"Candida" Attracts Many Medfordites

The unusual production of George Bernard Shaw's "Candida", presented by students of the Southern Oregon Normal school, has attracted a number from here as well as Ashland theatergoers. Staged in the mezzanine reception room at the Lathia hotel in Ashland, limited audiences of sixty for each of the four performances see the young actors and actresses portray the sophisticated comedy in intimate style.

Instead of the usual intermission lapse, guests are served at that time with coffee on the balcony, an innovation which provides a pleasant social contact.

This evening's performance, the third, will see Miss Marjorie McNair in the leading role, she being alternate with Miss Helen Edmiston, who will appear in the fourth and final performance tomorrow evening.

Among the number from Medford who have seen or are going to see the play are Mr. and Mrs. Royal E. Bebb and party, who will drive up this evening, and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Dodge, who were guests at a previous performance.

Audiences have been enthusiastic about the performances so far, and capable Director Angus Bowmer, who was ably assisted by his charming wife, may well be proud of his effort to bring sophisticated (both in presentation and content) drama here.

20-30 Ladies Entertained at Dinner
Ladies of the Twenty-Three club were guests last night for dinner at the home of Mrs. Alton Anderson, who was joint hostess with Mrs. Lyle Lindley and Miss Dorothy Hughes.

A busy season is being planned by the group, with several holiday affairs already being arranged.

Guest for the evening were Messdames Lem Massee, Irwin Cutler, C. E. Sunderman, Gene Orr, and Harry Pines.

Mrs. Higgins To Leave for Holidays
Among the earliest of Medford folk leaving to spend the Christmas holidays out of town will be Mrs. T. M. Higgins and children, who will leave Tuesday morning for Oakland, where they will be Christmas guests of Mrs. Higgins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bommer.

Mr. Higgins will join his family later in the month.

Mrs. Saunders Honored at Shower

Mrs. Charles W. Kenyon and Mrs. Lawrence B. Hanson were joint hostesses at a recent dinner-bridge luncheon at the Hanson home, South Second street, having as their honored guest Mrs. Guy William Saunders, who, with Captain Saunders, will leave Sunday for a month's vacation trip to Chicago.

In view of her approaching departure, guests and hostesses surprised Mrs. Saunders with a handkerchief shower. Score awards for the afternoon's playing went to Mrs. Chauncey L. Pierce and Mrs. Harold Capers.

Guests were Messdames Theodore P. Coates, Chauncey L. Pierce, Harold Capers, Rose D. Guy, Franklin H. Dewey III, Harry Hanson, Robert Colwell, Alfred H. Hopkins, Louis H. McQuire, L. L. Lamb and the honor guest.

Former Resident, Now of London, Visits

Flying from New York to San Francisco, she met her son, who makes his home in the bay city, and they continued here to renew pleasant friendships.

The visitors plan to return to San Francisco Monday.

SALVATION ARMY PLACING KETTLES SATURDAY MORN

Contributed

He was a veteran, drawing a small pension from the government, trying to support his family of four without asking for relief. His small monthly allowance was only sufficient to pay rent and purchase the merest necessities. How could Santa Claus be persuaded to visit his home this year and leave something for the children?

The Salvation Army will be the answer to that question, for his name has been placed on the Christmas basket list and the children will be given presents, and the family all the necessary supplies for a real Christmas dinner.

Not only will this family receive such help from the Army this Christmas but at least one hundred others, all equally deserving, will be remembered. The Salvation Army is determined, as in all former years, that not one really needy family shall be neglected or forgotten this Christmas.

Salvationists will be on the streets here, as well as in Jacksonville, Central Point and Ashland, tomorrow with their Christmas bells and pots and all citizens will be given opportunity to contribute towards the cost of providing these Christmas dinners for the poor. The kettles will remain on the streets in Medford and Ashland each day throughout the coming week as well as on Monday and Tuesday of the following week. Kettles will be stationed in Central Point and Jacksonville on Saturdays only.

Residents of rural districts are urged to forward the names of needy families in their community to Captain G. B. Durham, box 407, Medford, Ore., at once in order that arrangements may be made for the delivery of the baskets to these outlying districts early on Christmas eve.

Persons wishing to turn in names of needy families, or make donations of cash or supplies, may phone 396.

S. O. N. President

WALTER REDFORD
Walter Redford, former head of the geography department of Southern Oregon Normal school, has been president of that institution in Ashland since 1932. He was born in Missouri in 1888 and came to Oregon in 1926. He received his degrees at the University of Washington.

A car will be sent at any time to pick up donations. Captain Durham states that canned fruit and vegetables are particularly needed for the baskets.

Wage Controversy Kills School Plan

GRESHAM, Ore., Dec. 13.—(AP)—A difference between the government's WPA wage scale and that demanded by union labor caused directors of Gresham union high school to abandon an approved WPA project for a $23,000 school auditorium.

Government scale for skilled labor was 73 cents an hour, while union demands were $1.20. The program called largely for skilled labor.

new charges for the Oregon territory were listed as follows:

For the first 50 kilowatt hours, per meter, 5.5 cents.
The next 50 kilowatt hours, per meter, 3 cents.
The next 150 kilowatt hours, per meter, 1.25 cents.

All over that amount, $1.25 cents. The 3 cent block would be further increased at the rate of 50 kilowatt hours for each whole horsepower motor connected load above a total of two horsepower.

The minimum monthly charges were listed for services as follows: $1.50 for lights and small appliances, $1.50 for electric range, 50c per horsepower over a total of two horsepower load, 50c for kilowatt hour of major appliances in excess of 3 kilowatt hours, exclusive of ranges and motors.

The combination service minimum charge would total $2.50 a month.

RAIN IS FORECAST FOR VALLEY AREA

Another period of rain was forecast today by the weather bureau as the Rogue valley again came within the sphere of influence of a low pressure area that reformed in the Gulf of Alaska and moved southward. The high pressure area over the Pacific that brought partial clearing yesterday weakened and moved southward, the bureau said.

Little change in temperature was expected, though the rain might cause a slight general rise. Clearing skies yesterday caused a drop, the mercury going to 30 degrees during the night, the lowest in some time. The thermometer at noon registered

Dr. Jensen Will Talk On Russia At Zion Church

Dr. LeRoy Jensen will speak on "Russia" at the meeting of the Luther League of Zion Lutheran church, 7:00 p. m. Sunday evening, to which the general public is heartily invited.

of the old age pension plan is planned.

"We are not going to make any vague promises that cannot be fulfilled," he said.

Tentative plans call for the selection of delegates by club members with definite apportionments to each state.

Townsend reported that 31 replies—all favorable—have been received from queries sent to members of congress asking them where they stood on the idea. No replies have been received from members of the senate, he said.
