ADDRESS ON INDIA ON PRESBYTERIAN PROGRAM TONIGHT

Mohan V. Raj, of Bombay, India, will lecture on "Present Day Conditions in India" at the First Presbyterian church at 7:30 this evening. All are invited to hear this first-hand and authentic story of true conditions of this most interesting country.
"The people of Medford will be afforded an unusual opportunity to hear the story of India as it is today," Rev. R. S. Peterson declared.
Mr. Raj is a graduate of the University of Minnesota in the agricultural department and recently completed his postgraduate work in the University of Oregon in Journalism, and is preparing himself to return to his native land to start and edit a modern farm journal in order to assist in the regeneration of the masses in India.

Born in a Hindu family, he embraced Christianity, and served as lieutenant under the British flag with General Allenby in his expeditions in Palestine. Mr. Raj has traveled extensively in India, held conferences with Mahatma Gandhi, worked among the "untouchables," and has had exceptional opportunities to study unknown phases of Indian life.
He speaks six of the Hindu languages, and also speaks English fluently.
In his lecture, Mr. Raj will tell of Gandhi's influence, of the industrial, political, agricultural needs of India, of the work of the missionaries, and a variety of personal experiences. He brings a display of Indian curios and art goods and uses a double dissolving lantern and colored slides.
The Presbyterian church invites all interested to hear this educational and inspiring address. A free-will offering will be taken.

PASTORS PROTEST SUNDAY FOOTBALL PROGRAM FOR OREGON TEAM

A resolution protesting Oregon university's football team engaging in a Sunday game was passed Tuesday by the Medford Ministerial Association and forwarded to Dr. Frederick Hunter, chancellor of higher education, and Dr. Clarence Boyer, president of Oregon university, it was disclosed by the local pastors' group Saturday.

The protest follows:
"At the regular meeting of the Medford Ministerial Association this week, the matter of our university football team playing St. Mary's in San Francisco next Sunday came before our body with the result that unanimous action was taken requesting the president and secretary to draft the following resolution and forward a copy to you:
"Whereas, play becomes a menace when it attacks God-given institutions and contributes to the moral and spiritual breakdown of the people;
"Resolved, that there is a moral obligation entailed in the observance of the Lord's Day, God hallowed the seventh day, setting it apart as a day of rest. The Fourth Commandment in the decalogue is the only one of the ten prefaces by the word 'remember.' Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Furthermore God commanded that the Sabbath observance be extended to all generations as a perpetual covenant (exodus 31:16).
"And, Whereas, taken from the example of Christ only the supply of physical want in hunger and suffering warrant a break in the Sabbath rest.
"And, Whereas, your departure in the role of Sabbath breaking for commercial and pleasure interests by the football game scheduled for San Francisco, U. of O. vs. St. Mary's, Sunday, December 8th is a dark blot on our fair state's high moral standard; and
"Whereas, you are setting a precedent that violates the highest prin-

SALVATION ARMY WILL DISTRIBUTE BASKETS OF FOOD

According to an announcement made Saturday by Captain G. R. Durham, commanding officer of the Salvation Army in Medford, there will be no "Forgotten Families" in this community Christmas day. As in former years, stated Captain Durham, the Salvation Army intends to distribute baskets of food to each and every really needy family coming to its attention. All citizens are urged by the captain to cooperate with the Salvation Army in this endeavor by reporting needy families in their particular locality. The following information should be phoned to 356: Family name, correct address, number of children.

The familiar red tripods and pots will be put on the streets of Medford, Ashland, Central Point and Jacksonville next Saturday and the tinkling of the bells will call citizens of Jackson county to share in the joy of Christmas giving.
Captain Durham states that 108 families received baskets on Christmas day last year and that 135 poor children were given toys and entertained at a Christmas party. A total of 512 individuals received Christmas cheer consisting of either food or toys, or both.
Because the Salvation Army is in touch with the poor and underprivileged of the city, not only at Christmas time but throughout the entire year, it is well fitted to pass along Christmas gifts to some deserving family. There is absolutely no overhead connected with this effort, and every penny received is expended by the close of the effort on Christmas day, according to Captain Durham.
