NO MORE SLAVERY
CONSTIPATION

Not a word to say about your favorite laxative or cathartic—that's your business.

All we ask you to do is get one 40-cent jar of Kruschen Salts and take as much as will lie on a dime in your morning cup of tea or coffee.

The six precious salts in Kruschen help to cause stomach, liver, gall bladder and bowels to function naturally and healthfully—you clear the system of poisonous waste and acid and regular blissful bowel action will gladden your heart.

Before the jar is empty you'll feel fine—keener mind—actively alive—more ambition.

No more laxatives—no more cathartics and no constipation when you take your little daily pinch of Kruschen. At Jarmen Drugs and druggists everywhere.

Gary Cooper and Ann Harding Co-Star

A new star team, Gary Cooper and Ann Harding, will be shown together for the first time in "Peter Ibbetson," coming Sunday to the Craterian for a two-day engagement.

"Peter Ibbetson," an immortal love classic that has been read as a book, seen as a play and an opera, now reaches the screen, deviating but slightly from the original work. It concerns the great love between a man and a woman, a love that nothing could break, a love that grew greater in a dream fantasy when cir-circumstances ruled that these two people be separated. A powerful soul-stirring romance, the film is an accurate picturization of the novel whose popularity has strengthened rather than dimmed with passing generations. Laid against the colorful background of the 1840 period in England, it has much of the same quality that made "Smilin'" Through such a favorite with movie audiences.

The supporting cast includes Ida Lupino, John Halliday, Douglas Dumbrille, Virginia Weidler and Dickie Moore.

Roxy Headliner

Claudette Colbert, supported by handsome Charles Boyer, Joel McCrea, Joan Bennett and Helen Vinson, is at the Roxy theater today and Friday in "Private Worlds," the story of a woman doctor who deals in psychopathic cases but is unable to control her own thoughts.

Ken Maynard Coming in Rialto Film

"Heir to Trouble," the new western thriller starring Ken Maynard, that redoubtable king of cowboys, will play at the Rialto theater tomorrow and Saturday.

The film relates the comic-drama of a high-riding ranger who adopts the infant son of a late friend and falls into a mess of intrigue when other interests attempt to gain custody of the child because of a sizeable inheritance. There is said to be a hilarious sequence in this new film in which Ken devises a series of Rube

Goldberg contraptions so that his faithful horse can play nursemaid to the baby in his absence.

Joan Perry plays the feminine role opposite Maynard, with Harry Woods, Martin Faust and a host of others in support.
