

8 SIMON PURES GAIN TITLES IN PORTLAND RING

Five States Represented by Winners in Diamond Belt Eliminations — M. A. C. Heavyweight Is Victor

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Eight youths from five states rode the crest of far western amateur fisticuffs today.

After battling their way through the preliminaries and semi-finals, the 16 young chaps who met in the finals of the far western diamond belt championships last night treated 3500 customers to several hours of continuous and high-speed action.

Emerging as winners were the following: 112-pound class—Johnny Martin, United States Indian school, Phoenix, Ariz., who scored a technical knockout over Fulton McMillan of Washington State college in the second round.

118-pound class—Tommy Cobb, San Jose, Cal., Bears, who pounded out a three-round decision over Danny La Verne, Vidal Athletic club, San Francisco.

126-pound class—Tom Moyer, unattached, Portland, who won a close decision from Andy Tredick, Washington State college.

135-pound class—Joe August, University of Idaho, who defeated Paul Walker, University of Idaho, by a decision.

147-pound class—Morris Skolnick, Eagles Athletic club, Seattle, who made a decision from Bender Luce, University of Idaho.

160-pound class—Ed McKinnon, Washington State college, who knocked out Mark Holmes, Portland boxing school, in the first round.

175-pound class—Sal Carry, Peitz Athletic club, Pittsburg, Cal., who took a decision from Darwin Melner, Washington State college.

Heavyweight class—Dave Johnston, Multnomah club, Portland, who defeated Girard DeClaron, San Francisco Longshoremen's Union, by a decision.

More than 100 youths competed for the belts which were awarded the winners in each class. Proceeds of the tourney are to go to the Christmas cheer fund of the Portland police sunshine division.

DRINKING AT GAMES INJURING CHARACTER

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Criticizing liquor drinking at football games, Dr. Joseph Artman of Chicago told the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers today that "wet set ourselves back in the character race when we brought liquor back."

"I saw more drinking at the Rice Institute homecoming game in Houston than I have seen at any ball game in 10 years," he said. "If I were a college president I would not have a football game."

He assailed football as one of the "glamor" evils of today.

Fights Last Night

NEW YORK.—Pedro Montanes, 134½, Puerto Rico, knocked out Jack Stanley, 142½, Union City, N. J. (3).

ASHTABULA, O.—Battling Bono, Birmingham, Ala., knocked out Young Palmer, Philadelphia, (4). Lloyd Fines, 125, Akron, O., knocked out Ernie Peters, 125, Chicago, (2).

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Young Gene Buffalo, 141, Philadelphia, outpointed Puggy Snyder, 144, Vineland, (10).

La Grande Player Dies Of Infection

LA GRANDE, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Robert Lee Koyie, 17, LaGrande high school and baseball player, died Tuesday of blood stream infection. He was ill several weeks, but only during the last week did his condition become critical.

He played his last game with the Tigers against Milson-Preswiter. He accompanied the team to The Dalles, but fell a bit too ill and was not permitted to play.

PORTLAND, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The goal line stand of Bullock O'Halloran continued today as the Jefferson high school players held the slight gain he made yesterday over his pneumonia affliction. St. Vincent's hospital reported. He remained under an oxygen tent.

SPORTSMEN A. K. C. Registered Chesapeake Bay Retrievers

7 mo. old—fully trained See them at Humane Society's Shelter Table Rock Road

Vandal Fullback

Ross Sundberg, 200-pound football player from Idaho Falls, Idaho, is fullback for the University of Idaho eleven. (Associated Press Photo)

THREE-STAR CARD SIGNED FOR NEXT WRESTLING EVENT

Another three-star fight card has been lined up by Promoter Mack Lillard for next Monday night at the Armory, Lillard announced today.

Frankie Peck, rough-house artist, will meet Johnny Sore, another exponent of the unorthodox in his ring work, in the Australian system curtain raiser.

Peck, a former prize fighter, who has circled the earth several times in search of bigger and meaner opponents, saw Sore work last week and immediately clamored for a bout, which has been granted.

In the middle bout, another tough man, Ken Hollis of Little Rock, Ark., will encounter Toots Estes, speedy Hawaiian champion. In previous battles here Estes has generally managed to remain above reproach in his tactics, but according to Lillard, he will have to have a lot of patience to endure Hollis' skulduggery without losing his temper. This bout will also be under the Australian system.

The last bout on the card will feature Les Wolfe, hawker-legged Texan, against Tiger Taskosa, giant Bulgarian, who will wrestle here for the first time. Taskosa is another graduate of the school of hard knocks who takes his bites and kicks as he finds them, and indications are that he will give Wolfe an unhappy evening.

Wolfe, like Estes, seems to prefer the fast, clean type of music mauling, but when aroused is as dangerous as any man in the ring.

The list of names on the card would indicate a night of furious slugging, biting and kicking Monday, with each participant well versed in ring lore. The same prices will prevail as last week.

BOWLING

Captain Jack Bierma's team took the long end of a 3 to 1 count in their P.M. bowling tournament match with Captain George Gates' outfit last night. Teams captained by Burroughs and Erickson will roll Friday night.

Table with columns: Team No. 8, Team No. 3, and scores for various bowlers.

Basketball Opens Portland Season

PORTLAND, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Basketball will resume tonight as the city and county basketball teams meet at the Jefferson high school in a mass opening at Jefferson high.

Almost 500 hoopers on 41 league teams will be there ready for action, and four teams will be selected to play.

Bronchial Coughs

Read This Generous Offer Get a 45-cent bottle of Buckley's Mixture (triple action) at Jarman's Drug or any good drug store. Take 3 doses before you go to bed tonight—when if that tough old persistent cough hasn't left you—if you do not sleep like a top all night long—get your money back. It's just a flash—often one sip stops an ordinary cough.

BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE A SINGLE SIP PROVES IT!

TIGERS DRILLED ON GRANTS PASS GRIDIRON PLAYS

Working against Grants Pass formations as presented by the second team, the Medford high school football squad last night went through their last heavy scrimmage of the week before their annual battle with the Grants Pass high school team in the Climate City, Saturday.

Pass defense was stressed, and then almost an hour of good, hard scrimmage, using their own plays, was held, as the squad tapered off for what is expected to be one of the hardest games of the season. On offense, the squad worked on several new plays, but Coach Bowerman asked that new formations not be made public prior to the game.

After dinner last night a skill session was held, with most of the backfield men in attendance, working out new scoring combinations.

The injury to Halfback Lewis' shoulder has proved more serious than at first believed, and Bowerman was doubtful if the brilliant little back would be able to see action. Both Lewis and Kuzman were held out of practice last night, and watched the action from the sidelines.

Kuzman is suffering from a torn ligament in his knee which will probably keep him out of most of the game, and may even prevent his starting. Eldon Grow, big sophomore end, has been shifted from right to left end to fill in in Kuzman's place, if necessary.

Interest in the game is high in Grants Pass and the Vancouver area. The Black Tornado, and emerge with a win if possible. Potentially, the Grants Pass outfit is one of the strongest in that city in years, but they have had trouble in finding their stride to date.

In nearly every game so far this year, they have shown flashes of brilliance, trouncing Ashland under and losing twice to the powerful Klamath Falls eleven by one touchdown margins.

THE Referee ON THE SPOT

By BOBBY MORRIS Pacific Coast Conference Official (Written for the Associated Press)

SEATTLE, Wash.—(AP)—One of the toughest decisions I ever had to call in my 13 years of officiating in the Pacific Coast conference was in the Southern California-California football game last season—and I don't think Coach Howard Jones of the Trojans will ever forget it either.

In the fourth quarter U. S. C. was trailing 2 to 7, and the Trojans threw everything they had into a last-minute drive. After marching nearly 35 yards they were left with one more down and only a couple of feet to go for a touchdown and victory.

Southern California had been successful with amazes at the weak side of the line all this distance, but on this last attempt it decided to cross up the Bears by cracking center.

The signal called for "Inky" Watkins, a truly great halfback, to dive for the score. As he sailed into the air, Russell Galkins, the California center, just managed to get hold of him. They fell to the turf and there was a big pile up on the goal line. Nobody could see the ball.

The head linesman and field judge jumped into the pack. When I finally got a glimpse of the ball it was three inches from the goal line. Boy, that was a tough one!

Portland, Calgary Win Hockey Tilts

SEATTLE, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Portland and Calgary have started to "crowd" Vancouver for the leadership in the northwestern hockey league.

Nosing out Seattle, 2 to 1, here last night, Portland jumped into a tie with Vancouver for first place, the Calgary move along with the leaders by conquering Edmonton at Calgary, 3 to 1, in an overtime battle.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Ceferino Garcia, 143½, Los Angeles, outpointed Gordon Wallace, 146, Vancouver (12).

Hotel Sandford

At the corner of Fifth Avenue and "A" Street—San Diego. The Hotel with an unsurpassed location—Only one block from all Theaters and Stores. NEW POPULAR PRICE RATES $1.50 UP

FANDOM—RANDOM

By Dick Applegate

Word today from Red McDonald, former Medford and Oregon State football and basketball star, now coaching at Lakeside high school. "The weather changes very quickly over here," Red writes, adding that one week they practiced at 10 below zero, with 10 inches of snow on the ground. The next week the snow was all gone and they had mid and rain, and following that they had a dry, fast field.

Some people would be a trifle discouraged, we're afraid, if they had all those things to contend with. But Red and his players get an hour of practice a day, allowing 15 minutes to get on the field and 15 to dress after the sessions are over. School gets out at 2 o'clock, and ends at 3:30, when the stalwarts have to grab the next bus home.

Some of the players live 55 miles away, making a round trip of 110 (mathematics just come naturally to us) miles a day. McDonald has one guard who weighs 110 pounds, the same tonnage as his center. His regular quarterback tips the beam at 120, but he's down with the measles now. The substitute is a giant of 106 pounds.

Even so, Red has knocked over everything in the vicinity, and threw an awful scare into Klamath Falls, losing only 13-0 in the last quarter.

Interesting clipping from the Houston (Texas) Chronicle of November 15: "A basketball coaching school for women, the first of its kind ever to be held in Houston, will be sponsored by the athletic division of the city recreation department for a three-night series. Outstanding women coaches and officials of the county will take part in the instruction which will be led by Mrs. Gilbert Hermance, the No. 1 authority on rules among the women officials in the southwest."

Mrs. Hermance is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Stegert of Medford, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she was a member of the all-star basketball team for girls. She became official referee of civic basketball in Houston during her residence there. Mr. Hermance is associated with the physical education department of Rice Institute in Houston.

We noticed an article in the Portland Oregonian yesterday dated Eugene, wherein it was charged by Eugene that Medford had refused to play them. Such reports are the No. 1 authority on rules among the women officials in the southwest.

Mrs. Hermance is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Stegert of Medford, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she was a member of the all-star basketball team for girls. She became official referee of civic basketball in Houston during her residence there. Mr. Hermance is associated with the physical education department of Rice Institute in Houston.

Willamette, Fresno ARGUE OVER PLACE

FRESNO, Cal., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Fresno State college athletic authorities said today they were negotiating for a post-season game with the Willamette university Beavers.

Willamette wants to come here for the game December 7, but Fresno wants the northern trip, officials said.

NOTICE TO WHISKY BUYERS "BOTTOMS UP" ANNOUNCES DOUBLE BONUS 25% MORE AGE NEW LOW PRICE!

Even better today than when it swept into leadership—25% longer in wood, smoother, more mellow. Yet because of its tremendous popularity and amazing sales volume, now lower in price. Made from an expensive 65-year-old sour-mash formula. Enjoy it today!

1/2 PINT 45c Code No. 155-D

1 Pint, 80c Code No. 155-C

1 Quart, $1.50 Code No. 155-A

Bottoms Up

KENTUCKY STRAIGHT WHISKY BROWN-FORMAN Distillery COMPANY

ON THE FOOTBALL FRONT

SEATTLE, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The Washington Huskies' heavy work for the Oregon game ended today with a short practice.

Jimmy Cain, halfback, remained on the side lines when the last scrimmage was held. He said he expected to play in the Oregon game, despite a fractured rib.

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP)—The University of Oregon football players dashed through their final heavy practice of the week yesterday and will leave this afternoon for Saturday's game against University of Washington.

The eager Webfoots look like anything but the underdogs they are, and appeared uncowed by the huge Husky line.

Dale Lasselle, ace passer and shifty ball carrier, will start at left half for Oregon despite the return to form of Bud Goodin.

The Oregon squad hoped its jinx over Washington would function again this year after a reversal in last year's classic.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Coach Lon Stiner warned his Oregon State college football players today to take the University of Montana Grizzlies seriously in Saturday's game at Missoula.

The Beavers will seek revenge for last year's 7 to 7 tie score here which was a moral victory for Montana. On their home field the Grizzlies will be as tough, if not tougher, Stiner predicted.

Elmer Kolberg, sophomore fullback, showed continued improvement this week at line planning. He first broke into prominence by his defensive work.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Football stalwarts of California and Stanford dug their cleats into the turf today in final brisk workouts for Saturday's "big game" at Palo Alto, where they will fight for the biggest stakes of the season before the largest crowd of 1935.

Ninety thousand followers of the great American college pastime will be on hand to see California try to make its 10 victories in a row for an undefeated season, the Pacific coast conference championship and the right to represent the West in the annual Rose Bowl game.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

Woman Grid Fan Has Suggestion In Substitutions

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP) Mrs. Ed Branda, a discerning football fan, suggested today that the football official to whom incoming substitutes report be dressed differently to avoid confusion and speed substitutions.

"Give him a green coat," she said (mercifully), "or a red arm band, (that's better), or something to make him stand out."

"Repeatedly this season I've noticed that the subs always go to the referee, who shoots them to another official, the umpire, whom he has apparently designated to keep track of substitutions."

"It takes time and creates delay that could easily be prevented."

WEISER GRID SQUAD CONFERENCE CHAMPS

ONTARIO, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP)—The Weiser, Idaho, high school grid team won the Snake River Valley conference title by defeating the Vale, Ore., eleven 7 to 6. Vale was leading until the last four minutes of play.

Western Auto Supply Co.

Big Savings on Winter Oil

PENN SUPREME Wear-well Our Finest 100% PURE PENN OIL 100% PURE PENN Motor Oil

Per Gal. 68c Per Gal. 55c

Dependable Hot Water Heaters

Hot Air Heaters

Nine-Piece Twist Drill Set

Hand Drill

Oil Filter Cartridges

Seat Cover Bargains

Black Tire Paint

Western Auto Supply Co. Save with Safety

Micro-Type Horn 69c

Bumper Bar Protectors 69c

Anti-freeze

Socket Wrench Set 44c

SAVE ON BATTERIES

WIZARD Super Power

A Big Value - WASC0

SAVE ON THE SPECIAL

Western Auto Supply Co. More than 170 Stores in the West

Phone 128 101 S. Riverside Medford, Ore.