the Rook game he nailed the slippery Alexander, Rook safety man, before he could get under way with the ball.

"Hinman has been one of the four iron men of the yearling squad in their last three games. He has played every minute in these three encounters. This time plus the 32 minutes of participation in the season opening game against the SONS, makes him one of the leading men in the number of minutes played."

REFeree L. L. DEAL BACKS MEDFORD

GRANTS PASS, Nov. 5.—(AP)—L. L. Deal, Grants Pass high school instructor, who refereed the contested football game between Medford and Klamath Falls last Saturday, denied today that a penalty was assessed against Klamath Falls for a time out when they were told there would be no penalty.

Deal explained that first he told Coach Avritt that Klamath Falls had taken all their rests. A conference between the referee and the timekeepers followed with the result that it was agreed Klamath had one more time out in its favor. Deal said he then informed the Klamath captain and coach and the next time out was taken without penalty.

The referee also said that unless Jerry Jerome of Medford, timekeeper reported at Klamath Falls to have said the ball was not over the goal line on the contested touchdown, had "changed his tune," the Medford man was misquoted. Deal said today he had talked with Jerome in Medford after the game and declared Jerome emphatically stated the ball was over the goal line.

ELKS-CCC CARD WILL PULL FANS THURSDAY NIGHT

The biggest crowd since the Elks-CCC boxing series was started last year is expected Thursday night when the CCC battlers climb into the ring to fight for the right to represent the Medford district in the Portland amateur tournament November 19 and 20. Elks and their friends are invited to attend.

Seven bouts will be staged and every one of them will have a direct bearing on the team selections. Eight men from this district will be sent to Portland to appear in the International Far Western Diamond Belt Amateur championships.

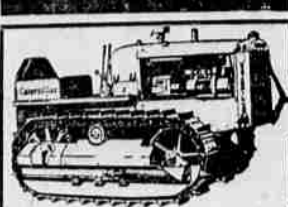

Bill Supek, 157, Coos Head, will tangle with Tiger Curran, 156, Oak Knoll in the main event on the card. L. Supek won his last fight with a knockout over Charlie Knight of Upper Rogue while Curran defeated Gordon Houston of Diamond Lake.

Two new fighters, Harry Clifton, 128, Agness, and Steve Granzyk, 129, China Flat, will meet in a bout that may determine the Medford entry in the 125-pound class. Granzyk defeated Sherry McVey of Diamond Lake on a card here some months ago and since that time has been working out regularly with Stan Stockins district lightweight champion. Stockins is unable to box at the present time because of broken ankles suffered in a truck accident. Clifton reached the semi-finals of the Golden Glove tournament in Columbus, Ohio, last winter and has been developing rapidly since.

Howard Guptill, 148, Gasquet, will tangle with Joe Dispensa, 149, Green Caves in another event that promises the ultimate in action. Guptill kayaked Hupp, Upper Rogue's "windmill" fighter, on last week's card. The balance of the bouts will be arranged Thursday when the fighters arrive here. Forty to fifty boys are expected here and the most likely contestants will be matched before the Portland team is named.

DUKE IS BOUND OVER UNDER $5000 BOND ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Curtis Duke, 32, who has been living at Cave City, was bound over to the federal grand jury today by U. S. Commissioner Victor Tengwald on a removal complaint. Bail of $5,000 was not posted and he was committed to Jackson county jail in charge of E. G. Narreagan, deputy U. S. marshal. He waived a hearing.

An indictment returned by a grand jury in the eastern district of Oregon alleges that Duke together with Joe Duke and Ted Puttrell, committed a felonious assault on June 1, upon Arnold C. Kincaid, postmaster of Hockstoken, Okla. They pointed a pistol and a shotgun at the postmaster while he robbed him of $51 of postal receipts, the indictment charges.

Duke was arrested recently near Kerby in Josephine county, on a warrant issued by the United States commissioner in Portland. He will be taken to Portland by Mr. Narreagan in the near future.

FLORIDANS BRACE FOR SECOND BLOW

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Floridians brace today for a return visit of a fresh hurricane which left more than $2,000,000 damage and seven deaths. The storm hammered 215 miles out into the Gulf of Mexico, then slowed down and began to curve northward.

Grady Norton, Jacksonville weather bureau meteorologist, said it was "fairly certain" the disturbance would pass over Florida again within 24 hours, this time somewhere north of Tampa. The storm howled in from the Atlantic Monday, swept past Miami and into the Everglades, leaving a trail of sunken boats, smashed homes and uprooted crops.

Super-Service Wardoleum is a proved value through and through! Look where you will—in all America you will not find better economical floor covering! We placed one of these sturdy rugs at the entrance of our Chicago store where thousands tramped over it daily. In all kinds of weather it withstood the wear of trampling, shuffling feet bringing in the grittiest kind of dirt from the street. After 3,000,000 footsteps were recorded we found that the surface was still unbroken and the heavy felt base apparently as good as ever. The rug that has proved that it can take wear like that is the best rug for your home!

Check These Proved Value Facts!

- Super-Service Wardoleum wears longer because the sturdy felt base is 1/4 thicker than in the average rug of this type!
- The line enamel, another reason for Super-Service Wardoleum's wear resisting quality, is much heavier than most hard surface rugs!
- New features are constantly being added to the line! See the tile, modern and floral designs suitable for any room in the house!
- It's easy to lay Wardoleum—no tacking or cementing is necessary—simply unroll and it will lie flat.
