Third Annual Ball Greatly Enjoyed By Medford Folk

Highlight of the week in social circles, not only in Medford but throughout the nation, was the third annual President's Ball at the Oriental Gardens Thursday evening. As in most other cities, festivities of the evening were started with a grand march, led by Mayer and Mrs. George Porter.

As the evening grew older, a constantly enlarging crowd danced to the music of Dyrge's orchestra of nine pieces. A large number of moonlight waiters featured the dancing.

Over three hundred couples passed through the Oriental Gardens ballroom doors at various times during the evening, many coming early and others arriving later following numerous dinner and cocktail parties.

It seems a consensus of opinion that the ball was among the most thoroughly enjoyed community affairs ever arranged here.

Bridge Tournament Will Be Played Here February 4

All local bridge players are being invited to participate in the fifth annual World Bridge Olympic to be held throughout the entire world on Tuesday, February 4, at 8:01 p. m., according to an announcement made today by Mrs. Gus Newbury, who has been selected by the Olympic committee as game captain for this city.

The World Bridge Olympic is regarded as a most unique and interesting event in bridge activities. Last year sixty-five different countries represented among the 200,000 people who played the same sixteen hands at the same hour and the same minute. This year's hands have been selected by twenty-two of America's foremost bridge players. For each of the sixteen hands these master minds of contract bridge have decided correct bidding and play, and if a player reaches the correct final contract, and plays his cards correctly, he has scored a part. Players do not compete against opponents, or any of the 200,000 tries in the event but against a par result. Past Olympics have proved that it is impossible for anyone, whether a skilled player or a beginner, to play these hands without improving his game.

Foremost among the attractive prizes are the two famous world championship trophies. In addition to these, 532 beautiful silver trophies will be awarded proportionately to those who win the championship of every country, state and province.

Another feature of the event, the Olympic committee announces, will be an analysis of the correct bidding and play of every hand by Ely Culbertson's analysis. In addition everyone who took part in the Olympic will be awarded a certificate of participation.

All players who are interested in further details of this annual bridge classic are invited to communicate with Mrs. Gus Newbury.

Betrothal Announced At Thursday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jones entertained Thursday evening with a cocktail and card party in honor of Miss Alta Pahl and Keith Denman, to announce their engagement. Later in the evening, guests adjourned to the President's Ball, returning shortly after midnight for a buffet supper. Red carnations centered the table, and place cards were valentines.
