sale business and two per cent on retail sales with certain exceptions, principally foodstuffs.
The legislators' party proposal was set forth with the contention that the present 43 a day is insufficient to cover expenses, especially in that it is paid only 40 days, regardless of the length of the seasons.
The student fee proposal would have empowered the state board of higher education to levy compulsory charges for student activities, and was described by its proponents as essential for the carrying on of extra-curricular work.
The primary date change was offered to reduce the time for the campaigns between the primaries and the general election.
Gov. Charles H. Martin, on the eve of election, said he would not call a special session of the legislature in an attempt to secure old-age pension; match-money if the sales tax failed.

GROUND HOG DUE TO SEE SHADOW, RETURN TO HOLE

That shy quadruped, the ground hog, emerges from his winter quarters today after an extended winter's snooze, sniffs the ozone with a hypocritical snout, and decides whether you, and you, and you shall shed your long winter hood, or remain swathed in red flannels for the next six weeks.
Ground hogs are few and far between in this district, but there is no lack of amateur weather prophets who, wise in the lore of ground hogs, are willing to base their predictions upon the way his reactions would be were he here to judge for himself, to-wit:
A bright sun will cast the ground porter's shadow on the ground, scaring him into a blue funk—and his burrow, where he remains for a round six weeks while king winter reigns supreme outside.
If, on the other hand, the g. hog sees no shadow he assumes that all is rosy, and remains on top the ground to bask in the spring sunshine, which obligingly arrives to vindicate his faith in his own satuteness, and continues for the remainder of the season.
You can take that shadow stuff, or leave it alone. Professor John M. Condrin of the University of Toledo's biology department says the ground hog doesn't know his shadow from the Einstein theory, but emerges because his endocrine system, dormant through the winter months, becomes active about this time and bestiality sends Sir hog out to stir around a bit.
But endocrine or shadow, keep your eye peeled on the weather today—'t'll make a lot of difference in your wood bill!

ALL SCRAMBLED BUT HAPPY

The relationships between members of this family from Joliet, Ill., are rather confused, but they're all happy just the same, and there should be no "in law" trouble. EARTH TREMORS MADE BY DEVICE USED FOR STUDY

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(UP)—The Massachusetts Institute of Technology makes its own earthquakes to study destructive effects on skyscrapers and other buildings.
The device, known as a "shaking table," was invented by Arthur C. Ruge, research associate in the civil engineering department, in consultation with Dr. Vannover Bush, dean of engineering and vice-president of M. I. T.
A "shadowgraph" or optical camera is put out to follow a wavy path which duplicates the trembling effect shown on a seismograph record. The electric "brain" of the new device, coupled to the "eye," controls the machine in such a way that it is forced to follow the wavy line as the earthquake "shadowgraph" moves along its path.
The "shaking table" picks up the earth's effect in a mechanical way, tossing and trembling like a real earthquake, thus enabling scientists to study the effect on a small engineering model.
A feature of the "shaking table" is that though it can produce forces of 2,000 pounds if necessary, it produces only the amount needed to make it follow the "shadowgraph" properly.

TOWNSENDERS WILL SELECT CANDIDATES AT EUGENE CONCLAVE

EUGENE, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Delegates from 200 or more Townsend clubs from the First Congressional district in Oregon will gather here Wednesday, February 12, to elect a new congressional advisory board and to lay plans for the support of candidates in 1936, it was announced here today by Townsend club officials.
Each Townsend club in the district, extending from Portland to the California line west of the Cascades, is entitled to one delegate to the convention.
Townsenders plan to concentrate on candidates for congress and announced that support will depend on approval by the district board, then the state board, and finally by the national headquarters.

In the First district, Congressman James W. Mott so far has the support of the Townsenders. An airmail letter was dispatched to Senator Charles McNary today, inviting him to give a definite statement as to his stand on the Townsend plan. This letter and his reply will be read at the meeting here February 12, and support from Townsenders will depend on his reply, it was said.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Feb. 1.—(AP)—The American falls was entirely dry tonight for the second time in history.
The trickle of water which had been coming down the American channel since an ice jam diverted the water to the Canadian falls the night of January 23 was stopped today by a sharp drop in temperature.
The only previous time the American falls is known to have been dry was in 1909, when ice also blocked the channel.

DUSTED RUM HEAD 2 REALTY SALES, SAYS COMMISSION RIDING FOR FALL LEASE ARE MADE

The business, in fact, he has been a veritable bull in a china shop. His continued interference and the check placed by him personally on the initiative of all commission employees has created an intolerable situation and I have felt, in justice to myself, I could no longer continue as administrator.
"I do not believe it is really an unnecessary one."
"I have been absolutely impossible for me to administer or perform the duties of my office in an efficient manner. I might add that under the present set-up, the position of 'administrator' is really an unnecessary one."
"I do not believe in the system of revoking licenses without a hearing."
"I do not believe that the chairman and attorney of the commission should perform the duties of the administrator, purchasing agent or personnel man."
"I do not believe in the system of revoking licenses without a hearing."
"I do not believe that the chairman and attorney of the commission should perform the duties of the administrator, purchasing agent or personnel man."
"I have always looked upon a public office as a public trust. The practices of the commission are not in the public interest and will lead to its downfall and the repeal of the law."
"It is better, therefore, that I step down and out."

Two sales of suburban properties and the lease of an Eagle Point ranch were announced yesterday by the Charles A. Wing Agency, Inc. Activity in the real estate field is being continued, the realty firm said.

SPECIAL SESSION NEEDED FOR GRANT

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 1.—(UP)—Oregon can obtain the $450,000 balance of the original PWA grant for construction of a new state capitol building only if Governor Marjorie calls the legislature into another special session soon, a Washington dispatch to the Journal said today.
Another session would be unlikely, however, in view of the governor's recent statements.
PWA Administrator Ickes was quoted as informing Senator McNary at request of the state that it was not yet too late for Oregon to proceed with a $3,500,000 statehouse project as planned originally.

CALIFORNIA'S TAX ILLS TO BE AIRED

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 1.—(UP)—California leaders of business, industry, agriculture and labor will be given an opportunity to present their own plans for straightening out the state's tangled financial situation when Gov. Frank Merriam's statewide tax conference swings into action Monday.
There have been complaints galore directed at increased taxes and mounting governmental costs and demands for lower taxes and decreased expenditures. But with few exceptions no one has proposed how the state setup and trimming expenses, it was pointed out.
Governor Merriam hoped the conference would be used as a basis for future legislation.

The climax is startling, the story throughout entertaining, expertly told.
