Christmas Buying Eased For Men In Stag Department
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 21.—(AP) A wary young man who didn't know what to buy the girl friend for Christmas was in a fine humor today.
With a minimum of effort he had completed his shopping in two hours of an evening, and not once were his toes stepped on by the "weaker sex."
For a downtown department store threw a "men only" party, moved a variety of merchandise in the first floor, and proceeded to put father and son at ease.

Butter Grading Code Agreed On
PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 21.—(AP) A voluntary butter grading code not approved of the Oregon Creamery association which announced 85 per cent of the industry was back of the move.
Any objection on the quality will result in prompt revocation of license, the creamerymen and Solon T. White, state director of agriculture, agreed.
Under the plan butter scoring 92 will bear grade "A" labels, 90 score "B" and 88 score "C."
There'll be no 91 butter put out as "A" grade, or creamery licenses will be lifted, White declared.
Creameries not wishing to join the trade movement may continue to produce and market under the "extra" and "standard" classification.
