Homecoming Events Attract Many Local Alums and Spectators

Interest in social as well as sport circles this week-end centered at Eugene and Corvallis, where homecoming activities at both schools accompanied the annual Oregon football classic between the University of Oregon and Oregon State college.

Southern Oregon claims a large number of alumni from both schools, and a general exodus for the north was observed Friday and yesterday. A large number of fans left on the special homecoming train Friday evening, while others motored up in groups and singly.

Renewing old friendships and acquaintances, the game, various dances, sorority, fraternity, private and student-body, all claimed the attention of visiting alumni and students.

Among those attending from Medford were Russell Atchison, Otto Frohnmayer, Mr. and Mrs. Olen Armspiger and daughters, Frances and Bertha, Mrs. Glennie Mae Early, Truman and Rosemary Bishop, Elsie Penwell, Lois Kimball, Phillip Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Max Pierce, Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Lageson, Bob Norris.

Others going were Ethel Jones, Janet Bishop, Joan Hunt, Don Root, Miss Floy Young, Miss Maurine Carroll, Miss Carin Depermark, Clarita and Frances McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hubbard, Ethel Chord, Harold Gebauer, Chuck Clay and Bill Cunningham.

Also making the trip was Bruce
