

COUNTY HEALTH LEADERS REVIEW WORK PROGRAM

Fifty Ladies Present From Communities of County at Bi-Monthly Meeting - Much Activity Reported

A round table discussion, participated in by fifty women representing Prospect, Eagle Point, Gold Hill, Sams Valley, Talent, Phoenix, Ashland, Jacksonville and Medford, concerning the health programs and activities of various agencies in the county...

Rotary Women, represented by Mrs. C. D. Bean, presented an outline of their activity of accumulating funds to assist in buying overcoats and glasses for needy children...

The County club assists in furnishing glasses for children who would otherwise be unable to afford this valuable care. Mrs. Bertha L. Denton, school nurse of Ashland, traced her efforts to exclude colds from the schools...

Following the discussion, Miss Blanche Runnels, county health representative, presented a resume of the general program of the County Health unit...

Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, representing the Sparrow Memorial clinic, spoke on the various means of raising and dispersing funds of the memorial, and also stated that 70 per cent of the money raised by the President's ball is turned over to the clinic...

YOUTHS AWAITING ACTION ON PAROLE

Harold Bingham, 18, and Norman Rosenberger, 20, local youths sentenced to 90 days in the county jail on their plea of guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct, are still in the county jail, awaiting the tentative parole promised by the court...

The youths claimed they had approached the Ellenburg home to determine if a boy friend had returned from a trip to California, and had no unlawful intentions.

The father also claims Bingham has been in no previous trouble.

The more than 500,000 automobiles licensed last year by North Carolina established an all-time record.

Automobile Fee Tangle Cleared by Secy. Snell

Confusion resulting from the paragraph of new Oregon laws regulating the paying of $5 and $10 license fees for autos and the requirement covering the necessity of procuring the $10 tags has been clarified by Secretary of State Earl Snell...

Secretary Snell says: "One paragraph of section 55-105, chapter 374, laws 1935, reads as follows: 'In the registration of vehicles designed and (or) used for carrying, conveying or moving over the highways of this state any freight, property, article or thing and having a combined weight of vehicle and maximum load to be carried thereon of 4000 pounds or less an annual license fee of $10 shall be paid.'

"Difficulty has been experienced in administering this portion of the section, in that the wording is very general and could, by accepting it literally, include all passenger cars.

"This office, however, does not believe that this was the intent of the legislature and private cars will be registered at the $5 fee. Classed with the passenger cars in the $5 bracket will be cars used by persons who carry only their own property used in connection with their own business, provided the vehicle used is of the strictly passenger type. Examples of this would be physician's carrying medicine kits, insurance salesmen carrying their rate books and salesmen carrying samples and making no deliveries.

"The $10 fee would apply to all vehicles especially designed for delivery purposes and would also include motor vehicles designed as passenger cars, but used in the delivery of merchandise. Examples of the latter would be deliveries by stores of merchandise sold, repaired or cleaned."

INDOOR CARNIVAL AT LONE PINE SCHOOL

An indoor carnival will be held Friday evening at the school house on Buckshot hill road. The program will start at 8 o'clock and will be followed by opening of the booths, where many novel attractions will be featured as well as refreshments and candy booths.

The carnival is under the auspices of the P. T. A. and the proceeds will be used to provide school children with hot lunches.

BEER DISPENSERS BAND TO SECURE EQUITABLE LAWS

Beer dispensers from Medford, Ashland, Gold Hill, Jacksonville and Central Point met recently at the Jackson Hotel with officers of the Oregon Food and Beverage Dispensers, Inc. for the avowed purpose of banding together for mutual protection.

H. S. Boles, proprietor of The Club of West Main street, was elected president of the southern Oregon branch of the organization; Ed Brown, vice-president, and Jens Jensen, secretary and treasurer.

Asked if the organization was one intended to force brewers into a lower price, Boles said not. He stated that first aim of the Medford dispensers would be to ask the city council to pass a law making it punishable for minors to purchase their true age in ordering beer, as is now the case in Eugene, Salem and Marshfield.

Another objective is to procure legislation making it unlawful to open a bottle containing liquor of stronger alcoholic content than the present legal limit for beer, in any beer parlor. At the present time, President Boles explained, it is unlawful, under the Knox law, for a dispenser to permit such an action but not unlawful for persons to do so.

"We intend no modification of the Knox law, nor do we intend that the rules laid down by that act be made more lenient. What we do want is to be protected ourselves. The only way we can get that protection is by organizing, and representatives of the state organization are canvassing the town today, and for the next few days, for that purpose," Boles stated.

ABSENTEE VOTERS DENIED BALLOTS AFTER TIME LIMIT

Applications for absentee ballots, from Oregon voters now in California but desiring to cast ballots in this special election, January 31, were denied yesterday by the county clerk, upon the grounds the applications were not filed within the time limit. Final date for such was January 21.

Sample ballots for the special election are now being distributed by the county clerk's office to the various precincts. Persons desiring sample ballots can obtain them by calling at the county clerk's office. The ballot pouches and boxes are being made ready for distribution on the day before and morning of the election, which occur a week from tomorrow.

Four measures are to be voted upon on the regular ballot, with a ballot for Medford voters on civil service for the fire department members.

The state measures are: Bill changing primary elections to September from May; To increase the constitution to provide increased pay for members of the legislature, now paid at the rate of $3 per day.

A sales tax bill to provide revenue for payment of old age pensions, with exemptions for staple articles of food. A bill authorizing student activity fees in state higher educational institutions.

HAMILTON TO SPEAK AT APPLEGATE GRANGE

At an open meeting of the Applegate Grange tomorrow (Friday) night Moore Hamilton of Medford, state representative, will lead a discussion of measures to be voted on at the special election this month. The discussion will be presented in the form of a debate, Mr. Hamilton and Ben Ellis, local Granger, taking the affirmative, while an attorney, probably from Grants Pass, and Charles Elmore, lecturer, will present the negative side.

The Grange believes this to be a thorough method of explaining the issues to voters, and E. H. Taylor, master, has expressed the wish that as many people attend as possible.

TED LEONARDS TO RESIDE IN 'FRISCO

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Leonard left last night by train for San Francisco to make their permanent home. Mr. Leonard, for several years associated with the Marshall-Smith-Leonard Printing company here, has disposed of his interest in that firm and will enter a book store on Market street in the bay city as a partner with his brother, George.

George Leonard has recently returned to this country from Paris, where he conducted a book shop for 10 years. Before leaving Ted told the Mail Tribune that he had been contemplating the move for several months.

Mr. Leonard learned the printing trade as an apprentice at the Medford Mail Tribune.

AUTOIST FINED AFTER SMASHUP

Chester Lee Roberts, 28, of 24 Chestnut street, was this morning fined $25 and his driver's permit suspended for 90 days on his plea of guilty to a charge of reckless driving.

Roberts was arrested by city police last night after his car had rammed one driven by Thomas N. Cline, in a head-on collision near the north city limits of Medford. Police stated today that marks on the highway indicated that Robert's car was over the center line on the wrong side of the highway by at least a foot. Police allege that Roberts had been drinking.

A tow car brought the Roberts car, a Whippet sedan, to a garage. The left front wheel was torn from the car by the impact. The front fenders of Cline's machine were smashed.

BUILDING PERMITS SHOW HEAVY GAIN IN CURRENT MONTH

Building permits in the city so far in January are almost 12 times as great as the amount granted in the same time last year, and almost five times as great as the total for the whole month of January, 1935, a survey of the records in the city building department shows.

A total is shown for the first 23 days of January this year of $5,160 as compared to only $435 for the same period in 1935. The total for the entire month last year was $1,085.

The gratifying increase shows that the previous high in recent years of $7,980 registered in January of 1934, may be surpassed before the end of the month. City Building Inspector Frank Rogers said today. The total for January, 1934, was $2,289, far below the record already set this year. Rogers said.

The bulk of the total so far this month is represented by two service stations, the new Deever & McCurley station going in at Sixth and Central streets at a cost of $9,000, and the repairs to the Devine service station at 1268 South Riverside avenue, at a cost of $1,000. John Cunningham is the contractor for both stations.

Other permits granted during the month went to R. W. Demman, for a barber shop, now erected at 168 North Central avenue, at a cost of $300; Newton Tinker, 911 West Eleventh street, to remodel a residence at $123 cost; Myron Root, 50 South Fir street, to repair a packing plant roof at a cost of $200.

The Community hospital was granted a permit to build an addition to a garage at a cost of $50; A. K. Owens took out a permit to remodel at $22
