recitations by primary and junior boys and girls, directed by Mrs. Veri Walker. The second part is the pageant "The Inn of Bethlehem," directed by Harriet White. This will be followed by the presentation of white gifts at the manger. The third part is the Christmas party to be held in the Sunday school auditorium, to which the entire church family is invited.

MORE ARE ADDED TO MAIL STAFF

Incoming Christmas mail is considerably heavier than at the same time a year ago. Roland G. Beach, assistant postmaster, said today.

Outgoing mail, Mr. Beach stated, is not quite so great as it was last year but that is because Medford residents heeded the admonition of the postal service to mail packages early.

Three substitute carriers were added to the postoffice staff today to help handle the increased mail. Three others were employed yesterday and two about a week ago, making eight extras in all on the job now. This is two more than required at the same time a year ago, Mr. Beach said.

CIVIL SERVICE TESTS ANNOUNCED BY BOARD

The following civil service examinations were announced today: Transportation tariff examiner (freight) and transportation tariff examiner (passenger) for the interstate commerce commission. Rate agent for the bureau of motor carriers, interstate commerce commission. Special experience is required for these positions. Full information may be procured from Earl H. York, secretary of the local civil service board, at the postoffice.
