Schuler Returns—E. Schuler returned this morning from a week's business visit in San Francisco.

In Grants Pass—E. J. Smith left Sunday for Grants Pass where he will spend the ensuing week on business.

From Ashland—W. J. Stevens of Ashland was in Medford Sunday, visiting his son, Ellis Stevens.

From Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore of Central Point transacted business in Medford yesterday.

Mrs. Watson Back—Mrs. Don Watson returned this morning from Tacoma where she spent the Christmas holidays with relatives.

Visitors Leave—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Thorndson, who have been visiting at the George B. Young home, left last night for San Francisco.

Here on Business—C. A. Richardson of San Francisco transacted business here yesterday, leaving last night for Portland.

To Portland—Madeline Snyder, connected with the WPA in this city, left last evening on a business trip to Portland.

At Headquarters—Lieut. James M. Wiley, Jr. of Camp Bly conferred with officers yesterday at Medford CCC headquarters.

In Ashland—G. J. Robinson, representative of the Remington-Brand company in this city, was a business caller in Ashland Monday.

Retires from CCC—Capt. Harry Hansen, former commander of Camp Clear Lake, is leaving the CCC to return to private life and his home in Portland.

From Crater Lake—L. Howard Crawford, winter photographer at Crater Lake national park, arrived here yesterday for several days of work at park headquarters in the Federal building.

Scherer Here—Paul Scherer, formerly with the Southern Oregon Sales corporation here and now of San Francisco, has been spending a few days in the valley, visiting several of his many friends here.

Frohnmayer North—Bill Frohnmayer left by train last night for Portland and Seattle on business. He planned on spending tonight, New Year's eve, with his sister in Portland.

Looks Over Facilities—C. C. Thompson of San Francisco conferred today with Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, regarding recreational facilities of southern Oregon.

Undergoes Operation—Miss Emil Pank, United States forest service clerk, underwent an appendectomy at Sacred Heart hospital yesterday. Her condition was reported as satisfactory.

To Boeing School—Jim Horner, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Horner, left this morning by motor for Oakland, Cal., where he will enter the Boeing school of aeronautics at the Oakland airport. He is a graduate of Medford high school.

Putnam Here—George Putnam, formerly editor and publisher of the Mail Tribune and now editor and publisher of the Capital Journal, Salem, was visiting old friends in Medford Sunday. He returned to his home Sunday evening.

Miss Willie Leaves—Miss Isobel Willie, for several years instructor in English in the Medford high school and now serving in the same capacity at the Astoria high school, left this morning by train after spending the holidays here with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sweeney and family.

Christmas Seal Announcement—The committee in charge of the sale of Christmas seals for the prevention of tuberculosis requests that those still having seals, who have not returned the money or the seals, please do so as soon as possible so that final reports and tabulations may be completed.

Study Mechanics—Thirty-two CCC men were enrolled today in the auto mechanics school inaugurated by the motor transport unit at headquarters detachment, fairgrounds. The students are given a thorough practical course in automotive mechanics, doing the class-room work in a shop two nights a week. The class is instructed by Capt. Glenn J. Key, motor transport officer, and R. A. VanCleave of Prescott Memorial park.

Pankey in Town—H. T. Pankey, Central Point postmaster, who recently recovered from a serious illness, was in Medford today on business. He said the Christmas volume of mail was heavier this season than in several years. On the Monday before Christmas he worked at the post-office for 18 hours straight, he related. Postal business in 1935 has run consistently ahead of that for last year, he stated.

Snowmen Display—A colorful display depicting winter sports at Crater lake has been set up in the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce by the Rogue Snowmen. The artwork was done by Joanne King. The exhibit contains posters, photographs, equipment for skiing and forms showing the fashionable winter-sports attire for women. The ski equipment was provided by Hubbard Brothers, the apparel by Mann's and the photograph by Shangle.

New Forest Signs—Maurice L. Tedrow, district ranger of the United States forest service, will leave tomorrow night for Portland where he will be given an intensive course in the manufacture of raised-letter signs. Upon his return he will take charge of a sign shop to be erected at the South Fork CCC camp. There, under his direction, the CCC men will make rustic signs for all the national forests in southern Oregon. The forest service must do the work itself because the kind of rustic signs it requires cannot be obtained elsewhere, it was explained by Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest.
