

Society and Clubs

Miss Heath Becomes Bride E. G. Narregan Yesterday Afternoon

At three-thirty yesterday afternoon Miss Lena Heath became the bride of E. Gene Narregan at the home of Rev. E. S. Hartman, who united them in marriage. The quiet ceremony was witnessed only by members of the immediate families.

Bride and groom were attended by Mrs. George Barnum, sister of the bride, and William Heath, the bride's brother.

A tailored suit of blue-grey was the attire chosen by the bride, with which she wore navy turban and accessories. Mrs. Barnum wore a brown afternoon dress.

Bride and groom received a few friends after the ceremony at the George Barnum home on Fairview Heights. Both Mr. and Mrs. Narregan are very well known in southern Oregon, where they graduated from Medford high school. Mr. Narregan also attended Stanford university at Palo Alto.

The bridal couple drove to Portland for a honeymoon, and will return to Medford to make their home at the Holly Apartments, Mr. Narregan is United States deputy marshal here.

Daughters of Nile To Elect Officers

Zulema Temple, Daughters of the Nile, will meet in the Ashland Masonic temple next Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Preceding the meeting, luncheon will be served in the Masonic dining room at twelve-thirty by the temple patrol.

Business of the day will include election of officers for the new year, and plans will be made for the installation ceremonies. A good attendance is desired, and members are especially urged to attend the luncheon.

Mrs. A. K. Cass, of Grants Pass, queen of the temple, will preside during the session.

Get-Together Club Has All-Day Party

First day of the new year was spent in a club gathering by the Get-Together club, starting with a turkey dinner served to ninety people at the Eagles hall at one-thirty.

After dinner, the afternoon was spent dancing and playing cards until five-thirty, when light refreshments were served, after which cards were resumed.

Those instrumental in making the day a success were Mrs. Verna Flowers, Mrs. Isabel Tucker, Mrs. Ina Parker, Mrs. Lulu Thurston, Mrs. Elizabeth Meyers, Mrs. Blanche Moulton and Miss Mary Offord.

Toastmasters during the dinner hour were Glenn Anderson, Ralph Parker and Phil Thurston.

New Year's Group At Boutique Home

Sixteen guests gathered for a no-host dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boutelle Tuesday evening, preceding the later evening events in farewell to the old year.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Janney, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Root, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Rawley Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Humphrey, Miss Helen Bullis, Mr. S. M. Bullis and the Ralph Boutelles.

Mrs. Hanby Ho-Tess to Class

Mrs. A. J. Hanby was hostess to the Women's Missionary Study class of the Presbyterian church at her home Friday afternoon. Discussions were led by Mesdames Oliver, Albert, Brown and Littrell, after which the hostess served tea and cakes.

Next meeting was announced for Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. P. C. Albert, 435 Beatty street, with Mesdames Iverson, Hagerty and Merritt leading the study period. All ladies interested in the international study book "Towards a Christian America" are cordially invited to attend these classes.

General Wed

Brig. Gen. David Lamme Stone, commander of Fort Snelling, Minn., was married New Year's day to Mrs. Anita Thorne Corse at Tacoma, Wash. (Associated Press Photo).

James Firth Guest At Sparrow Home Over New Year's

A holiday visitor in Medford was James Firth, of San Francisco, now living in Myrtle Point, who spent New Year's eve and the next day as a guest at Kirtland Farm, home of Mrs. Alex Sparrow. The engagement of Miss Frances Sparrow to Mr. Firth was an interesting announcement of a few weeks ago. The wedding date is indefinite, but will be an event of spring.

Entertaining for Miss Sparrow and Mr. Firth, and also for Miss Betty Bardwell and Eric Westergren, whose betrothal was recently announced, was Edward Reames, who invited about thirty of the younger set to his home New Year's Eve preceding the Town club dance.

Among those entertaining for Miss Sparrow since the announcement of her engagement are Mrs. P. Corning Kenly and Miss Dorothy Roberts.

Williamson's Visit At C. G. Smith Home

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Williamson, who recently left Medford to make their home in Roseburg, were house guests over New Year's of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Smith, seeing the new year in at the Town club with their host and hostess.

Catholic Ladies Extended Invitation

Mrs. J. M. Marshall, president of St. Ann's Altar society, extends an invitation to all ladies of the Sacred Heart Catholic church to attend a covered dish luncheon at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the parish hall.

Norman Gails Entertain for Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gail entertained recently with a dinner and theatre party for Miss Lillian Walker, of Palo Alto, who spent the Christmas holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Walker.

Degree of Honor Makes Future Plans

Members of the Degree of Honor started the New Year enthusiastically by having a large attendance at the regular business meeting Thursday evening. Praise and appreciation were extended to Ada B. Seiler and Lewis Parker for their work on the Christmas party program, and also to Mrs. Edward T. Allen and Mrs. Mayne Seiler, who were on the buying committee.

It was announced that Lois A. Geyer, regional director, will visit the organization in February, and plans were gotten under way for a card party scheduled for January 18.

Principals in Bridal Party Announced By Bride, Groom-To-Be

Miss Betty Bardwell, bride-elect whose marriage to Eric Westergren will be an event of January 18, has announced that Miss Dorothy Roberts will be her bridesmaid. The wedding will take place at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Rev. E. S. Hartman uniting the young couple.

Jack Bierma will act as best man for the groom, and ushers have been named as Jim Henry, Paul Luy Charles Reum and Jack Murray.

Miss Bardwell and Mr. Westergren have been much entertained by their many friends in the valley since the announcement of their engagement a few weeks ago. Among those entertaining for the bride-to-be have been Miss Gloria Getcheu, Mrs. Helen Conroy, and Mrs. Ben Day and Miss Clara May Pason, who were joint hostesses for an afternoon affair early in the week.

Paul Luy entertained with an informal supper honoring the couple Wednesday evening of this week, inviting as his guests Mr. and Mrs. Lynn B. Crowland, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mikoshe, the Misses Clara Mary Pason and Roberta Werrenfeldt, and Messrs. Bob Eldridge, Jack Bierma and Dow Beckham.

Local Misses Leave For Branson School

Leaving today are Miss Charity Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart; the Misses Helene and Jean Salade, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Salade, Jr.; and Miss Alicia Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl, all of whom are students at the Katharine Branson school at Ross, Calif.

The young ladies are returning to their studies after an enjoyable Christmas vacation with their families in the valley.

Miss Dagmar Cook, of Honolulu, accompanied the group back to school, where she is also a student. She has been a holiday guest at the Hart home, and also of the Misses Salade.

Wenonah Sisters Plan for Future

Lena Guenther was hostess to the Wenonah club at the first meeting of the new year held this week. A business session followed luncheon. New officers for the year are: President, Gladys Hamlin; vice-president, Gladys Waltemire; secretary and treasurer, Rose Kyle; and reporter, Gladys Dooms. A new member of the club is Peggy Grimes. Assisting the hostess were Wilma Hayes and Norma Martin.

It was announced that Monday evening, January 13, is the time set for Revelation of Wenonah Sisters, at the home of Blanche Hinabarger, 156 Vancouver avenue. Carrie Milnes and Norma Martin are in charge of arrangements.

Helen Smith will be hostess to the club at the next meeting, a card party, at her home, 656 West Second street. The committee in charge consists of Sarah Tolle, Ethel Bish and Mary Zundell.

Catholic Ladies Extended Invitation

Mrs. J. M. Marshall, president of St. Ann's Altar society, extends an invitation to all ladies of the Sacred Heart Catholic church to attend a covered dish luncheon at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the parish hall.

Norman Gails Entertain for Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gail entertained recently with a dinner and theatre party for Miss Lillian Walker, of Palo Alto, who spent the Christmas holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Walker.

Degree of Honor Makes Future Plans

Members of the Degree of Honor started the New Year enthusiastically by having a large attendance at the regular business meeting Thursday evening. Praise and appreciation were extended to Ada B. Seiler and Lewis Parker for their work on the Christmas party program, and also to Mrs. Edward T. Allen and Mrs. Mayne Seiler, who were on the buying committee.

Travel Study Club

The Travel Study club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. Iverson, 60 Ross court, Monday afternoon. Club members please note change of date.

Distinguished Visitors Guests of Stewards

Distinguished visitors in Medford during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carrillo, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Steward at dinner on New Year's day.

Mr. Carrillo is a brother of Leo Carrillo, motion picture actor, and is a noted engineer. He just finished directing one of the Rockefeller projects in New York city which has been under way for five years. He also directed the building of Savage Rapids dam and was consulting engineer for the railway that spans Great Salt Lake, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrillo are spending a holiday vacation in southern Oregon and are returning to their home in Santa Monica soon.

Other dinner guests of the Stewards were Mr. and Mrs. Clotous McCredie and Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Durno.

Club-Lodge Announcements

Past Matrons Past Matrons of Reames chapter, O. E. S., will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Perry on West Main street Monday afternoon. Mrs. Katharine Larsson, Mrs. Beale Lumadon and Mrs. Lillian Wood will assist the hostess. Dessert will be served at 1:15.

Jacksonville Helpers

Jacksonville helpers of the county health unit will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Paul Godward. All ladies interested in health work are invited. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:30.

Madrigal Club

All members of the Madrigal club and any women wishing to enroll for the 1936 session of this popular vocal club are requested to be present at the Girls' Community club rooms Tuesday at 7:45 p. m. This is the first meeting of the club since November, so all are requested to attend.

Get-Together Club

A regular business meeting of the Get-Together club will be held at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the usual place. No refreshments will be served.

Carnation Club

Carnation club will meet at the home of Mrs. Mamie Seiler on North Central Thursday evening at seven-thirty.

Missionary Societies

The missionary societies of the Methodist-Episcopal church will meet in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

South Methodist

First meeting of the new year for the South Methodist Missionary society will be held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the parsonage. New officers will be installed and new plans suggested. All members are urged to be present and friends cordially welcomed.

Past Noble Grand Club

Past Noble Grand club will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ethel Pease, 412 South Oakdale.

Lady Lions

Mrs. J. Vern Shangle will be hostess to the Lady Lions at her home, 624 Dakota avenue, for a one o'clock covered dish luncheon Wednesday afternoon. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Jean Breat and Mrs. Charles Fritchard. As important business will be transacted, a large attendance is requested.

Mistletoe Club

Mistletoe club will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Girls' Community club rooms. It will be a no-host affair and each one attending is asked to bring her own lunch in a paper sack. Newly elected officers will be installed.

P. E. O.

P. E. O. will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 with Mrs. A. P. Butler, 28 Hillcrest road. Miss Gertrude Parker will assist the hostess.

Travel Study Club

The Travel Study club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. Iverson, 60 Ross court, Monday afternoon. Club members please note change of date.

Medford Women Named Heads By State President

Mrs. William Kietzer, president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers announced this week the men and women who will promote the educational program of the parent-teacher movement in Oregon. Committees designed for the study of every phase of child development are included in the plan of work for the year.

Chairmen appointed from Medford are: Children of migratory families, Mrs. B. H. Bryant; exceptional child, Miss Louise Sanford; and music, Mrs. W. A. Holloway. Others on the list quoted from the Oregon Journal, include:

Budget, Mrs. E. E. Woodward, Portland; exhibits, Mrs. M. L. Arthur, Portland; home education, Miss Mabelle Hair, University of Oregon; homemaking, Miss Thelma Gaylord, Oregon State college; humane education, Mrs. James S. Johns, Jr., Pendleton; international relations, Mrs. William T. Brice, Portland; juvenile protection, Mrs. J. W. Longcor, Portland; library extension, Miss Harriet Long, state librarian, Salem; membership, Mrs. L. D. Courtright, Portland; mental hygiene, Miss Helen Gillespie, Portland; motion pictures, Mrs. E. E. Cumpston, Portland; National Parent-Teacher magazine, Mrs. Sam Bellah, Oswego; National Youth administration, Mrs. Warren C. Hunter, Portland; Oregon Parent-Teacher bulletin, Mrs. J. F. Chapman, Portland.

Parent education, Mrs. Sarah V. Case, department of education, Salem; Parents' Educational Bureau, Mrs. J. M. Angus, Portland; press and publicity, Mrs. Oliver Crowther, Portland; program helps and speakers, Mrs. C. H. Wilson, Portland; publications, Mrs. Bert Chappel, Portland; radio, Mrs. L. A. Baumhaver, Portland; recreation, Truman Chase, Eugene; rural service, education, Arnold Gralapp, La Grande; social hygiene, Dr. Jessie Laird Brodie, Portland; social standards, Dean Kate W. Jameson, Oregon State college; student aid, Mrs. W. L. Wales, Klamath Falls; study of alcohol and narcotics, Mrs. W. W. Gabriel, Medford; summer round-up, Mrs. N. B. Zane, Eugene.

Mrs. F. W. Blum of Portland is the new corresponding secretary of the state organization, and Mrs. Allen Knight of Forest Grove is historian.

'Peace Program' Plan Thursday Study Club

Fitting in with the policy of keeping abreast of world events, a "peace program" will feature the January 9 meeting of the Thursday Morning Study club at the Girls' Community club house.

"The Propaganda Menace" is the subject to be discussed by Mrs. E. C. Var, Valdez, and Mrs. L. Humphrey, will speak on "Futility of War," "Road to War," by George Mills, will be reviewed by Mrs. Bert Lowry.

Mrs. J. P. Steele will supervise the magazine calendar, assisted by Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, Mrs. Rose Scheffelin, Mrs. Rawley Moore and Mrs. F. H. Reum.

American Legion Auxiliary

Monday night will be the first sewing meeting of the New Year. There is quite a bit of finishing work to be done so all members who can are requested to be present.

Members please note change of date. Mrs. Glenn Fabrick will be guest speaker, telling of her trip to Australia and other interesting places. All members are urged to be present. Current events will be given at the opening of the meeting.

Job's Daughters

Announcement is made of the regular meeting of Job's Daughters, Monday evening at 7:30, in the DeMolay hall.

Women's Association

The Women's association of the First Christian church will meet in the recreational hall of the church Wednesday at 2 o'clock. A large attendance is desired.

Wed Sixty-One Years

Mr. and Mrs. H. Trusty of Trall, Elk Creek, who celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary December 29. Mrs. Trusty is shown holding the four-tiered wedding cake presented them.

Four Generations Gather To Observe 61st Anniversary

Married sixty-one years ago on December 30 were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trusty, of Trall, about whom gathered four generations of their family on that day.

The turkey dinner served the large group was featured by the four-tiered wedding cake baked by Mrs. Ralph McCarty. The bride of sixty-one years ago vividly recalled her wedding day as being clear and bright, with snow on the ground.

The couple were showered with gifts from relatives and friends throughout southern Oregon, receiving congratulations and greetings during the day.

Wishing the Trustys many happy returns that day were Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Childreth, Ike Childreth, Arlene Childreth, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Childreth, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Trusty, Waldo Trusty, Roscoe Trusty and Jerold Trusty.

Also guests were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ayres, Clifton Ayres, Keith Ayres, Marion Trusty, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCarty and son and Mr. and Mrs. Orin Train.

Students Leave As Schools Open

With the opening of most Oregon schools last Thursday, a general exodus of young students who spent the Christmas holidays with families and friends was observed by motor and train, causing a consequent quietude in social circles.

Among students returning were Miss Leneve Simpkins and Glenn Simpkins, students at Oregon State college, where Glenn is studying for master's degree.

Group Returns From Holiday Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fichtner returned Friday from southern California, where they spent the holidays, accompanied by Mrs. Fichtner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nelson, of Yakima, Wash.

While in the south, they were guests of Staff Sergeant and Mrs. W. W. Kingsley at March Field, Riverside. Sergeant Kingsley is a brother of Mrs. Fichtner and Mrs. Nelson.

Before returning home, the group toured southern California Mexico and Nevada, visiting Boulder Dam, San Diego exposition and Palm Springs. They also attended the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena New Year's Day.

Lady Elks

Lady Elks will meet Tuesday at 2:00 p. m., at the Elks temple. Caras pool and billiards will be enjoyed.

Ashland Wedding of Miss Mills and Lew Price Interests Here

A wedding of interest to many people in southern Oregon took place on Sunday afternoon, December 29, in the Methodist Episcopal church in Ashland, when Miss Marjorie Mills, a member of one of Ashland's pioneer families, became the bride of Lew Price, of Port Orford, Oregon, the Rev. Melville Wire officiating.

Miss Mills was given in marriage by her father, John W. Mills of Ashland. Her only attendant was Miss Beulah Hervey, John Mills, Jr., brother of the bride was best man, and Edwin and Timothy White of Medford served as ushers.

After the ceremony friends of the bride and groom were received at the residence of Miss Jessie Mills on Vista street, which has been the home of the Mills family for many years. Receiving with the bridal party were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mills, Miss Jessie Mills, and Mrs. J. O. Coffin of Phoenix, grandmother of the bride.

The hostess was assisted in the dining room by Mrs. Jennie Mathis, Mrs. George Carey, and the Misses Dorothy Reed and Edna Mae and Harriet White.

Mrs. Price is a graduate of the Southern Oregon Normal and has taught school for the past two years. Mr. and Mrs. Price expect to make their home in Port Orford.

College Women To Have Annual Luncheon

Town club, 1000 West Main street, will be the scene of the annual luncheon of the College Women's club scheduled for next Saturday at 1 o'clock.

As principal feature of the afternoon's program, Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg will discuss American art. Members are requested to call Miss Vera Humphreys, 1580-X, by Thursday or reservations.

Peacemakers Lodge Planning Dance

Peacemakers lodge held regular business session Friday, the joint installation with Redmen having been postponed. It was announced at the meeting that a Leap Year dance will be held January 10 for all members and invited friends. Dickey's orchestra will furnish the music.

Crater Lake Guild Plans Unusual Program

Something a little out of the ordinary will take place at the regular meeting of the Crater Lake guild at the home of Mrs. Eva Math, 43 North Peach street, Monday evening at 8 o'clock when Mrs. Mabel Mack will talk on foods.

Following Mrs. Mack's talk, members will discuss recipes, each one being requested to bring her favorite recipe to the meeting. Mrs. Edie Carleton vocal will appear on the program in string solos.

Joint hostesses with Mrs. Marsh are Mrs. Lawrence Pennington and Mrs. Vert Walker.

Younger Set Has New Year's Party

Misses Frances Cormany and Phyllis Cleven were joint hostesses to a group of friends for a New Year's party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Cormany.

Featured on the evening's entertainment were an acrobatic dance by Miss Jean Smith and two tap dances by the hostesses. The remainder of the evening was spent playing games, followed by refreshments.

Guests of the evening were the Misses Jean Eddy, Dorothy Stubblefield, Jean Smith and Messrs. Warren Holbrook, R. B. Webber, Billy Baird and Curly Balze.

Lady Elks

Lady Elks will meet Tuesday at 2:00 p. m., at the Elks temple. Caras pool and billiards will be enjoyed.

MEDFORD VETERINARY HOSPITAL

15 years experience in large and small animal practice
225 N. Riverside. Phone 369

Blankets That Aged In The Tub

YOU'VE seen them! Blankets grown old before their time. Harsh, lifeless, shorn of their fleeciness once theirs. They tell a story of careless laundering.

WE are equipped to keep blankets young. We use only carefully temperatured fresh water and pure, mild soap—and we guarantee against shrinkage and stretching.

Rough Dry No Starch 8 lbs. 56c
7c each additional pound

AMERICAN LAUNDRY
TEL. 873 • 132 SOUTH CENTRAL

He Is Critical, ARE YOU?

Men are quick to recognize untidy hairdress, neglected complexion, uncared for hands. Be beyond criticism with our beauty care.

Operators: Vera Mershon, Harriet Woodhouse, Mabel Grigsby, Ida Graves, Gladys Fisher.

Haircutters: Ray Le Fevre and Loal Wilson.

CRATERIAN Beauty Shop
41 So. Central. Phone 373

CHECK UP

On your plans for FINANCIAL SECURITY

1. Are you thrifty?
2. Do you save money?
3. Are you investing wisely?

If you can take care of the first two items, we can help you INVEST WISELY, HERE

MEDFORD FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
136 East Main St. Phone 185

JANUARY CLEARANCE SHOES SALE

FLORSHEIM Regular $8.75 and $10.00 $7.45

SPECIAL GROUP FLORSHEIMS $4.85

CHILDREN'S SHOES $1.95 and $2.50

WOMEN'S GALOSHES Small Sizes 49c

WOMEN'S SHOES New patterns, all materials—swedes, kid, fabrics—practically every style and size represented.

Foot Delights—W. B. Coon—Vitality These makes sell regularly from $6.50 to $10.00 $3.85

Another Group Style Shoes Regular $4.85 and $5.85 $2.95

GIRLS' SCHOOL OXFORDS Brown and Black—All Widths Sizes 2 1/2 to 9 Regular $3.85 to $5.00 $2.95 and $3.85

KAYSER HOSIERY FOR WOMEN 79c a real value

C. M. KIDD & CO. "SO. OREGON'S OLDEST SHOE CONCERN"