

TALK COALITION CABINET IF NEW DEAL DEFEATED

Fletcher, G. O. P. Chairman, Reveals Rumor—Demos Plan Roosevelt Delegates in Important Primaries

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Henry P. Fletcher, Republican national chairman, said today he had "heard talk" about a coalition cabinet if the New Deal is defeated in November. He declined to discuss the subject.

While political oratory in honor of Abraham Lincoln subsided, Fletcher met with reporters in press conference. Questions about cabinet plans were induced by a welcome extended last night by Senator Vandenberg of Michigan in New York to cooperation from "Jeffersonian Democrats"—not alone in the campaign, he said, "but in the council chamber after next November's victory is won."

In the Democratic fold, plans to enter Roosevelt delegates in important primaries appeared to be expanding. Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin and New Jersey were named among the states where these tactics will be pursued.

Two-Fold Aim. The aim apparently would be twofold. Rolling up of goodly numbers behind administration delegates might be counted on to have some psychological effect, and at the same time preclude possible difficulties if the question of New Deal support were left out of the pre-convention considerations.

Charles West, undersecretary of the interior, had already told Ohio Democrats "we intend to see that Roosevelt delegates" are seated if credentials contests develop at Philadelphia.

Fletcher told reporters in his office "Jim Farley and those fellows will have to start it, if there is to be a 'dirty campaign' coming in." "How's the money coming in?" the G.O.P. chairman was asked. "Pretty well," he replied. "The committee intends to raise just as big a campaign fund as we can get. No matter how large it is, it won't be as big as the other fellows will have."

The committee has about $200,000 and plans a "pay-as-you-go" campaign, Fletcher explained, with expenses no larger than contributions.

Wait Radio Time. He indicated the committee would continue its attempts to obtain such radio time as it wanted.

"Freedom of the air is going to be as important as freedom of speech," he said.

Democratic sources said Senator Robinson of Arkansas might be the keynote speaker at the Philadelphia national convention June 21.

With an early preview of G.O.P. sentiment promised for April following, with both Colonel Frank Knox and Senator Borah entered in the Illinois primary, there was evidence of further broadening of activity on the part of the veteran Idaho senator.

His forces were stirring for action in Oregon, Wisconsin and Nebraska. They previously had made definite plans to enter Ohio.

Although acknowledging he aspired to the nomination, Senator Dickinson (R., Iowa) at Greensboro, N. C., told reporters he would not seek pledged delegates in the state primaries. Delegate contests often beset enemies, he reminded, and he wants only friends in the Cleveland convention.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 2 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, retching up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness.

Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS—and successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

Valentine Tea At High School Today For New Students

One of the major events in the Girls' league winter program was the Big Sister tea, at the high school, this afternoon in honor of the incoming sophomores and all new girls who have entered senior high recently. The tea was strictly informal and invitations were issued to over 400 girls and all members of the faculty.

The Girls' league officers, Mildred Buckles, Aiko Saito, Della Dale and Flora Scheel, presided at the table, which was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Valentine season. A large red and white colonial nosegay formed the centerpiece with red and white tapers.

The program, arranged by Miss Floy Young, music director, included two vocal numbers by Marguerite Luman, a guest by Mary Anne Gates and Rose Ellen Stoner, both accompanied by Edith Hodgkins, and a piano solo by Corrine Harwood.

General arrangements were under direction of Miss Maurine Carroll, dean of girls, and Mildred Buckles, Girls' league president. They were assisted by the following committee: Jean Adams, Marguerite Luman, Barbara Lemmon, LaVerne McCulloch, Dorothy Gill, Carolyn Jane Hill, Doris Ellensberg and Chloe Elson.

Refreshments and kitchen arrangements were supervised by Mrs. Gertrude Gates with the aid of the following: Lois Kimball, Estel Jones, Mildred Marra, Mary Powell, Alethea Payne, Anna Jones, Jane Williams, Lucille Baird, Flora Scheel and Irma Fraley.

EDITOR INGALLS GIVES NOTABLE LINCOLN SKETCH

his tragic end, caused by a bullet from an assassin's pistol while the Civil war president sought brief relaxation in a Washington theater from the cares and burdens imposed upon him by the conflict between the north and the south.

Mr. Ingalls dispelled what he termed the myth about Ann Rutledge. It was a vicious gossip, he said, who concocted the tale that Lincoln had been so deeply in love with Ann that he never loved Mary Todd, the woman he married after his former sweetheart had died.

It was not until after Lincoln's death that the rumors were spread and it was a male gossip who invented the story and profited financially from it by recording the vilification in lecture and book. Mr. Ingalls related.

The shock of her husband's assassination and the ugly gossip of his lack of love for his wife weighed heavily upon Mrs. Lincoln's mind, the editor said. After recovering from insanity, the widow spent a few years in France but, becoming ill, she decided to return to America.

On the ship was Sarah Bernhardt, the French actress. When the vessel docked in New York the captain arranged for the actress to be the first to walk down the gangplank, the president's widow having to follow in her wake, Mr. Ingalls related. And as she was about to step upon her native land, the leader of a crowd at the wharf to welcome the French actress, brusquely pushed Mrs. Lincoln back so that a carriage for the stage star might draw up alongside the gangplank.

"Such," said Mr. Ingalls, "was the reception accorded President Lincoln's widow."

Lincoln was so successful in spite of the innumerable obstacles placed in his way during the Civil war that an English observer later asserted that the president had accomplished more than Bonaparte had ever attempted, Mr. Ingalls stated.

"Now," Mr. Ingalls concluded, "Lincoln belongs to the ages."

HUNT CONTINUED BY LARGE POSSE FOR AGED MINER

Mr. Reed collapsed on the roadside near his home about three weeks ago, it was learned today. The sheriff's office here was notified and a deputy was sent for him, Sheriff Dit Brown said.

The aged man was brought to Medford and cared for at the county jail where he was given food and medical attention for three days, Mr. Brown related. He insisted upon returning home, however, and a deputy took him back to his cabin, the sheriff related.

Mr. Reed, who is said to have come to this section about two years ago, lives in a cabin on Carberry creek about eight miles northwest of Copper, Cal.

MEDFORD TOMATOES BRING FANCY PRICES IN PORTLAND MART

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 13.—(AP)—The advance of 1/2c lb. on standard and prime first butter during the holiday season of the produce exchange failed to develop any change in butterfat quotations.

The "net" price on butterfat here is 37c lb. but some interests are paying to 38 1/2c lb.

One cent was added to practically all egg prices except large extras. With eggs higher and a lack of desire on the part of poultry men to cull their flocks, a further shortage of leghorns was showing with premiums again promised for late week delivery.

Another advance in the price of country killed calves was showing here a new high mark achieved for recent months. Receipts of all dressed meats were finding quick sale.

Very fancy Medford hothouse tomatoes were reported selling around 22 1/2c lb. for best.

First offerings of new potatoes of the season were due in Portland from Florida. The price to retailers is nominally placed $3.75 per 50-lb. hamper or 8c lb. loose.
