BREAD AND CAKES LIKE MOTHER MADE

The Trucks Went to Tulare to Get SWEETER ORANGES

EVERYONE knows Southern Navel Oranges to be sweeter than the early oranges from Northern California.—Usually the Southern Navels do not reach this market in time for Christmas, so we had the Nosler trucks bring up our Christmas supply. Due to crop conditions, the large oranges are more economical this year.—An extra good growing year produced a lot of big ones. The smaller sizes, while costing less per dozen, actually cost more by weight.—While we have any size you want—the big ones offer the best value and are sweeter.
