HIGH SCHOOL CAST IS SELECTED FOR PIRATES PENZANCE

The students of Medford high school will present "The Pirates of Penzance," a Gilbert and Sullivan opera, on the nights of Dec. 9 and 10 in the high school auditorium. It was announced by Esther Church Leake, Miss Floy Young and Wilson Wait, directors of the production. A special performance will be given Saturday morning, Dec. 7 for students from all grades and high schools in the county.

The principals of the cast consisting entirely of high school students have been selected as follows:

Harvey Field in the role of the pirate chief, Dale Sims and Robert Cherry alternating in the part of the chief's lieutenant, Jack Dennison as Frederick, Marvin Burke as Major-General Stanley, Delmar Wright as the sergeant of police, Mary Anne Gates as Mabel, Doris Ellenburg as Kate, Marguerite Looman as Edith, Jean Horton as Isabel, and Elnora Joffenbarger and Betty Paake alternating in the part of Ruth.

This cast will be supported by ninety voices of two glee clubs and the music appreciation class.

Miss Elizabeth Crisell, art supervisor, is designing the stage scenery with a setting of a pirate cavern on a rock bound sea coast. Miss Crisell has had extensive art training in California and Oregon and is new on the teaching staff this year.

Miss Maurine Carroll, clothing instructor, will supervise costume designs, and Leland Mentzer, industrial arts teacher, will direct the handling of stage properties.

IMPROVEMENTS AT LONE PINE SCHOOL

The Lone Pine school, on the western slope of Roxy Ann, which during the summer constructed a new building, is undergoing many more improvements. Green stain is being applied to the new roof and the grounds are being leveled near the new addition.

Changes have also been made inside the building, such as refurnishing desks, installing needed furniture, and installing new bulletin boards in each room. These improvements will make the building and grounds more beautiful, also giving the pupils and community more to be proud of.

LIQUOR PROFITS TO STATE MOUNT

SALEM, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Liquor sales during the first 10 months of this year in Oregon totaled $4,545,760, with the month of October setting the high point with sales of $583,676. Arthur K. McMahan, chairman of the liquor control commission, estimated that in November sales will approach the half million dollar mark.

Profits to the state from sales and revenue both for the year so date was $1,471,894, of which $575,940 was for beer licenses and tax on wines and beer.

RECESS FIELDER CASE TO MONDAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Circuit Judge Hall S. Lusk recessed the George L. Fielder murder trial until Monday, after three defense witnesses and one state rebuttal witness testified.

The state charged that Fielder ambushed Deputy Sheriff Ernest C. Loll when he was seeking the 23-year-old Portland youth to arrest him for out of season pheasant hunting.

Fielder testified that he blasted Loll twice with a shotgun only because he feared the officer would shoot him.

ALL BUT 1 BOARD MEMBER SELECTED FOR CAPITOL JOB

SALEM, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The new state capitol commission, with the exception of one member yet to be named, was complete today.

Governor Martin, President Harry Corbett of the senate and Speaker Howard Latourette of the house last night made known the appointment of eight of the nine-member commission authorized by the special legislative session. Latourette was undecided on his third choice.

One woman, Mrs. Edith Waldo Johnson of the Waldo Hills district near Salem, was named by Governor Martin to serve on the commission.

The other appointees were: Dr. H. H. Olinger of Salem, T. H. Bantfield of Portland and Robert W. Sawyer of Bend, appointed by President Corbett.

J. H. Lake, union labor representative of Portland, and J. A. McLean of Eugene were named by Speaker Latourette.

Governor Martin's remaining two appointees were Dr. Ernest C. Dalton of St. Helens and G. A. Marshall, livestock raiser living near McEwan in Baker county.

It was understood Latourette had wanted to name as his third member, A. A. Smith of Baker.

PORTLAND BANDIT GANG CAPTURED

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Ernest Lawson, who detectives said had knowledge of activities of principals in a series of brazen holdups here, received a 30-day jail sentence today on charges of state vagrancy.

Municipal Judge Donald E. Long imposed the sentence as a means of holding Lawson until further investigation is made. Detectives said he had no part in the activities.

Three others were held on assault and robbery charges and police sought two more.

Chief of Police Harry Niles warned that anyone harboring the fugitives would be vigorously prosecuted.

Now at Craterian

Sparkling romance, tinged with riotous comedy, makes "I Live My Life," Joan Crawford's newest starring picture, opening a three-day run at the Craterian theater today, film entertainment that strikes the modern tempo.

Showing Miss Crawford as the ultra-modern society girl with sophisticated ideas of men and marriage, "I Live My Life" portrays the fast-moving events in the life of the girl when she meets a man who falls to see her point of view, but nevertheless falls head-over-heels in love with her and decides to teach her the meaning of real love.

A brilliant supporting cast, including Brian Aherne as the two-fisted lover, Frank Morgan, Aline MacMahon, Eric Blore, Fred Keating, Arthur Treacher and Jessie Ralph, play an important part in making the film enjoyable throughout.

31 PWA PROJECTS IN STATE OKED

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 23.—(AP)—The PWA approved 31 new Oregon projects totaling $1,628,000. C. C. Hockley, state public works administration director, stated today Hockley, just back from Washington, D. C., said the projects include schools, water supplies, sewer systems, city halls and courthouses.

The recipients of the loans and grants must make provision at once for repayment of the 55 per cent representing the loans. Contracts

On Rialto Bill

Included in the cast are screenland's "greatest" comedians, Mitchell and Durant; Bebe Daniels, Rosina Lawrence and Luis Alberni.

The fast-moving, sparkling story relates the adventures of two young lovers, Miss Faye and Walker, who go to Hollywood to seek fame and fortune. After many trials and tribulations, they achieve their goal and Miss Faye skyrockets to fame. This is all brought about when Miss Faye gets a part in the chorus of a film musical in which Miss Daniels is starred. During rehearsals Miss Daniels has an accident and has to forget her part to Miss Faye.

Things start from there, and when you're not cheering the music, you'll be laughing at the fun.

must be awarded by December 15, 1935.

Roxy Headliner

Cast in the leading role of "Stolen Harmony," playing today and Monday at the Roxy theater, George Raft again returns to the type of characterization that shot him to stardom in "Scarface."

Starred with Ben Bernie and his lads, Raft plays an ex-convict who turns straight for a chance to join Bernie and his lads on transcontinental amusement tour.

REPORT PERSISTS, BUT FUTILE, THAT LOST FLYER SAFE

SINGAPORE, Straits Settlements, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Reports that footprints were seen in the sand of Sayer Island, off the west coast of Sumatra, brought fresh hopes today that the missing Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith might still be alive.

Captain Hussey, captain of a plane which flew over that area after a steamer reported seeing flames rising from the island, said:

"I searched all six Sayer Islands and am certain there was nothing on four of them, but I cannot be sure about the others which were covered with jungle growth."

THEY MET... THEY KISSED... AND HE (what an old-fashioned boy!) INSISTED SHE MARRY HIM!

She wanted love in the rough and she got it . . . she wanted to live her life as she pleased . . . and she did, fast and furious . . . until the right man slowed her down to a walk!
