Miriam Hopkins Coming to Craterian In Rialto Drama

The "Barbary Coast," America's last frontier of untamed emotions, lives again in all its stark, rowdy realism in the film production of that title which begins a three day engagement at the Craterian theatre tomorrow, with Miriam Hopkins, Edward G. Robinson and Joel McCrea in its leading roles.

"Barbary Coast" offers Miriam Hopkins her greatest role as Swan, a beautiful girl who invades this gold-mad city of love-hungry men and becomes hard and cold as the diamonds with which she is decked by Chamalla, the powerful, ruthless owner of whose crooked roulette table she reigns.

Death and destruction stalk the scene and Chamalla's jealous rage nearly turns the romance into tragedy before the lovers are free to face the future together.

Robinson is seen as the brutal Chamalla and Joel McCrea plays Jim. The supporting cast includes Walter Brennan, Frank Craven, Brian Donlevy, Clyde Cook, Harry Carey, Donald Meek and many others.
