CARRIERS HONORED BY MAIL TRIBUNE FOR GOOD SERVICE

The third annual Christmas banquet honoring carriers of the Mail-Tribune was held last night at Valentine's cafe. The yearly event is a mark of appreciation of the carriers service to subscribers. Jerry Latham, circulation manager, acted as toastmaster and called upon several carriers, who talked on various subjects related to the sale and distribution of the newspaper. Those who responded were William Goodman, Robert Archer, Don Krous and George Watson. Bruce Ruff, former carrier now employed by the Medford branch of the United States National Bank of Portland, and Carol Wall, member of the Mail Tribune advertising staff, were guests of the circulation department. After the dinner the carriers were entertained at the Rialto show as guests of the management. City carriers attending the banquet were Bruce Biew, Glen Reed, George Watson, William Goodman, James Anning, Don Krous, Robert Cufel, Glenn Harrison, Robert Purucker, Delmer Anning, Hugh Power, Ardo Stocks, Alvin Thorbus, Delmer Wright, Bob Archer, Ray Hubbard, Billy Strang, Harold Hartzell, Stanley Folsom, Ernest Smith and Roger Henselman. Carriers delivering outside of Medford were Forrest Harrison, Albert Fortman, Homer Myers, Gage Sanden, Harold McAbee, Don Hungeat, Dillard Leathco and Nixon Denton.

Continued cloudy weather tonight and tomorrow with little change in temperature was forecast today by the meteorological bureau. The valley is still under the influence of a low pressure area centered in the Alaskan gulf, the bureau explained. Gentle winds from the outer edges of the low pressure area gave a zest to the atmosphere this morning. Lowest temperature today was 24 degrees as compared with 27 yesterday. Medford schedules of the United Air Lines, disrupted Saturday by fog, were resumed yesterday afternoon.
