THE GRANGE Phoenix Grange. Home Economics Club of Phoenix Grange met at the home of Mrs. Al Floyd last Wednesday, with covered dish dinner at noon.

Eleven members and two guests were present to enjoy the day. A business meeting was held in the afternoon when plans were made for the winter months. A committee was appointed to purchase materials for the lodge room upstairs. The committee named was Mrs. C. A. Pickle, Mrs. Lillian Coleman and Mrs. L. O. Caster. Other plans were made for beautifying the hall.

Next regular meeting of Phoenix Grange will be Tuesday night, November 26. No refreshment committee was appointed for this meeting, but all ladies were instructed to bring a paper bag lunch for two and all men were instructed to bring an extra 15c to purchase lunch. The lecturer is planning an interesting program. All members are urged to be on hand and attend the winter meetings with good attendance and interest.

THANKSGIVING DANCE AT APPLIGATE GRANGE Appligate Grange announces a Thanksgiving dance to be given Thursday evening at the Appligate Grange hall. A turkey supper will be served, and good music is promised by the committee in charge. Everyone is invited.

McLeod. McLEOD, Nov. 25.—(Sp.)—Mr. and Mrs. Stein marketed Thanksgiving turkeys Tuesday. They feel quite fortunate in having saved a trailer load of turkeys from destruction when their car and trailer were forced into a ditch in passing another car. The trailer turned over, landing the birds on the canvas covering. A truck pulled them back onto the road and Mrs. von Stein, who was driving, continued on to Medford and sold her turkeys with practically no loss to the birds, though the trailer was somewhat damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peyton and family have moved into the tenant house of the Hasting ranch, the former Peyton place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Glass and daughter, Emma, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. von Stein, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Clark and Mrs. von Stein helped Mr. and Mrs. Bob Allworth with their turkey picking Thursday. The birds were in excellent condition and Mr. Allworth sold them at top prices in Medford Friday.

Mrs. Zella Tullin and daughter, and George Hastings made a business trip to Medford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIntyre of Fresno, have been visiting the Mullens home this week. Mr. McIntyre is Mrs. Mullen's son.

Mr. McCoy has recovered from his recent illness sufficiently to be up and around again.

J. E. Peyton of Aberdeen, Wn., spent several days at the Hasting home this week.

We are glad to hear that Jim Rodgers is recovering from his illness. Robert Glass shot a cub bear in his clover field near his barn last Wednesday. The bear dressed 81 lbs. and the hide will soon adorn the hearth of the Glass home.

Fred and Henry Swift of Klamath Falls were Sunday visitors at the C. H. Peyton home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dittsworth, Mrs. R. Sublette, Bob Allworth, Neville von Stein and N. F. Ort were among Medford residents who spent Friday in Medford.

Mr. Kern, of the Copco staff, showed Copco pictures at Rogue Elk Thursday evening before the opening of the Orange. A large crowd attended and many favorable comments were heard about the pictures.

There will be no meeting of the McLeod Home Extension Unit for November because of the inability of members to attend the training meetings. Instead, the McLeod ladies are asked by Mrs. Mack to attend the meeting scheduled by the Trail Unit for Dec. 12 at the home of Mrs. Prank Ash. The ladies are asked to bring their sewing kits and include odd bits of colored yarns and embroidery threads for lessons on racial embroidery, which will be demonstrated by the Trail ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler and small daughter are spending a few days here at their home in Dark Hollow.

Mrs. Fred Hamlin returned home last week-end from several weeks spent in Portland visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Whetstone of Central Point, were dinner guests last Sunday at the J. D. Brown home. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Brown and daughter, Vivian, also spent the day with home folk.

Mrs. Mattie Vogel entertained Friday evening with a shower honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daniels, who were recently married. They received many lovely gifts. About seventy-five people enjoyed the evening of visiting and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Stearna have been very busy this week picking and getting turkeys ready for the Thanksgiving market.

Enlisted men of company A, 189th Infantry, and headquarters company, third battalion, will formally organize a club after the weekly drill at the armory tomorrow night. It was announced today by Capt. Carl L. Tengwald, company A commander.

Officers will be elected and a constitution and by-laws adopted. All enlisted men were urged by Capt. Tengwald to be present.

One of the purposes of the enlisted men's club is to stimulate athletic activities, and it is planned to organize several basketball and other teams. Capt. Tengwald said.

A club room at the Armory is being fitted up for the new organization. Ping-pong, pool and billiard tables will be available as well as a reading room.

From now on refreshments will be served at the armory after the drill each Tuesday night. Capt. Tengwald stated.
