

5 LEGISLATURES IN PAST 3 YEARS COST $310,241.83

Last Two Sessions Cost $8000 More Than Three Held in 1933—Members Receive $3 Per Diem

SALEM, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The three special and two regular legislative sessions held in Oregon the past three years cost the state a total of $310,241.83. The secretary of state's records further revealed that the two held in 1933 for 79 days cost $139,018.15, or about $8,000 more than the three held in 1933 for a total of 85 days.

The short special session in 1933 was called by Governor Meier for the purpose of enacting a sales tax. The bill was not enacted however until the regular session later and then the proposal was defeated by a vote of the people. The revenue was to be used for schools.

This session lasted five days and cost $8,319.87. The regular session of that year cost $102,152 and lasted 60 days, or 20 days over the time for which members receive $3 a day. The second special of 1933 was called to enact liquor control laws and lasted the full 20 days. It cost $40,751. Earl Snell, now secretary of state, was speaker of the house during all sessions and Fred E. Kiddle of La Grande was president of the senate.

The 1935 regular assembly, during which John E. Coeter was speaker and Harry L. Corbett president of the senate, lasted 89 days and cost $108,440.

The extraordinary session just ended, lasted 20 days and cost, including estimates which would not vary a thousands, a total of $50,516. Corbett remained as president of the senate while Howard Latourette succeeded Coeter as speaker.

NEW HUNT DUE FOR TREASURES OF PIRATE KIDD

AMHERST, N. S. (UP)—Another attempt to locate Captain Kidd's $10,000,000 treasure chest, reputedly buried on Oak Island, Nova Scotia's famous "treasure island," may be made soon.

It is reported that an American syndicate is being formed to purchase mining rights of the island from Fred Blair, who has held them since 1909, and spend about $100,000 searching for the famous pirate's treasure, supposedly buried deep in the soil of the oak-tinged island in Mahone bay.

Scores of expeditions have attempted to find the legendary treasure during the last half-century. One expedition actually brought up flakes of gold and a piece of gold chain on the end of a grill, but water flooded the shaft before they could go deeper, and they gave up the attempt.

Engineers who have surveyed the island believe the treasure, if it exists, is buried in a cunningly contrived tunnel below the water level which the pirates built to flood the "money hole." They have found several subterranean passages on the island, but no trace of treasure.

Long Mountain

LONG MOUNTAIN, Nov. 15.—(Sp.) Miss Lucile Jennings of Ashland was a visitor at the George H. Stowell home one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Short called at the Carlyle Natick home Saturday evening.

Mrs. M. L. Fruit and son, Guy, made a business trip to Medford Tuesday.

Mrs. Alice Parker of Alma Wash., and Mrs. Lela Craig and son, Howard, of Olympia, Wash., were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Stowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Smith, Miss Dolie Stowell and Mrs. Mary Stowell of Coquille, are visiting relatives and friends in this district.

Bill Holman and Lorain Farlow returned from Pelican Bay Saturday, where they had been riding after cattle. They reported the snow two and a half feet deep on the mountains around Four Mile lake. The cattle men have been busy riding back in the mountains getting their cattle out for the past several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Stowell, Mrs. Mary Mongold and Miss Grace Holman left for Sacramento, Calif., November 13 to take in the national grange convention. They expect to return home the 17th or 18th.

LOSS OF APPLES HEAVY IN RECENT NORTHWEST COLD

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 15.—(AP)—The federal department of agriculture said today that while no accurate appraisal can be made for several days, damage to Pacific northwest farm crops by the recent unprecedented cold wave, "was both widespread and severe."

The department said estimates of total damage, particularly to fruit and vegetables, vary greatly, "and recent reports indicate early estimates of apple losses were probably high."

Codding moth damage to Pacific northwest apples was severe, the bureau reported, and the percentage of culls was higher than expected. In Washington the lack of development of size and color at the season's end was described as disappointing. Hood river valley apples can heavy to extra-fancy grades.

The Hood River district, despite deterioration from frost and infestation of late codling worms, harvested the largest pear crop in its history, the report said, but in Yakima valley in Washington there was considerable dropping of both Bartlett and late pears during the picking season.

MONMOUTH, Ore., Nov. 15.—(AP) Bids for the new Oregon Normal school administration building will be opened December 9, President J. A. Churchill of the school announced.

RENO, Nev., Nov. 15.—(AP)—A marriage license was issued here yesterday to Claude Collins, 24, and Thelma Cole, 21, both of Chiloquin, Ore.

TOMMY BURNS GIVES TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR WEDDED BLISS

HOUSTON, Tex. (UP)—Tommy Burns, former world heavyweight boxing champion, has drawn up a list of "ten commandments" for matrimony. They are:

- 1. Take your marriage as seriously as a champion takes his sport.
- 2. No athlete makes a success without sacrificing good times, so-called. Neither does a matrimonial couple.
- 3. Baseball, bridge-playing and marriage demand team work.
- 4. The first few rounds frequently are easy in prize fighting and in matrimony. It's staying power that counts.
- 5. No champion ever got where he was without learning to "take it."
- 6. Neither has a successful marriage.
- 7. Break clean from the clinches and forget your grudges. Don't whine about your partner's shortcomings.
- 8. Erase from your dictionary the word jealousy.
- 9. Burn your candle at one end; marriages and championship demand physical fitness.
- 10. Following the trend of your courtship: keep your best front showing.

OLD JOHN DON'T GET UP NIGHTS

He Made This 25c Test.
Old John says: "I had to get up 3 or 4 times every night. This bladder irregularity was accompanied with scanty flow, burning and backache. I flushed out excess acids with little green tablets containing buchu leaves, Juniper oil, etc., called BUKETS. They work in the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. After four days if not pleased any drugist will refund your 25c. I sleep good now." Health Drug Store, Jarmine Drug Store.

MISSING MOMENTS

Nothing can take the place of the magician's "props." When they're missing, something is going to be wrong with the trick!

If THERE is something missing in the flavor of the coffee you buy, all the tricky recipes and mysterious coffee-making appliances in the world can't cause what's missing to "appear" in the cup.

Nothing can take the place of flavor in coffee. And coffee that has something missing in flavor had something missing during the blending, roasting, grinding or packing processes. Since no coffee-making magic will restore this missing goodness, the thing you should do is change to Hills Bros. Coffee. It is a never-changing BLEND of the finest coffees grown. This blend is roasted by an exclusive process—CONTROLLED ROASTING—that insures uniform flavor in every pound. This rich, matchless flavor is completely protected by Hills Bros.' VACUUM PACK. And the GRIND of Hills Bros. Coffee gives perfect results in any coffee-making utensil.

Trail

TRAIL, Nov. 14.—(Sp.)—The Home Economics club of the Upper Rogue Grange met at the home of Mrs. Eva Segesman Tuesday for an all-day meeting. Plans were completed for the harvest home festival to be given at Rogue Elk Saturday night, to which everyone is invited. There will be lunch of turkey sandwiches, pies and coffee; a fancy work booth, candy booth, besides games to take one's attention; also, a good program. There were 17 members and five visitors present. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Maud Ditzworth, December 19.

Rev. and Mrs. LaDieu and grandson returned Monday evening from Portland, where they visited their son for a few days. Miss Laurabell remained for a visit with her brother and family.

A large number of friends attended the funeral of Mrs. Zimmerman in Phoenix Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers of Lakewick and Mrs. Myrtle Evans of Hood River have returned to their homes after attending their mother's funeral here.

Mrs. Tilly Saltzman of Medford spent Armistice day visiting friends here.

Wayne Ash spent the past week end here visiting his mother, Mrs. Francis Ash.

November 21 the Coppo will show colored pictures at Rogue Elk hall for the Grange. They will be given at 7:30, to which everyone is invited.

Lowell Ash of Union Creek spent Sunday visiting in Medford.

Mr. LaDieu is helping Wilmer Ragsdale finish up his house so he can move in the near future.
