

RURAL DRAMATICS CONTEST FINALS STAGED TONIGHT

Everything is in readiness for presentation of the three one-act plays to be presented in the Jackson County Rural Dramatics Contest finals at the Medford senior high school auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock.

The program promises to be a very fine one, since the three plays to be presented this evening have been selected to represent county districts. The plays include "Just Debt," a drama, presented by the Talent Extension unit, Mrs. Minnie Blaine, director.

Judges for tonight's performance are Angus Bowmer of Southern Oregon Normal school, James Stevens of Medford and Lois Kendall of Ashland high school. Members of the general committee for the Jackson county dramatists contest are: Mabel C. Mack, Jackson county home demonstration agent; Mrs. O. C. Maust, county recreation club; and Mrs. Lee Port, county extension committee.

Harry Ward of Medford has had charge of ticket sales. Leland Meutzer of the manual training department, Medford high school, assisted by his manual training class and Keith Hockersmith of Phoenix, has prepared the stage setting.

BOWLING

With Sanderson and Webster, on team No. 4 of the Elks bowling league definitely "on," that team last night marched through three straight games against the team 1 rollers, for a 4-0 victory.

Team No. 2 will roll team No. 3 Monday, February 10. Team 2 is composed of Murray, captain; Rankin, V. Strang, Beene, W. Smith and R. Duff. Team 3 is Bierma, captain; Canfield, Leclerc, Lantle, Bullis and F. Sweeney.

Pahl-Denman Rites At Lutheran Church Yesterday Afternoon

Miss Alta May Pahl became the bride of Keith John Denman yesterday afternoon in the Zion Evangelical Lutheran church in a 1 o'clock ceremony performed by Rev. George P. Kable.

Bride and groom were attended by Miss Marion Boghart and Allan Beaton. The bride was gowned in aqua blue and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds, while Miss Boghart's dress was rust colored and her flowers narcissus and freesias.

Guests at the ceremony included the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pahl, Mrs. Richard Denman, Mother of the groom; Miss Verna Fornbrook, Miss Margaret Osenbruge, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jones, Miss Louise Osenbruge, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Yocum, Mrs. A. C. Bevan, Mrs. Robert McKay and Mrs. W. M. Daws.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom left for a two weeks' honeymoon in the north, planning to go as far as Astoria.

Among the several affairs arranged recently in honor of the bride was a surprise shower given by her sister, Mrs. W. M. Daws, Tuesday evening. Valentine sentiment was carried out in games, decorations and refreshments. The honor guest received a large number of gifts.

Guests for the shower were Miss Marion Boghart, Miss Margaret Osenbruge, Miss Marion Bigelow, Miss Verna Fornbrook, Mrs. Tower, Mrs. W. F. Pahl, Mrs. Carl Bigelow, Mrs. A. C. Bevan, Miss Barbara Bevan and the honor guest, Miss Alta Pahl.

Lincoln Club To Complete Plans

Principal business of the Lincoln school Service club meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in Miss Cox's room will be completion of plans for the Lincoln Night which is to take the place of the annual Lincoln tea this year. For this reason, those in charge particularly request a large attendance.

Appearing on the afternoon's program will be Hildegard Gentry, in a piano solo; Billy Cook, playing a violin solo; and Miss Ora Cox, who will speak to the assembly.

Garden Club To Hear Speaker

Guest speaker to members of the Medford Garden club at the meeting tonight at the Hotel Medford at 7:30 will be G. B. Cordy, whose subject is "Budding and Grafting."

Members are asked to bring a vase of flowers and compete for the club's flower bowl, which was won in December and January by Mrs. C. L. Goff.

Will Visit On Oregon Campus

Mrs. Allen Drury left today for Eugene, where she will visit over the week-end with her daughters, the Misses Laura and Mildred Drury. Miss Mildred is a student at the university, and Miss Laura is secretary to the dean of women.

Phoenix, meet on the Phoenix floor

Friday night in a game which promises lots of action, as both teams have improved greatly since their first encounter which Phoenix won 10-15.

Table with Phoenix basketball game lineups, including Hill, Newlin, Jacobs, Hensler, Barnes, E. Jackson, Mitchell, Johnson, Hurners, Ayres, Graham, and Talent, Robbins, Hungate, Combs, Haw, Goodpasture, Martin, Becker, Wilson, Higgenbotham, Thompson.

While the league-leading Gold Hill team was taking a 25-12 drubbing from Jacksonville Tuesday night, Phoenix high school easily defeated Talent, 42-18, and thus went into a tie with Gold Hill for the conference lead.

In a preliminary the Jacksonville "B" string defeated the Gold Hill "B" quintet 29-4.

After a slow start, Phoenix began making baskets from all angles, and at half-time led 26-3.

Newlin and Hill, Phoenix forwards, led in scoring, amassing a total of 34 points between them. Combs led Talent with 12 to his credit.

The two winners, Jacksonville and
