The W. C. T. U.
Over thirty members and friends of the W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. F. Russell Thursday afternoon for their regular meeting. Mrs. Lucretia Whitlock read the Christmas story from Luke 2, followed by prayer. The president, Mrs. E. A. Oldenburg, paid tribute to the life and splendid work of the late Mrs. Ada Jolley, state W. C. T. U. president, who was killed recently in an automobile accident. She read Dr. J. M. Howard's message, "A Precious Death," which was very appropriate. Members expressed their sympathy for Mrs. Heine in the tragic death of her cousin, Mrs. Emma James, in an auto accident in Portland. Mrs. James had many friends in Medford. She was president of the Frances Willard Union in Portland.
Mrs. J. C. Woods expressed thanks for the many gifts brought by members for the children's farm home. Mrs. Daley Douglas was enjoyed in a Christmas reading "Beggars' Jane." Mrs. M. Russell read "A Letter to the President" by Rev. McKinley Coffman. Mrs. Ray Pence brought an inspiring Christmas message urging that we put selfishness out of our lives. Mrs. Pence's young sons, Clifford and Gerald, sang several Christmas hymns which all enjoyed. Mrs. Eva McNary will be hostess for the next meeting, January 9, with Mrs. Littrell program chairman.

BONNEVILLE HUGE SPILLWAY DECK WORK PROGRESSES

Here is a view of the main spillway of the $42,500,000 Bonneville dam on the Columbia river near Portland, Ore., where some 2200 cubic yards of concrete are poured daily. The pyramid-like blocks are baffles to break up the water poured over the spillway. (Associated Press Photo)

It's Easy to Find Gifts Ladies Will Appreciate

By Janet Ward Smith.
For once, the order of things—that are reversed, and the ladies are not getting their inning first, not from disrespect or disregard of feminine precedence, but because the ladies are not bothered by shopping, not even at Christmas. And, Madam, you really are coming first, for these suggestions are for things for you. And so, we shall continue giving what little help we can to distressed males in the way of gift suggestions.
Perfume is a gift that can't be overestimated in its appeal and appropriateness; 99 out of 100 women love it. But we caution you to find out what scents she prefers before buying. We found one particular item, a genuine scent with which comes an ice-box gardenia for coat lapel or dress as an extra touch. Along with mention of perfume, don't forget the varied and large array of cut-glass scent bottles of all shapes and colors which would be an excellent accompaniment to a gift of perfume. Both perfume and containers may be found in a large number of shops.
Very nice gifts are the genuine leather zipper manicure cases, which are as complete or as simple as you like. And, of course, you won't forget to consider other toilet articles and sets, always good. And before we leave this subject, we suggest you look up the compact traveling kit which contains a complete make-up box with an airplane-luggage finish. Very smart.
And speaking of luggage, its popularity as a gift has grown amazingly recently, and with justice, we think, for even though she (or he) is one of those rare individuals who has lots and lots of it, there are many special pieces

JACKSON PLAYERS GET FEED, AWARDS

Letter awards were presented to Jackson school football players at a turkey banquet given in their honor in the school basement Thursday evening. Two large turkeys, presented by H. W. Guerin, principal and coach, and roasted by G. Juhl, formed the centerpiece, while the ladies of the P. T. A. prepared the rest of the dinner.
Dick Sakradd, assistant coach, presented letter awards to the following: Junior Barber, Donald Pawest, Buster Cannon, Bill Clarkson, Roger Barker, Dean Smith, Henry Herman, Clifton Jones, Harold Radun, James Yoeger, Eugene Keene, Marc Jarmin and Bob Dickie. A manager's award was given to Bob Davis.
H. D. Ken of Copco entertained the group with 40 minutes of football motion pictures. Ray Henderson, superintendent of grade school athletics, was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Hamlin of the P. T. A. was in the kitchen with Miss Briggs of the school, and serving was done by Phoebe Swen, Lucille Jennings, Jean Marie Blankenship and Betty Jean Myers.
NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Daughters of two political chieftains whose enmity helped make Louisiana history have accepted roles together in the dedication of the new $14,600,000 Mississippi river bridge Monday.

SALEM REPORT ON TRAILER LICENSE FEE HELD WRONG

State and city police stations have been flooded with inquiries regarding the report printed in the Mail Tribune Friday under a Salem dateline, stating that all automobile trailers, regardless of description, were subject to a new $10 tax.
This report is in error, authorities here state, pointing out that two-wheel trailers weighing less than 750 pounds are tax free. Two-wheel trailers over 750 pounds and up to 2000 pounds are subject to the $10 levy with a graded scale for those over 2000 pounds. All four-wheel trailers are subject to tax, the amount depending entirely upon the weight of the trailer, police said.
There are 24 weighing stations in Jackson county, state police said, located in the following places: Medford—George Gilman place, Gore-Ish ranch, Hillcrest Orchard Homer's Feed Store, Ernest Nierdamer place, Rogue River Valley Canning Co., Villas orchard.
Other weighing stations will be found at Bagley Canning Co., Enders warehouse and the Fred Holmes place in Ashland; at the R. V. Beal and W. M. Bohner places in Central Point; the General Petroleum Co. and the Palmer Corporation near Central Point.
Other weighing stations are: Eagle Point, John Allen place; Jacksonville, Peter Flick place, box 114; Phoenix Meadows; Talbot Service Station; Del Rio orchard and Charles Gray place at Gold Hill; H. W. Williams place at Wimer; J. T. Galligar and C. S. Hatch places at Rogue River.
CCC Camps Policed
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Physicians treated 41 youths of the civilian conservation corps for probable poisoning today and reported six in serious condition.

Rogue River Miner Seeks Creek Water
SALEM, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Sam Allen, Wolf Creek, filed application with the state engineer for permission to appropriate three second feet of water from Rock creek, for mining in Josephine county.
W. F. Wright, Rogue River, applied for one second foot from Tom East creek for mining in Josephine county.
