

DISAPPOINTED CHOW AVOIDS FRIENDS WHO WOULD GIVE SOLACE

"Teddy," the gallant chow dog which walked all the way from Long Beach, Calif., to Medford to rejoin his owners, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coney, after becoming separated from them in the southern city, is still missing. Apparently disconsolate at finding his "family" gone, the dog has so far refused to make up with any of the friends of his master, and although he has been seen and recognized by several, he steadfastly refused to be taken. Those who have seen the dog say that he is emaciated and weak looking from his 800-mile trek. The Jackson County Humane society is co-operating with Mrs. Elizabeth Gunderson in her search for the pet. A call came in from South Oakdale Thursday that the dog had been sighted in that district. Both Mrs. Gunderson and the Humane society combed the district for over an hour, but no further glimpse of him was caught. It will be appreciated, Mrs. Gunderson repeated today, if anyone seeing the dog will let her know, or call the Humane society, 1516. The dog will be easily recognized, being of a dark red color with a long, rather fuzzy coat. His feet are said to be swollen. As is typical of all pure-bred chows, Teddy's tongue is black. The Humane society and Mrs. Gunderson, a friend of the Cheneys, are anxious to take the plucky animal in before he attempts to return south, or before he becomes ill with disappointment, as is sometimes the case with animals, according to Humane society authorities.

Blast Cofferdam
BONNEVILLE, Ore., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Engineers said today the initial blast to remove the old cofferdam at the Bonneville power and navigation project accomplished its purpose without damage to the dam itself. Several windows were broken and huge timbers were thrown high in the air.

BOWES' AMATEURS IN MEDFORD SHOW

The outstanding radio program now being released over coast-to-coast networks is unquestionably the Major Bowes Amateur Hour, released each Sunday at 5 o'clock over the NBC chain. Major Bowes, the originator of the Amateur Hour, has been instrumental in giving hundreds of amateurs a chance to prove their ability to entertain, not only on his radio program, but also in show subjects for the screen and in stage units now touring the country. Medford will be given an opportunity a week from Sunday, February 16, to see and hear these talented amateurs in person, when they will appear at the Criterion theater for matinee and evening shows on the stage for that one day only. Personally staged by the Major himself, each unit is a carefully balanced show that successfully combines the essentials of good entertainment, including dancing, singing, instrumental music, comedy and the novelties that are almost invariably found in a show of this type. Presented in a "vaudeville" manner, the units have been meeting with sensational success wherever they are played, invariably setting new box-office records and creating thousands of new friends for the Major, and his air program. Medford will be the first Oregon city (with the exception of Portland during their automobile show) that has been given the chance to view Major Bowes' amateurs in person, and as a matter of fact, one of the first cities in the entire Pacific northwest. Booked here by the Fanchon and Marco offices in Los Angeles, the amateurs are expected to fill the desire for "in the flesh" entertainment that has not been available up to this date. A complete screen program will be shown on the same program.

Weather
Northern California: Generally fair tonight and Saturday, but unsettled extreme north tonight, with snow over mountains; colder Saturday; moderate to fresh northwest winds off the coast.
Oregon: Partly cloudy tonight with snow flurries in mountains; much colder tonight, with cold wave; Saturday fair, colder south; decreasing northwest wind of the coast.

High School News by STUDENT REPORTERS

By Phil Lowry.

Because students are showing increasing interest in the recently introduced health education courses, school authorities and instructors of physical education have expanded the program. The new set up provides for five one-hour periods a week, two of which will be devoted to work in general physiology and hygiene. A full credit for one year's work will be allowed those who satisfactorily pass the required standards. Ed Kirtley, assistant athletic coach, and Head Coach Bill Bowerman are the boys' instructors. Both have been instrumental in planning, introducing and executing the program of voluntary health education. Miss Carin Degermark, who has long been associated with sport activities for girls, is supervisor of health education for girls. An outgrowth of health education is the organization of intramural basketball and individual sports tournaments. The boys are organized into teams, each one of which will play every other team at least once. Games are played in the boys' gymnasium from 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening. The public is welcome to come any time. Later in the year Mr. Kirtley and Mr. Bowerman will offer classes in wrestling, boxing and track. According to athletic heads, plans are underway to make baseball and track major sports at Medford high school.
