

THWART EFFORTS BRAZIL REBELS TO SEDUCE CAVALRY

40 to 60 Deaths Claimed in Rebellion—Insurgents Driven Back in Pernambuco, Says Government

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—General José Gomes Ribeiro, minister of war, issued a statement today reporting the federal forces have succeeded in re-establishing order throughout the state of Pernambuco. The war minister added the next move would be against rebels operating in the state of Rio Grande do Norte.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—An alleged plot to enlist the first cavalry regiment, quartered in the heart of Rio de Janeiro, in a communist rebellion against the government was thwarted today as reports from authentic sources showed a rebellion death list of from 40 to 60 men.

Lieut. Lauro Fontoura, detailed to the training of reserve officers, was arrested before dawn charged with attempting to incite a revolt of the cavalry unit.

Officials said he had made an effort to bring the crack mounted corps into line with the soldiers who are fighting in northeast Brazil against the government.

Rebels Driven Back.
From the state of Pernambuco, Capt. Malvino Reis, secretary of security of the state, reported that after 22 hours of fighting the insurgents had been driven back toward Socorro by the military garrison of Recife, and that about 60 had been killed and 100 captured.

However, socialists here in the capitol who said their information came through secret channels, asserted that the rebel deaths had not been more than 40.

With a "state of siege" proclaimed throughout the nation, the government was pushing all available military power into the area where the rebels had made their gains.

HAUPTMANN AIDE CLAIMS RANSOM BILLS TURNING UP

Used in the leader believed to have been employed in gaining access to the Lindbergh nursery.

"It's the same type," he remarked, "and I'm having it examined by experts."

Found No Bills
He cited reports that the same house yielded ransom bills as "absolutely wrong," and added, "I wish I had, however."

C. Lloyd Fisher, Flemington, N. J., chief counsel for Hauptmann, has received a copy of the report of the Massachusetts investigation, the investigator said.

Writing Compared
The investigator said that while he was not adequately versed in chirography to ascertain whether the handwriting on the ransom notes was the same as that on the letter found near Asbury, he had discovered several characteristics identical in both scripts.

These, he said, were curlicues and dots that had been found by at least one handwriting expert but never introduced as evidence.

Didn't Know Contents
The prevailing opinion reversing the charges against Kyle Pugh stated the defendant's motion for a directed verdict should have been granted "since there is nothing in the record, . . . tending to prove the defendant's guilt."

Pugh had admitted he distributed or sold communist literature but declared he had no knowledge of the contents. Justice Rand's opinion held that "in this connection it should be noted that the statute does not make the possession of these papers, nor the circulation nor sale of them, unlawful knowingly so, sufficient to warrant a conviction."

JOSEPHINE MINER HELD UNAWARE OF RADICAL DOCTRINE

Both de Jonge and Pugh were represented in the court by Attorney Irvin Goodman and at the supreme court hearings several score persons were in attendance and since that time the court has received hundreds of postal cards urging the freedom of the two defendants. The opinion stated further:

"The defendant frankly admits that he is . . . and had been a member of that (communist) party; that he attended that meeting and here spoke in the interest of that party under instructions of the section organizer of the communist party; that he was one of the principal speakers, if not the principal one, at that assemblage; and that every member of the party is a literature salesman and an organizer for the party. . . . That such literature teaches and advocates the doctrine of criminal syndicalism and sabotage cannot be denied."

Justice Bell, in dissenting in the de Jonge case declared "it is, indeed, a terrible price to pay for warped ideas. It seems to me that the sentence has no reasonable relation to the offense alleged to have been committed. No act of violence was involved in the case." He held much evidence was clearly inadmissible.

The writer thinks that where it is shown that defendant read the literature, the court is not warranted in holding as a matter of law that defendant read only part of it and that the part which he read was not incriminating.

The six other written opinions as well as numerous oral statements today included:

Margaret Bates Lund vs. Jacob F. Lund, appellant. Appeal from Jackson county. Suit to foreclose mortgage. Opinion by Justice Bell. Judge H. D. Norton affirmed.

Pugh was arrested near Central Point in September 1934, and was found guilty by a Jackson county jury, in the following December. Pugh was defended by the International Defense league, and an "amicus curiae" brief was filed in his appeal, by the Civil Liberties Union of New York City.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The stock market moved unsteadily today and leading issues fell 1 to 3 or more points.

The trading pace was much slower than recently. News was generally constructive, although there was still some nervousness apparent over continuing foreign developments. The close was heavy. Transfers approximated 3,500,000 shares.

Some support was given the list early by a few rails, steels and specialties, but this did not hold long. Brokers attributed part of the selling to the fact that a number of their customers wanted to get out of the market over the holiday.

2 NEW CASES OF POLIO REPORTED

Two new cases of infantile paralysis were reported today by Dr. L. D. Inakeep, city health officer.

The latest victims are Mrs. Gertrude Jorgenson, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Elliott of 314 West Jackson boulevard, and Arthur Driver, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Driver of 909 Beatty street.

Mrs. Jorgenson was said by the attending physician this afternoon, to be in a serious condition, with paralysis present in both legs. She became ill last night.

The Driver child became ill about 12 days ago and the ailment was diagnosed as polio myelitis late yesterday when paralysis developed in the left leg. The attending physician said today the paralysis was mild and was receding. The boy's condition was described as improving this afternoon.

FLUKE CONTROL WORK STARTED IN E. P. AREA

The fluke control project for which the federal government allotted $7,500 is now under way in the Eagle Point district, where 15 men are engaged in the draining of "pot holes."

The work is on Little Butte creek, according to County Agent Robert G. Fowler.

Other drainages will be launched shortly in the same region.

Fluke control is important to stockmen and sheepmen as fluke takes a heavy toll from stock. Drainage is held the best preventative of the disease.
