Joan DeLosh and William Buchanan Married Yesterday

At six o'clock last evening, Miss Joan Maxine DeLosh, daughter of Mrs. Guy Phetteplace, became the bride of William Alfred Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buchanan, in a quiet ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Phetteplace on South Holly. Rev. W. C. Baird read the ceremony.

The bridal couple made their vows before the immediate families and intimate friends.

The bride wore an afternoon gown of mercedes blue luxury crepe, trimmed in silver, grey accessories completing the costume. She wore a corsage of gardenias and valley lilies.

Mr. and Mrs. Dow Stone acted as attendants for the bridal couple.

Bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony on a honeymoon trip that will take them to San Francisco, where both have many friends. They will return to Medford in about a week, and will be at home at 723 West Eleventh street.

Royal Neighbors Elect New Officers

Royal Neighbors, meeting in business session Thursday evening, elected officers for the following year. Those to serve are: Grace, Frances McConichte, vice orator, Myrtle Arnold; chancellor, Grace Wakefield; elected recorder, Margery Pearson; elected receiver, Nora Glascock; elected marshal, Bernardine Arnold; inner sentinel, Opal Kinney; outer sentinel, Marie Weisberg; manager for three years, Blanche Arnold; musician, Marie Silva; physicians, Dr. C. F. Sweeney and Dr. W. C. Bishop.

It was erroneously stated in the Friday edition of this paper that Mrs. Norman Gall, formerly Ellow Mae Wilson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson. The correct initials are H. G. Wilson.

Betrothal Told

Miss Frances Sparrow, daughter of Mrs. Alex Sparrow, whose engagement to James Firth, son of Mrs. Grace Firth of San Francisco, was announced this week.

Mrs. Kenly Entertains With Tea and Shower Honor Miss Sparrow

A number of affairs are being planned honoring Miss Frances Sparrow, one of the valley's most charming young bride-elects, whose engagement to James Firth, son of Mrs. Grace Firth of San Francisco, was announced early this week. Miss Sparrow is the daughter of Mrs. Alex Sparrow of Kirkland Farm.

First to entertain for Miss Sparrow was Mrs. P. Corning Kenly, who invited 35 ladies of the Colony club for tea Friday afternoon at her home as the background for a kitchen shower for Miss Sparrow.

Bardwell-Westergren Betrothal Announced At Afternoon Affair

Latest bride-elect is Miss Betty Bardwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bardwell, whose engagement to Eric C. Westergren, son of Mrs. Frank P. Borland, was announced at a very charming affair yesterday afternoon. Miss Dorothy Roberts was hostess to the group of intimate friends to whom Miss Bardwell made her announcement at the Roberts home on Crown Hill.

Twelve feminine members of the younger social set were invited for bridge in the afternoon, and were joined at five o'clock by the gentlemen of the group for cocktails.

Date of the wedding has not been definitely set as yet, but will probably be among prominent spring ceremonies.

Both Miss Bardwell and Mr. Westergren have a large number of friends in Medford and the valley, each being very well known here.

Mrs. Holloway Is Hostess to Church Organization Tues.

Mrs. W. A. Holloway was hostess to the Missionary societies of the M. E. church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. A. Shepherd conducted the devotional service, giving an impressive and inspiring Christmas message, closing with a Christmas hymn.

Mrs. N. J. Wiley, president of the joint societies, presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. W. Brainard, program chairman, assisted by Mesdames Stanley Chirgwin, Wm. Holloway and George Kunzman, gave a review of the book, "Thinking It Through," a discussion on world peace by Evelyn Riley Nicholson. The author states that the way to peace lies through the molding of the minds of the future, and that a move in that direction is being made by various youth movements.

Wenonah Club Plans For Future Sessions

Margie Erskine, assisted by Gladys Doores and Lena Gunther, was hostess to the Wenonah club Thursday afternoon at luncheon and business meeting. New officers for the year elected at that time are: President, Gladys Hammin; vice - president, Gladys Watermire; secretary and treasurer, Rose Kyle; reporter, Gladys Doores.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Clyde Wade and Mrs. V. K. Wolgast.

It was announced that Nellie Purdin will be hostess to the club for the regular social card party and annual Christmas party at her home, 315 West Holly, Thursday afternoon, December 19. Each member is asked to bring a gift not to exceed 15 cents in price, to put in the Christmas "grab bag."

Names for new Wenonah sisters are to be arranged and ready for drawing at this meeting.

The January 2 meeting and luncheon will be held at the home of Lena Gunther, 613 South Newtown street, at which time new officers will go into office.

Daughters of Junior Veterans

Daughters of Junior Veterans of Civil War will hold their regular meeting Monday evening at eight o'clock in the armory. Officers will be elected, so a good attendance is required.

Job's Daughters Plan Card Party

Saturday afternoon is the time selected for the large benefit card party planned by Job's Daughters as one of the largest of their affairs this season.

Making all arrangements is Virginia Hammond, who has appointed as her committee Barbara Lemmon, Jean Horton, Mary Louise McElhose, Corinne D'Albini, Margaret Norton, Dorothy Jenkins, Jean McPherson, Marjorie Phipps and Betty Grace Robbins.

The youthful hostesses are making extensive plans, and advance rumors indicate a most successful affair.

Daughters of Nile Will Prepare Box At Saturday Meet

Zulema Temple, Daughters of the Nile, will meet in this city Saturday afternoon at the Masonic temple. Luncheon will be served by the temple patrol at twelve-thirty, and the meeting will convene at two o'clock.

Of special interest at this meeting will be the preparations for the Christmas box, which is to be sent to the children of the Shriners hospital in Chicago. Members are requested to bring bedroom slippers and children's books for the box.

Other business will include reports on the Thanksgiving donations and several important items to be transacted.

Members are particularly requested to attend the luncheon for the benefit of the patrol.

Visitors Stop En Route South

Stopping in Medford during the past week were Mrs. Helen Violet Warren and her daughter Opal, of Yakima, Wash., who were guests of Mrs. Warren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Clemens.

Mrs. Warren is en route to Oakland, Calif., where she will attend the wedding of Harold Victor Clemens, her twin brother.

Miss Dorothea Reddy Married In New York December 3 Is Word

Mrs. J. P. Reddy received word yesterday afternoon of the marriage of her daughter, Dorothea, to William Moroney, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Moroney, of Dallas, Texas.

The ceremony was an event of December 3 in New York city.

The bride is well known here, having lived in Medford the greater part of her life. For the past year she has been living in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Moroney visited in the valley two years ago and will be remembered by friends and acquaintances met during his stay here.

Mission Society Meets Wednesday

The meeting of the Adult Missionary society of the Christian church held Wednesday was opened by Mrs. P. C. Latham, leading the devotionals. Miss Genevieve Brown sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Lois Young.

Mrs. Childs took charge of the program, opening with news items on war and peace given by several members.

Mrs. Lois Young read the poem "How Far to Bethlehem Town," and sang "Who at My Door Is Standing." Mrs. Everett Eads gave a paper on "Let Us Learn More of War That We May Abhor It."

Mrs. M. E. Olson and Mrs. C. C. Pierce sang "Divine Peace," and Mrs. Archer talked on what Christian women can do to promote peace.

Refreshments were served to about 50 members and guests.

Young Hostess Entertains Guests

Little Miss Sylvia (Ginger to her friends) Eakin was hostess to a small group on the occasion of her third birthday Friday afternoon. Miss Sylvia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Eakin.

The little guests enjoyed luncheon and games during the afternoon.
