Jack Benny Coming to Craterian

"Hello again" . . . It's Jack Benny, outstanding radio comedian, who plays one of the dears in "Broadway Melody of 1936" coming to the Craterian theatre.
Innumerable new faces are brought to the front with this giant musical production, among the most promising being Eleanor Powell, the world's greatest feminine tap dancer. Sid Silvers, Frances Langford, Nick Long, Jr., Vilma and Buddy Ebsen, and Harry Stockwell. Others, better known to movie fans, include Robert Taylor, Una Merkel and June Knight.
Miss Powell, from all advance reports, "walks away" with the show—

Coming to Rialto Screen Sunday

"She Gets Her Man", the hilarious comedy which is a burlesque on the current "G" men films, plays at the Rialto theatre Sunday and Monday.
Zasu Pitts and Hugh O'Connell teamed together for the first time, are featured in the picture, and the story tells what happens when the agitated Miss Pitts runs afoul of all the gangsters in Chicago. She introduces a new type—the "G" Women—and the part fits the Pitts personality like a glove.
The cast of players also includes Helen Twelvetrees, Lucien Littlefield, Eddie Brophy, Ward Bond and many others.

"HERE'S THE PERFECT START FOR THESE BRISK MORNINGS!" Dip Shredded Wheat biscuits quickly into hot water—drain—and serve with milk or cream. Delicious with bananas or canned fruits, too.

SOME APPLE PACKING REMAINS TO BE DONE

The Rogue River company, Newberry & Sons of Phoenix and the Independent Packing company have not finished their season's fruit pack, according to C. W. Holdridge. They still have about 20,000 boxes of Newtown apples to reach the packing sheds, Mr. Holdridge states.
It was stated in The Mail Tribune yesterday that the packing of apples had been completed by the packing plants.
The Pinnacle Packing company is expected to complete its apple pack today.

LITTLE BOY MOURNS LOST SHEPHERD PUPPY

Charles Braley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Braley of Elkay Heights, has lost his three-month-old Australian Shepherd thoroughbred pup, and don't know where to find him. The pup is black, with a white spot on his breast and of rather unusual canine architecture, so if anyone sees such a pup wandering about, they will transform a very unhappy lad into a very happy one if they will take him in and let the Braley family know where he is by calling phone 513-2.
