PHOENIX GRANGE TO GO TO CHURCH

Today, Sunday, is Grange go-to-church Sunday. All Grange members are asked to attend church in a body Sunday morning.
After the church services all will adjourn to the Grange hall where a bounteous basket dinner will be served. A committee appointed from the Ladies' Aid society and the H. E. C. committee of the Grange are in charge of all dinner arrangements and will make the following request: that each family attending who have not been solicited are to bring a hot dish, a salad and a dessert. Also table service. Requests are also made that all who can leave their baskets at Grange hall as they go to church.
During the afternoon a program will be given, which is in charge of the lecturer of the Grange.
This is the third year the Grange go-to-church Sunday has been observed and it is looked forward to by all, as it has always proven a day of fellowship and comradeship by the Grange and church workers.

Girls Council Of Senior Hi Lunch

Members of the Girls' League Council at Senior high school enjoyed the first luncheon of the year on Thursday. The main purpose of this luncheon was to have pictures taken for the Crater, and to complete plans for the sophomore initiation which will take place during the coming week. Jean Adams, chairman of the initiation committee, read the list of things which the sophomores will be required to do and also spoke about the informal initiation party which will be given Friday night.
The chairman of each of the committees gave a report on the duties of the committee and plans which are being made for the coming year. Thanksgiving baskets were also discussed.
Miss Carroll gave a short talk on the duties of the council members. Mildred Buckles also announced that the Big Sisters are to see that their little sisters come to the initiation Friday night.
The girls welcomed Miss Spurgin, assistant advisor this year, in place of Miss Degermark who has taken over the advisement of the G. A. A. Members of the council this year are: Mildred Buckles, Akiko Saito, Dela Mae Dale, Flora Scheel, Jean Horton, Ruth Garlock, Dorothy Hawkins, Frankie Rinsberger, Lois Kimball, Frances Daly, Kathleen Dillard, Lois Remington, Florence Ringo, Mary Lou Long, Jean Adams, Doris Ford, Janice Shreve, Phyllis Fulton, and the advisors, Miss Carroll, and Miss Spurgin.

C. OF C. EXTENDS ITS SYMPATHY TO FAMILY OF SMITH

A resolution of condolence conveying sympathy to the family of S. Sumpter Smith was adopted by directors of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce at their weekly meeting at the Hotel Medford Friday. Signed by E. E. Harder, president, and A. H. Barwell, manager, the resolution follows:
"Whereas, through the death of Mr. S. Sumpter Smith, this community has lost a beloved citizen and friend whose passing is greatly mourned, not only by his many friends but by all who knew him; and
"Whereas, through his demise the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce has lost an ardent supporter and committee worker of many years' standing; and
"Whereas, his innumerable charitable acts and friendly advice will continue as permanent memorials in the hearts and minds of those who constantly felt the touch of his kindness; now, therefore, be it
"Resolved, by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce that this organization express to the surviving widow, his daughter, Mrs. Guy Phetteplace, and his granddaughter, Miss Joan DeLosh, our heartfelt sympathy in their great bereavement; and be it further
"Resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to the widow of the deceased, to the press of Medford, and spread upon the records of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce."

News Behind The News
have had men working in Washington on the subject of trade reciprocity since the Canadian elections. These workers brought the agreement much further along than has been publicly supposed.
Incidentally, Mr. Roosevelt decided to "bone up" for his King conference. He had the two government experts who were handling the matter run up to Hyde Park to inform him fully about their progress before he left his Dutchess county home.

BOY MAGICIAN AT JUNIOR CARNIVAL

There will be thrills, chills, and plenty of laughs in the main program of the Junior high school carnival next Friday evening, November 15. He pulls rabbits out of hats, makes hankies disappear! Who does? Why, John Eade, a student who has for the past five years made the study of magic his hobby and who expects to make it his life work.
A group of girls will show what really goes on at football practice, while the football boys will don evening "Cinderella" and Winstan Campyng dresses for the big ball scene which as Cinderella wins the heart of the prince.
Musical numbers will include old-fashioned tunes by the Ozark Hill Billies and old favorites by the boys' octette. There will be Russian dances, acrobatic dances, character dances and a novelty dance by Dorothy Terrett and Janet Reiter. A group of girls will present the sad story of "The Grasshopper, A Tragic Tale."
After the main show, everyone is invited to take part in the fun of the concessions and booths and to enjoy the refreshments.
