WILL RUN 'SHASTA' AS THROUGH TRAIN S. P. ANNOUNCES

"The Shasta" will be operated as an independent through train between Portland and San Francisco via the Rogue River valley, early next month, according to J. A. Ormandy, general passenger agent, Southern Pacific.

This change will eliminate the consolidation of "The Shasta" with another train between Portland and Eugene and between Dunsmuir and San Francisco, which now necessitates switching of cars at those points, and it will have the effect of greatly improving the through service between the northwest and California through southern Oregon.
