Effie Yeoman United To T. M. Kurtz In Early Morning Rites

Effie Herbert Yeoman was united in marriage to T. M. Kurtz at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning by Rev. W. R. Baird at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Gentner, 20 North Orange street, in a ceremony the plans for which were successfully kept secret and will come as a complete surprise to most Medford folk.

Bride and groom made their vows in front of the fireplace. A special painting over the fireplace of the Christmas scene of the Three Wise Men coming into Jerusalem, added an unusual and particularly appropriate decorative note. The picture was flanked on either side by small Christmas trees, bright in blue and silver, and the fireplace was banked with tall baskets of poinsettias and Oregon grape.

The bride was gowned in periwinkle blue and wore a corsage of gardenias. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Herbert of The Dalles, Mr. Herbert is a brother of the bride.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, the tables having as centerpiece a silver bowl of holly flanked by tall red tapers in red holders. Hostesses for the breakfast were Mrs. Gentner and Mrs. Baird.

The bride and groom and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert left later in the week for Lawton, Okla., where they will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Rose Herbert, mother of Mrs. Kurtz, and Mr. Herbert. They drove by way of the southern route, and Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz are expected to return in about three weeks. They will make their home here.

Mrs. Yeoman is very well known in valley musical and social circles. Mr. Kurtz has been a Medford resident for about a year, being associated with the Alaska of Oregon Mines company.

Witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Gentner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert, Miss Eleanor Curry and Rev. and Mrs. Baird and family.

WREATHED IN SMILES THIS XMAS

No more washdays in the house. Everybody agrees it costs very little more to have that weekly bundle of trouble done at the laundry. We've been very busy this week laundering linens. That added touch of distinction, which expertness gives to fine linens, does add gleam and sparkle to the holiday season. Merry Xmas, everybody.
