J. L. Jacobs' Prize Winning Klamath Potatoes are ready!

Once more J. L. Jacobs wins the first prize at the Klamath Potato Show.—By the time this ad is printed, he may have won first prize at the Chicago National Show.

To those who buy the lower grades because of the slight difference in price, these potatoes will be a good demonstration of practical economy.

There are three grades in our Sixth street windows—Fancy Bakers, U. S. No. 1 and U. S. No. 2 . . . With them are the prize ribbons won by Mr. Jacobs.

We have about 400 sacks on hand but will take orders for delivery next week if these are not enough to supply the demand.

Order early—and for real economy, lay in your winter's supply of these prize winning potatoes.
