Wednesday Study Club

Continuing the study of China, Mrs. R. B. Hammond conducted a lesson on modern China at the meeting of the Wednesday Study club on December 4th. From many books on the subject, Mrs. Hammond chose for her authority, "My Country and My People," by Dr. L. Y. Tang, who is a native of China, educated at Harvard and European universities, and ably qualified to write intelligently and understandingly of his native country and his race. In speaking of Chinese art, Mrs. Hammond mentioned the very fine collection in the museum at the University of Oregon. Mrs. A. J. Hanby reviewed "A Conquest of Tibet" by Sven Hedin in which the author tells of his several expeditions of exploration into Tibet and his thrilling adventures and hardships. In the book, many of the characteristics and customs of the people in this far away land, and their religious rites and observances are interestingly portrayed. The president, Mrs. B. G. Harding, presided at the meeting, which was held in the Girls' Community club rooms on North Bartlett street. The club will meet again on December 18.

Mann's Imports French Perfume Of Famed Brand

Paris is still the center of the world of fashion, and it is to Paris that women turn for the newest things in gowns and perfumes. Interestingly enough, some of the leading fashion authorities are women whose slightest word is likely to change the costumes of women in Europe and America. One of the outstanding authorities of Paris is Lucien Lelong, from whose salon come some of the most striking creations of each season. Mr. Lelong has the added distinction of being one of the world's foremost perfumers. Delicate fragrances bearing his name have been enthusiastically sought after by sophisticated women everywhere. Recently Mann's made arrangements to secure for Medford a complete representation of these perfumes. Among them is the newest creation called "Indiscret," already a great favorite, although only introduced in America few months ago. Mr. Lelong is the man who taught American women the use of Eau de Cologne, which had quite gone out of fashion since our mothers' days. Creating a sparkling and unusual cologne of his own, Mr. Lelong designed a long-necked bottle for it that was an instant success. It swept the country, and reintroduced cologne to women who had completely forgotten the refreshing, restful pleasure to be had with it. Other successes by Lucien Lelong include a perfume called "Mon Image," which translated means "My Image." This is appropriately packaged in a box that is covered with mirrors. Then there is a fragrance called "Whisper," which is gentle and seductive and "Opening Night." A recent creation is French Lavender for which beauty editors predict a great success. All of these are included in the importations to be found in the toiletries department at Mann's. Lucien Lelong provides the gowns and perfumes for many of the nobles of Paris, New York and Hollywood. His wife (who incidentally is Princess Natalie Paley of the Russian royal family) is now in the United States, having just finished co-starring with Maurice Chevalier in a French version of the moving picture, "KICKENBUCK." JOE WARD NAMED NEW COMMANDER SPANISH WAR VETS

The regular monthly meeting of Colonel Sargent camp and auxiliary, United Spanish War veterans was held at Mistletoe Club Wednesday evening, December 4th. Considering the style of weather which was furnished for the occasion the meeting was notably well attended. Several who attended showed that they had never lost their wartime spirit of valor and hardihood by making automobile trips from places in Jackson county to be present. Officers for the coming year were elected. For the camp the following were chosen: Commander, Joe Wood; senior vice commander, Wallace G. Trill; junior vice commander, James H. Ping; trustee, W. H. Paine; officer of the day, George B. Alden; officer of the guard, John J. Leary. The elective officers of the auxiliary are to be: President, Myrna Wood; senior vice president, Bertha Hoffman; junior vice president, Millie McLean; chaplain, Charly Boehrer; conductor, Carrie Connor; guard, Jessie Hemstreet; assistant guard, Josephine Widner; patriotic instructor, Lella Paxson; historian, Ruth Belsa Collier; assistant conductor, Beina Pierce; delegate to department convention, Annie Barneburg; alternate delegate, Millie McLean. It was observed that the auxiliary was displaying with fitting pride a new set of ceremonial flags. Attention was called to the fact that the regular time for the next meeting when the new officers are to be installed comes on the evening of New Year's day, so it was decided to have it Friday evening, January 3, instead of on Wednesday.

CHRISTMAS TURK OFFERINGS GAIN

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 7. - (AP) - Turkey offerings for the eastern Christmas trade increased here today, the trade reported. With the bulk of the crop held out of the Thanksgiving trade, carload shipments here the next few days were expected to be heavy. Price quotations for dressed turkeys continued from 23 to 25 cents, Portland.

THE GRANGE

Phoenix Grange Tuesday night, December 10, is anxiously looked forward to by Phoenix Grange members. A covered dish dinner will be served at 6:00 o'clock, or soon after for all Grange members and their families. This is an annual affair and always stimulates an atmosphere of fellowship. The H. E. committee has tried to contact each one and tell them what to bring, but in case someone has not been reached, they would advise the bringing of salad, dessert or vegetable.

Live Oak Grange

Six candidates were initiated in the 3rd and 4th degrees at regular meeting December 2. Visitors were Mr. Bricker of Phoenix and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fiene and Mrs. Charles Gray of Gold Hill. We will have a Christmas gift exchange at the next meeting, December 16, and a party will be enjoyed after the business session.

Talent Grange

At a recent meeting of Talent Grange the following officers were elected for the coming year: Master, W. W. Robinson; overseer, Tom Bell; secretary, Iola Miller; steward, Jim Walters; chaplain, Mrs. W. W. Robinson; assistant steward, Steve Lunski; lady assistant steward, Bernice Werth; gate keeper, Guy Hamilton; Ceres, Dorothea Borg; Flora, Elva Newman; Pomona, Ketura Botwick; pianist, Beatrice Werth; business agent, R. E. Robinson; executive committee, C. E. Borg. These officers are all urged to attend the county installation of officers, to be held at the Central Point Grange hall, Sunday, December 8, at 1:00 p. m.
