NEW DEFICIENCY BILL IS PLACED IN HOUSE HOPPER

of previously appropriated funds, of cotton loans whose use was left in doubt by the supreme court AAA decision. These were estimated to run between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000. The committee report listed $8,000,000 bales already eligible for payments totaling $38,952,500, plus an estimated 750,000 bales yet to be applied for.

This authorization is to pay cotton farmers the difference between the average base price for 7-8 inch middling on the 10 designated spot markets, and 12 cents a pound.

Another new item not in last session's bill, was $889,725 for the bureau of prisons to take care of an increase in federal prison population, which officials said was due chiefly to internal revenue law violations and counterfeiting. The third new allowance was $851,000 for what were described as unusually heavy administrative expenses of the treasury in connection with the emergency banking, gold reserve, the silver purchases act.

COLEMAN'S WED 44 YEARS AGO

William R. Coleman, justice of the peace, and his wife, yesterday celebrated 44 years of married life. They were married January 20, 1892 at Phoenix, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The father of the bride, and the father of the groom, crossed the plains together in 1852. Mrs. Coleman was born in Baker, Oregon, and Judge Coleman in this county.

"There was no special celebration. We are waiting until we pass the fifty year mark and can celebrate a golden wedding anniversary," Judge Coleman said this morning.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP) Many prices tickled lower today and in the quietest stock market in more than a month.

A few divisions, such as aircraft, metals and sugars, found a following at slightly better levels at times, but the majority of leaders slipped down fractions, and a few as much as a point, or so.

The closing tone was about steady. Transactions in the stock exchange totaled around 1,400,000 shares.

Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow: Al. Chem. & Dye 163 1/2; Am. Can 129; Am. & Fgn. Power 7 3/4; A. T. & T. 158 1/2; Anaconda 28 1/2; Atch. T. & S. Filmom's Newest Idol In Roxy Role

Heading the cast of "Paris in Spring", which plays tomorrow at the Roxy theatre, is filmom's newest idol, suave and debonair Tullio Carminati, who is featured in the lead of this romantic comedy with Mary Ellis.

Songs, comedy and a merry mix-up of romance are the entertainment elements of the picture, which presents both Carminati and Miss Ellis in singing roles.

A four-way romantic jamboree is brought about with the two stars, Ida Lupino and James Blakely, all trying to make the other jealous and succeeding admirably in making their own selves "burn up."

Medford Cleaners announce Uniform Prices: Suits $1.00; Dresses $1.00; up; Hats $1.00. No specials.

In "The Payoff", playing at the Rialto theatre tomorrow and Thursday, James Dunn has the cockiest role of his career to date, that of a hot-blooded newspaper sports reporter.

He keeps up with the latest on football, baseball, boxing, and tries to keep up with the latest women until his own wife double-crosses him for revenge.

Claire Dodd, Patricia Ellis, Alan Dinehart and a large cast are with Dunn in this comedy newspaper yarn.

CITY AND COUNTY GET SUBSTANTIAL SLICE OF BEER AND WINE FEES

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 21.—(AP) Cities and counties' share of the revenue obtained from sale of beer and light wines, totaling $32,489, was distributed according to population by the secretary of state today.

The cities obtain 30 cents of the $1.30 tax per barrel on beer and a percentage of the tax on wines.

Among those receiving funds were Baker county, $236; Baker City, $247.47; Benton county, $247.18; Corvallis, $238; Douglas county, $460.50; Roseburg, $148.58; Jackson county, $466.09; Medford, $374.94; Josephine county, $232.72; Grants Pass, $158.94; Klamath Falls, $546.18; Lane county, $983.06; Eugene, $643.83; Marion county, $889.30; Salem, $894.71; Multnomah county, $1,168.31; Portland, $10,280.86; Umatilla county, $434.70; Pendleton, $225.83; Union county, $215.15; Lagrange, $374.21.

The counties' share constitutes the population outside the cities and towns.

Medford Cleaners Association announces Uniform Prices. Suits $1.00. Dresses $1.00 up; Hats $1.00. No specials.
