"Way Down East" Coming Thursday

A drama which, more than 40 years ago, first portrayed the triumph of young love over merciless self-righteousness and bigotry, again holds the attention of movie fans as the great American melodrama, "Way Down East" comes tomorrow to the Craterian theater for its first local run.

Featuring Henry Fonda, Star of "The Farmer Takes a Wife," with Rochelle Hudson, the picture tells the ageless story of a woman who has shined, who atones for her sin and who asserts her right to love and happiness.

The picture also features Slim Summerville, Margaret Hamilton and Andy Devine in the roles of local characters whose behavior helps to lend the picture the stamp of authenticity.

REFINED, capable woman around 35, wants light housework. References. P. O. Box 680, Medford.

GRAND PIANO, stored in Medford, very reasonable. Terms. Would trade. Write Derby's Music Co., 117 So. 7th, Klamath Falls.

Western Drama Coming to Rialto

With the greatest collection of western stars ever assembled for one picture, "Powder Smoke Range" opens its local run tomorrow night at the Rialto theater.

With the special matinee showing of "Three Women," sponsored by the California Oregon Power company, as the afternoon attraction tomorrow, the Rialto departs from its usual schedule and opens the regular feature in the evening.

Harry Carey and Hoot Gibson head the large cast of "Powder Smoke Range," which boasts of such western favorites as Bob Steele, Tom Tyler, Guinn Williams, William Farrar, William Desmond, "Booze" Barton, Wally Wales, Art Mix, Buffalo Bill, Jr., Buddy Roosevelt, Franklin Farnum, Sam Hardy and Ray Mayer. "Boots" Mallory plays the leading feminine role.

"Powder Smoke Range" is a story of the real wild west, with a background of rugged California of the sixties into which ride Carey, Gibson and Williams as the three meaquiteers of the open spaces who think fast, act quick, and put fair play above greed and gold.
