IT'S a PLEASURE To SELL This BEEF

THAT is what our boys say about the Beef from the Nealon Ranch at Table Rock and the boys are right.

The most pleasing thing about any business is to have the folks come back and express satisfaction. It is not only gratifying to us but to John Nealon to whose care we entrusted the herd of steers we bought last fall that we might have good beef throughout January, February and March when it isn't easy to get good cattle.

To those who haven't tried some of this fine Beef—we say get some for tomorrow's dinner. To those who have tried it, we say—You may be sure of the same quality for months to come.

To finicky lovers of steaks—we guarantee to please you.

Super Meat Markets

That good beef is not one time affair

We planned for these late winter months early last fall.—To insure uniform quality of beef is not an easy task.—Our buyer searched the county for good steers and arranged for having them fed.—Should you drive past the Nealon Ranch we invite you to pause long enough to get an idea of the high quality awaiting you for months to come.

Serve a roast or steaks tomorrow and decide for yourself if it costs any more to be sure of quality.
