

RAIN FOR MONTH AT 6.59 INCHES NEAR HIGH MARK

The Rogue valley's prolonged wet spell was today at least temporarily broken and the prospect was for no more rain in the immediate future.

Yesterday was the first day since December 24 that no measurable amount of rain fell, weather bureau records showed. Up until yesterday it had rained at least a little every day since Christmas eve.

This January will go down in weather bureau records as setting a new all-time high precipitation record for the month. The January rainfall to date measures 6.59 inches as compared with 5.34 inches, the previous maximum for the entire month recorded in 1914. Normal for the month is 2.78 inches, precipitation thus far showing an excess of 4.77.

Rainfall for the first 18 days of January came very close to topping the all-time high record of any full month, bureau statistics show. The greatest recorded monthly precipitation is 6.66 inches, measured in November, 1926.

Precipitation since September 1 now stands at 13.58 inches, a seasonal excess of 4.31.

Forecast was for clear weather with fog tonight and tomorrow, not much change in temperature. It was predicted there would be intermittent clear spells during which the sun would peer through.

at local postoffices. Veterans would have the option of holding them as investments, with interest at three per cent, until 1945.

Appropriates Funds The bill authorizes appropriation of $2,237,000,000. It also makes available the bonds convertible into cash in the amount of $254,000,000—making a total ultimate cost of $2,491,000,000.

Administration and veterans organizations leaders contend the immediate demands on the treasury will not exceed $1,000,000,000. They based this on the belief that thousands of veterans will not cash the bonds right away.

The roll call on final passage follows:

- For the bill: Democrats—Adams, Ashurst, Bachman, Bailey, Bankhead, Barkley, Bilbo, Black, Bone, Bulow, Byrnes, Caraway, Chavez, Clark, Coolidge, Copeland, Costigan, Dieterich, Donahay, Duffy, George, Gore, Guffey, Harrison, Hatch, Holt, Lewis, Logan, Loneragan, Maloney, McAdoo, McCarran, McGill, McKellar, Minton, Moore, Murphy, Murray, Neely, O'Mahoney, Overton, Pittman, Pope, Radcliffe, Reynolds, Robinson, Russell, Schwelb, Sheppard, Smith, Thomas, O'Keefe, Thomas, Utah; Trammel, Truman, Van Nuys, Walsh—total 56.

FLOOD THREAT PASSES IN NORTH CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The flood threat passed from northern California towns and farms today. Only in the Sacramento river delta region, where farmers said rampaging waters would cause no great harm, was there any continued threat.

The end of rains and colder weather in the mountains over the week-end removed further danger from the Sacramento, American Feather and Klamath rivers.

WASHINGTON P.T.A. DADS NIGHT AMONG FINEST ON RECORD

"One of the nicest parties ever held at Washington school," was the unanimous opinion of those who attended the annual dinner given Friday night by the Parent-Teacher's association in honor of the "Dads" and the past presidents. Tables and rooms were attractively and unusually decorated.

Mr. Rosal, San Francisco florist, was donor of the flowers that made the decorations possible. Mr. and Mrs. Rosal are former members of the Washington P. T. A. and close friends of this year's president, Mrs. A. E. Brockway. Their interest in the school coupled with this friendship prompted their generous act.

The long tables spread with white cloths formed a pleasing background for the garlands of asparagus fern and marigold down the center, culminating at various points in beautiful arrangements of white and yellow freesias, maiden hair fern, scaccia, snapdragon and cyclamen. The bowls of flowers were flanked with plain white tapers in silver holders. Baskets of heather, scaccia and gladioli formed a very pleasing effect on the stage.

The decoration committee feels very grateful to Mrs. James Hogg, junior past president, for the suggestions and help she gave as a member of that committee.

Rev. Clifton Pond gave the invocation and the program was ably introduced by Everett Faber, toastmaster. Much merriment and enjoyment was derived from the "sing song" arranged by Don Huckabee and Everett Faber.

Mrs. Brockway welcomed the "Dads" in a fitting bit of rhyme. Solos by Mrs. Gertrude Warnock, accompanied by Mrs. Royal Bebb, were appreciated by everyone. Miss Velma Stubbfield read a short verse about "Mother," and R. E. Waldron, accompanied by Don Huckabee, sang several solos which were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Mabel Mack, county home demonstration agent, spoke briefly and then introduced Mrs. Gertrude Skow Sanford, state dramatic specialist, whose talk on home games and recreation was outstanding and the audience were able to take away many practical working suggestions for their own home recreational programs.

Mrs. Geo. Canode introduced past presidents of the organization in attendance. Special mention was made of Mrs. Minnie Bryant, president in 1918 and originator of daddy's night. Principal J. C. Tucker was introduced and talked briefly concerning the school before introducing the efficient corps of teachers of Washington school of which every member of the P. T. A. is a justly proud.

Mrs. Orville Shores ably handled the dinner committee, Mrs. Morris Bennett took complete charge of kitchen arrangements. Mrs. E. C. Jones headed the clean-up committee.

served the dinner. The ladies of Washington are very thankful to them for this as it enabled all to enjoy the events of the evening.

The Washington P. T. A. today voiced thanks to all who had a part for their cooperation and help, particularly Mr. and Mrs. Rosal of San Francisco, and the president, Mrs. Brockway, for making the eighteenth annual daddy's night an outstanding success.

SUPREME COURT OVERRULES PLEA FOR 25-DAY STAY

ing AAA invalid go into effect immediately was requested by the Hoosee Mills Corporation of Massachusetts.

Effective in 25 Days The AAA decision was on January 6 and the Rice Millers' ruling on January 13. Under customary procedure, the decisions would not have become effective for 25 days.

In the case of Louisiana Rice Millers ruled on last Monday the impounded taxes were ordered returned on the ground they were unconstitutional in the first place.

The request for a new hearing was based on the "pay first and litigate later" principle, which the court had apparently rejected in its decision. The taxes in question had never reached the treasury.

The government's brief did not attack the supreme court opinion, but asked for a clarification. It was contended the ruling contradicted an earlier one in a similar case.
