DR. V. M. PIERCE

Having tested "A-mi-ric" in thousands of cases at the Invalids Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., I have discovered to the Drug Trade the latest and perhaps the most important of the Dr. Pierce home remedies, "A-mi-ric," which I now recommend for the relief of minor kidney irregularities. Those who have irregularity of urination, disturbed sleep, depression, aches, pains, drowsiness, dizziness, will find this stimulant diuretic beneficial in flushing the kidneys, diluting acid, and relieving irritation.

Taking a cup of hot water and Dr. Pierce's A-mi-ric after every meal should bring remarkably quick improvement.

NORTHWEST RECOVERY SHOWN IN CHECKUP 9 IMPORTANT CITIES

EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 3.—(AP)—Experts at University of Oregon said today definite business recovery in the Northwest, which started early in 1933, seems assured on the basis of conditions computed for nine selected Pacific Northwest cities for the year just ended.

The result of an extensive study of bank debits was published in this month's issue of "Pacific Northwest Commerce and Industry," issued by the bureau of business research and the school of business administration.

Six of the cities studied, Portland, Seattle, Spokane, Eugene, Salem and Everett, showed a substantial gain for December, while only one—Yakima—showed a decrease. Yakima, however, ended the year 1935 ahead of 1934. Bellingham and Tacoma showed slight change in December but were continuing their gains.

Eugene led all other cities in gain for 1935 with 24 per cent increase over 1934. Spokane rated next with 20.9 per cent. Portland gained 14.7 per cent, Tacoma 14.4 per cent, and Seattle 13.5 per cent. The average gain for the year was 5.7 per cent.

MOTOR CARRIER LAW HELP GIVEN

T. B. Johnson, representing the interstate commerce commission in the matter of filing applications for permits under the motor carrier act, is at the Jackson hotel today and will be there tomorrow. Applications for permits by individuals, firms or associations engaged in transportation for hire by motor vehicle of persons or freight, or of both, must be on file with the interstate commerce commission in Washington, D. C., not later than February 12, 1936, in order that their rights under the new law may be preserved and protected.

Many persons are doing interstate commerce hauling without being aware that they are doing so, and it is these that Johnston is particularly desirous of contacting, he said.

"Do not overlook this opportunity to consult with Mr. Johnston and learn from him definitely your correct status. It will avoid trouble and delay in the future," Herbert H. Hauser, chief field supervisor of the motor transportation department has said in relation to Johnston's visit.

Charles B. Warren Dies Of Heart Ill

DETROIT, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Charles Beecher Warren, former United States ambassador to Mexico and Japan, died at his home here today after a brief illness of heart trouble. He was born in Bay City, Mich.

Warren was chairman of a subcommittee that re-wrote the rules of the Republican national convention in 1912 after Theodore Roosevelt delegates had bolted.

sumers, and "re-establishment of maintenance of farmers' purchasing power."

Wait State Action

The permanent program may become effective, Chairman Jones, (D., Texas), explained, as soon as "a sufficient number of states have provided to cooperate to make the plan effective," but the temporary soil-erosion plan cannot be used longer than Dec. 31, 1938.

"The bill outlines a more complete method of state cooperation, under which an approved program can be made and put into effect when sufficient plans are prepared to substantially accomplish the purposes," Jones explained. "It provides that in the meantime a plan similar to the original bill can be carried out, but limited to the purposes of soil conservation, soil rebuilding and economic use of the land."

The senate passed and sent to the house the Smith bill autthorizing $60,000,000 for 1936 seed and feed loans.

The measure, offered annually by Chairman Smith (D., S. C.), of the agriculture committee, was approved without a record vote.

It authorizes the farm credit administration to make 5½ per cent loans up to $1,000 to individual farmers in the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, with borrowers giving a first lien on crops or livestock as security.

$2,300,000 Bonus To Be Shared By Chrysler Workers

DETROIT, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The Chrysler corporation announced today a "world wide" bonus distribution, amounting to $2,300,000 to all employes.

The announcement, by President K. T. Keller, said the minimum bonus would be $30, and $2 should be added for each year of service, up to ten years.

Of the total, he said, $2,000,000 will go to the 54,000 employes in the Detroit area.

Keller said the Chrysler corporation produced 840,000 automobiles and trucks last year, the largest number in its history.

Here Thursday

Bringing to the screen the colorful adventures of "Annie Oakley," the famous woman rifle sharpshooter of the 80s, Barbara Stanwyck will be at the Craterian theater starting Thursday, in the title role of this historic panoramic story of frontier days.

With the colorful background of Buffalo Bill Cody's famous wild west show, the picture depicts the picturesque events in the lift of the Ohio girl who could split a card at fifty paces, and who was named "Ciemano ooti" (Little Sure Shot), by the Cheyenne chief, Sitting Bull.

Adventure Galore In Dramatic Film Craterian Screen

Rafael Sabatini's immortal tale of piracy on the high seas, "Captain Blood," is now acknowledged to have taken its place among the classic stories of adventure written in the last century. Its thrilling action and absorbing romance are known to all readers whose hearts respond to the call of adventure and the lure of excitement. Now "Captain Blood" with all its color, its vividness and its thrills intact has been made into a talking picture and this film masterpiece thoroughly delighted audiences at the Craterian theatre where it had its local premiere yesterday. And what a picture this is. In the immensity of its stark drama, its tremendous sets, its bizarre and picturesque background, its thrilling action and its marvelous characterizations, "Captain Blood" stands out as one of the great film masterpieces.

Heading a cast as unusual as the production itself are two young film players whose work will undoubtedly set them among the leading stars of the cinema.

These are Errol Flynn, the young English actor-adventurer who is Captain Blood in the flesh and Olivia de Havilland, the young high-school girl discovered by Max Reinhardt.

There is Lionel Astwill in the role of a wealthy West-Indian plantation owner. There is Basil Rathbone portraying a cruel and treacherous French pirate slain in a duel by Captain Blood. There is the always lovable Guy Kibbee, also portraying a pirate. And what a pirate he is! Remarkably fine performances are also given by Ross Alexander, Robert Barrat, Frank McGlynn, David Torrence and Colin Kenny in the role of friends of Blood.

"Captain Blood" is the kind of story that can only be pictured in broad, heroic strokes, and that is just what has been done!

Paul Muni Appears In Rialto Picture

Audiences left the Rialto theatre last night with praise for Paul Muni's performance as the medical genius who put the whole of gangdom on the operating table, in "Dr. Socrates," the sensational drama by the author of such favorites as "Little Caesar" and "Scarface." "Dr. Socrates" will continue its three-day run until tomorrow night.

In this picture Muni, Ann Dvorak and Barton MacLane are reunited for the first time since they played together in "Scarface." Muni takes the part of a nervous, run-down, big-city doctor who moves to a quiet town to continue his practice, after he loses his fiancee on the operating table. The town isn't quiet for long when a gang of bank bandits move in and terrorize the neighborhood. They kidnap Muni and make him dress their wounds. The way he puts them to sleep under the spell of his hypodermic needle and leads the police to their capture makes a thrilling climax with Muni's new found love, Miss Dvorak.

Others in the cast besides Muni, Miss Dvorak and MacLane are Robert Barret, John Eldredge, Hobart Cavanaugh and Helen Lowell.

would be to you if I didn't carry it out," he said.

About three-quarters of the delegates rose to their feet when Green walked down the aisle to the platform for his much discussed speech on the fight in the federation between craft and industrial unionists.

Most of the delegates cheered and applauded.

The miners voted last week to give their executive board power to withdraw the union from the A. F. of L. at any time. John L. Lewis, the miners' scrappy president, leads the industrial union forces.

Green told the miners he came to the convention "both as a member of the United Mine Workers and as president of the A. F. of L."

"I want to talk to you fearlessly and courageously," he said, "about a matter of great concern."

LINCOLN BANQUET TICKETS READY

At a special meeting of the executive committee of the Medford Lincoln club held at Valentine's banquet room today, it was decided to hold the annual Lincoln day banquet at the Hotel Medford. Tickets for the affair go on sale tomorrow, with George Carter, county clerk, as chairman of the ticket committee.

Don Newbury, chairman of the program committee, announced that a fine program is being arranged. Claude Ingalls has already been secured as speaker for the day.

Another meeting of the executive committee will be held next Monday noon, it was stated by Kenneth Denman, secretary of the club. Presidents Earl Newbry urged those planning to attend the dinner to secure their reservations as early as possible.
