Efforts to see if a plan for leniency can be worked out.

The Spatz car was wrecked near Ashland and Bertrand sustained injuries. He was dismissed from the hospital last week.

The district attorney informed the court that Bertrand had an offer of employment at $1 per day, caring for an invalid, and read letters from the foster parents of Cook in Cedar Rapids, Ia., seeking clemency.

Both the men promised the court: "We will never take another drink and will work to reimburse the county for hospital expenses and Spatz for the loss of his auto."

Bertrand told the court: "Our trouble has been we have found work but our employer never cared much about paying. For instance, for a month's labor I received $2.37. We figured this was not enough to do anything with, so got drunk."

Assistant District Attorney Nelson said that both defendants had $37.50 coming for labor in a mine.

Cook told the court his troubles started "when he got married," and that he started drinking at the same time.

The Cedar Rapids, Ia., Red Cross reported that "Cook was brought up in the right spiritual influences."

Clifford A. (Doc) Farmer entered a plea of guilty to passing a forged check, purporting to be signed by Don A. Clark, orchardist, for $5.75, upon Brown's last week. Passing of sentence was deferred pending receipt of Farmer's police record, if any, from Salem.

Townsend club No. 2 held its first meeting Tuesday evening December 10 at 7:30 p.m. The hall was filled to capacity with enthusiastic Townsendites and 35 new members were admitted to the club.

If memberships continue to increase at their present rate, a larger meeting place may be needed in the near future, officers declare. Favorable comment is heard on all sides regarding the congenial spirit evidenced as well as for the speaking and excellent program, it is said.

"Dark Angel" Comes to Craterian Sunday

With three screen favorites in the leading roles, "The Dark Angel" comes Sunday to the Craterian theater for its first Medford run, with Fredric March and Herbert Marshall as rivals for the love of Merle Oberon. The story which is set in a quiet corner of lovely rural England follows the lives of a woman, Kitty Vane, (Merle Oberon) and two men, Alan Trent (Fredric March) and Gerald Shannon, (Herbert Marshall). Since childhood, Kitty has adored Alan, and Gerald has adored Kitty. The War takes both men.

John Wayne Tracks Down Killers

Surpassing all his previous fine portrayals, John Wayne makes "Westward Ho" coming tomorrow to the Rialto theater, an outstanding achievement. Seldom has a western star had the opportunity of displaying such dramatic ability; his histrionic talents are usually submerged in the gun-battles, hand-to-hand fights and other physical encounters. The story of "Westward Ho" deals with the early movement to California of those hardy pioneers who endured so many hardships. The plot opens when John's father and mother are slain and his young brother kidnapped by a band of desperadoes. Left for dead, Wayne is found by a wagon-train of settlers and nursed back to health. John takes a solemn oath to find the murderers and avenge his parents' death.

DR. WEBSTER OF PHOENIX PASSES

Dr. J. B. Webster, a resident of Phoenix for nearly 30 years, passed away at his home there at 10:30 p. m. Wednesday at the age of 68. Dr. Webster was born at Leeds, Eng. January 12, 1867, and came to the United States at the age of 27. Upon becoming of age, he took up the study of medicine and after graduating practiced in Baltimore, Md., for 15 years. Coming west he settled in Ashland, Ore., where he was resident physician for the Southern Pacific company, and in 1909 he retired from practice. Dr. Webster was a member of the Presbyterian church at Phoenix. His wife, Helen Webster, is his only surviving relative. Funeral arrangements with Conger Funeral Parlor will be announced upon the arrival of Mrs. Webster's sister from Pasadena, Cal., Friday morning.

Miss Glory

Marion Davies is the attractive but slightly dizzy chambermaid whose dizziness makes her an ideal subject for a promotion scheme concocted by a trio of fast-talking Broadway promoters in "Page Miss Glory," opening a three day run at the Craterian theater today. Included in the supporting cast are Pat O'Brien, Dick Powell, Frank McHugh, Mary Astor, Allen Jenkins, Joseph Cawthorn and Patsy Kelly.

Thrills And Comedy In "College Scandal"

Kent Taylor and Arline Judge are the amateur detectives who ferret out the fiendish killers in "College Scandal," playing today and Friday at the Roxy theater. "College Scandal" blends the elements of the shocker, comedy and romance into fast-paced entertainment. The killer, a super-criminal, eludes them at every turn.

In the climax an exciting chase and the thrilling rescue of Eddie Nugent from a house that is mined with explosives leads to the uncovering of the killer.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain. Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 2 pints a day and so get rid of more than 10 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing. If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS—used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

DRUNKEN DRIVER GETS STIFF JOLT ON 2ND OFFENSE

tember for driving an auto while intoxicated. In this case Russell was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail, fined $100 and his driver's license revoked for one year. The jail term was suspended on promise to pay the fine.

The charge upon which Russell was sentenced today grew out of an auto accident in Ashland on the night of November 2.

Wallace Bertrand of Lynn, Mass., and Herbert J. Cook of Cedar Rapids, Ia., entered pleas of guilty to the theft of an auto last September belonging to Ward Spatz of this city, and were each sentenced to serve an indeterminate sentence of not less than 18 months in state prison.

The commitment to the penitentiary was ordered withheld, pending
