Dinner Parties Are Main Social Events Of Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving being the day of all days for dinner parties, Medford hosts and hostesses entertained extensively in this fashion last Thursday. Practically everyone in the valley was either a host or guest, as is the case every "turkey day."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Coleman and children of Burlingame, Cal., spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Coleman's parents, Judge and Mrs. William R. Coleman, and with Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Coleman. They arrived Sunday and returned to their home Thursday evening.

Among those dining out of town were Miss Jean Fox and Mr. J. L. Campbell, Jr., who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Bryant in Ashland.

Thanksgiving visitors at the H. P. Hargrave home were Mrs. Hargrave and her daughter, Gertrude, from Berkeley, who are spending this week with Dr. Hargrave.

Leaving early this week for San Francisco were Mr. and Mrs. K. V. Hill, who were guests of friends in the bay city for Thanksgiving.

Also host and hostess Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Luy, who had as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Chapman of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Lieut. and Mrs. Roy D. Craft, Miss Marie Luy and Paul Luy.

Many of those not having guests for dinner entertained with open house during the day.

Williamson's Back For Brief Stay.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Williamson were welcoming them back this week. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, who recently moved to Roseburg, arrived here by motor Wednesday evening and will leave for their home today.

Committee Extends Invitation to Party

Mrs. C. H. Thompson, chairman, and her committee extend an invitation to all card enthusiasts for an evening of cards which has been arranged for Tuesday evening in the Catholic parish hall.

Playing will start at eight o'clock.

Return Tuesday From San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Vilas were among those returning from trips to be at home for the Thanksgiving holidays. They, with their small daughter, Susan, arrived Tuesday evening after a several days' visit in San Francisco.

Among friends seen in the city by Mr. and Mrs. Vilas was Miss Orbie Nutwick, who formerly lived here.

While in the south, Mr. and Mrs. Vilas attended the Stanford-California football game in Palo Alto last Saturday.

TWO OF THE BEST DRESSES IN U. S.

Mrs. Martha Hadley Celebrates Eightieth Birthday Anniversary

A grandmother and great grandmother, Mrs. Martha J. Hadley celebrated her eightieth birthday last Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Carr, in this city.

Mrs. Hadley's children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and a few friends spent the day with her and were guests for dinner.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crane, Mrs. Doris Coleman and children, Art Dalley and son and Miss Ruth Cash, all of Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carr, Aetna, Iowa and Bud Carr and the honor guest, of this city.

Six grandchildren and six great grandchildren were in the group. Mrs. Hadley has a number of relatives in other states.

Will Leave For Vacation Tuesday

Wintering in the south will be Mrs. C. W. Whitlock and Mrs. Sam Bateman, Jr., who will leave Tuesday evening by train for an extensive vacation in California.

The travelers will go first to Tuolumne, where they will be the guest of Mrs. Edward Zeek. Mrs. Whitlock's daughter, staying there until after the Christmas holidays.

Leaving Tuolumne, Mrs. Whitlock and Mrs. Bateman will tour southern California, the date of their return being indefinite.

Meekers Among Thanksgiving Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Meeker entertained at Thanksgiving dinner for Mr. C. H. Corey, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Corey and daughter, Rosemary, of Salem, and Miss Dorothea Wycoff.

Miss Wycoff is a cousin of Mr. Meeker and is now a member of the faculty of Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland.

Miss Caryn Hill Returns From South

A lovely vacation behind her, Miss Caryn Hill recently returned to Hill Orchard after a visit in California. Her time was principally spent in Los Angeles and the University of Southern California campus, where she was for several days the guest of Miss Susan Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, formerly of Medford.

Altar Guild

St. Mark's altar guild will meet Monday evening with Mrs. Emerson Merrick, who will be assisted by Mrs. Jenn Moffat and Miss Frances Kenney.

O. E. S. and Masons Planning Dinner and Dance Friday Eve

Friday evening will see one of the largest events of the season for members of Eastern Star and Masonic lodges when the groups will entertain jointly.

A covered dish dinner at 8:30 will open the evening's activities. Dining will be followed with dancing for the remainder of the evening, with the interval between dinner and 9 o'clock being competently filled with a special program.

An announcement is made to all ladies not contacted by the committee to bring a salad or hot vegetable dish.

Invitation has been extended to all Masons and their wives and to all Eastern Stars and their husbands, which bids well for a large crowd.

Social Night Friday Celebrates Birthdays Of Pocahontas Lodge

Birthday celebrations en masse have become the regular order among members of Pocahontas lodge, the social night last Friday being no exception. Honored at that time were Norma Martin, Bernice Brown, Mabel Quackenbush, Viola Sherer, Pearl Campbell, Howard Glascock, Walter Wilson and Charles Campbell.

On the receiving end for the attendance prize was Wilma Hayes.

Members adjourned from the business meeting to greet their invited friends for the dance that followed to music by the Dickses. Responsible for the success of the dance were Gladys Dooms, Ross Kyle and Glenn Abbott, with Norma Martin, Lella Morrow and Wilma Hayes serving refreshments.

Friday, December 13, is the date designated for the next dance, invitations being extended to members and guests.

Thursday Study Club Hears Review, Papers At Weekly Meeting

Tuesday was the time of the week's meeting of the Thursday Morning Study club, necessitated by the Thanksgiving holiday.

Appearing on the program were Mrs. B. A. Carley, whose paper, "The Nature of Art and Poetry," gave a general impression of poetry, its significance and classifications; Mrs. Frank Newman, dealing with the life and poems of Eleanor Wylie and her place in modern poetry.

Anne Lindbergh's book, "North of the Orient," was reviewed understandingly by Mrs. B. A. Sleetor, who stressed the infernal charm of Mrs. Lindbergh's style, and her ability to record her impressions and experiences in a simple, effective and thoroughly enjoyable style.

Mrs. A. J. Hanby presented a brief study of "Ethiopia."

Program Planned By Crater Lake Guild

Mrs. Diamond Flynn, assisted by Mrs. H. M. Wetshar and Miss Laura Bailey, will be hostess at her home, 907 West Tenth street, to the Crater Lake Guild Monday evening.

Principal event on the evening's program will be a review by Mrs. Walter Frazier Brown of "The Jew and World Perment," to be informally discussed after Mrs. Brown's presentation.

Also appearing will be Miss Mary Louise McElhose, who, accomplished fingers will provide piano music.

Mrs. Roberts Honor Guest On Birthday

Mrs. Hazel Roberts was honor guest at a party arranged for her birthday by Esther Merritt Sanderson and Mrs. Clotus McCredie at Mrs. Sanderson's home, 16 Rose Court, on November 18.

Occupying the center of interest at the attractive table was the unusually enticing cake baked by Mrs. Sanderson for the occasion. The twenty guests spent the evening playing various games introduced by the hostesses.

Thanksgiving Dinner And Family Reunion Combined By Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Canine were host and hostess Thursday at a Thanksgiving dinner that was also a family reunion, having as their honored guest of the day Mrs. Canine's father, W. P. Hogue, of Grants Pass.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gentry and daughter, Beverly, of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Ike Lowden and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lowden and daughter, Blanche, of Wonder, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. James Hogue and daughters, Alice and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sauer and son, Jack, of Kerby; Mrs. Alice Crow and daughters, Betty and Patricia, of Santa Cruz.

Also included among the guests were John Wood of Portland, Mrs. Marjorie Rogers and Miss Rosemary and Clarence Canine.

Garden Club Plans Local Plant Study

Continuing the competition introduced a short while ago, members of the Medford Garden club will bring winter bouquets to the meeting scheduled for Thursday evening at 7:30 at the Hotel Medford to vie for possession of the club vase.

Members will also come prepared to name shrubs and trees of southern Oregon, which will be the principal discussion of the evening. Mr. N. B. Bennett will be present to assist in the identification.

England Is Subject Of Delphian Session

England will again be the subject under discussion by members of Beta chapter, Delphian society, at the scheduled meeting Thursday at the Girls' Community club, the topic this time being "Social Life in Stuart England."

Mrs. John Moffatt will discuss Society under James I. Mrs. J. H. Fletcher will report on Stuart London; Mrs. W. G. Bishop, New Beverages; Mrs. O. O. Alexander, Modes of Dress; Mrs. C. E. Strader, the Status of Women and Children; Mrs. Harry Prentiss, Beginnings of the Social Domestic System; and Mrs. E. P. Merrick, Milton, Representative Man at His Age.

Dr. Estella Warner Guest of Misses Carlton

The Misses Carlton entertained as their guest this week Dr. Estella Ford Warner, who returned from San Francisco with Miss Mildred Calkin, who spent the previous week in the city.

Dr. Warner left Wednesday evening for Portland, to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents before returning to Washington, D. C., where she is a surgeon in the United States health department.

Daughters of Union Veterans Have Annual Inspection Nov. 25

The Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War held their annual inspection at the Armory November 25. This is considered the most important meeting of the year and elaborate preparations were made for the pleasure and success of this meeting. Miss Ora Cox, department inspector, being a member of the local tent, appointed Mrs. Anna Harmon of Grants Pass, inspector, to take her place. Preceding the meeting a banquet at the home of Mrs. Minnie Albaugh, 309 E. Jackson street, was served. Tables for 50 visitors and members were arranged.

Mrs. Katherine Watt, chairman of the banquet, and Mrs. Grace Sehorn, chairman of tables and decorations, and their committees, have the thanks of all for the success of this feature of the program. Following the banquet, the regular meeting was held at the armory. The ritual was exemplified by the officers of the tent. Three candidates were initiated: Rose Ellen Stoneker, Alta Hartley and Eleanor Potfenbarger.

Those in attendance from Grants Pass were: Mrs. Anna Harmon, assistant department inspector; Mrs. Eva Webb, president of Grants Pass tent; Mrs. Beck and Margaret Briggs; Walter Harmon, commander of Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War of Grants Pass camp, and Mr. Madison.

Those from Ashland were Mrs. Mabel Lumas, president of Ashland tent; Mrs. Franko, Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Eva Joanel.

Comrades J. C. Woods and Poik Hull were guests of honor on this occasion.

Music And Reviews On B.P.W. Program

Business and Professional Women of this city met Tuesday evening for dinner at the Hotel Medford. President Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann presiding. Effie Herbert Yeoman, solicitor for the evening, selected her numbers from the works of women composers, including Carrie Jacobs Bond.

On the program was Estelle Knight, who presented a brief resume and account of the activities, aims and accomplishments of the club, both nationally and locally.

Miss Helen Winters spoke on the new books lately received by the city library here, reviewing several and giving critics' opinions on the more outstanding.

Business discussion concluded the meeting.

Mrs. John P. Lawrence was a special guest of the evening.

Past Matrons' Club Will Be Entertained

Entertaining this week will be Mesdames Jennie Merritt, Hattie White, Maude Grant and Miss Alice Hanley, who have arranged a dessert luncheon for Monday at 1:15 for the Past Matrons' club of Reames chapter, O. E. S.

Place of the affair will be at the home of Mrs. Merritt's daughter, Mrs. Esther Sanderson, at 16 Rose Court. An invitation is extended to past matrons of other Eastern Star chapters.
