HOLLYWOOD BALKS AT CZAR'S ORDER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Afire with indignation, Sinclair Lewis tonight said a film production of his latest novel "It Can't Happen Here" had been banned for fear of "international complications" by Will Hays, movie czar.

But out in Hollywood, where Lewis' imaginative tale of a fascist dictatorship's coming to America — accompanied by storm troopers, concentration camps, castor oil, and racial persecution—was scheduled to go into production next week, studio officials said they knew nothing of such an order.

"Unless I'm told otherwise," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer executive said, "preparations will continue."

SHERIFF THINKS MONEY MOTIVE IN 'RUBBISH MURDER'

BREMERTON, Wash., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Sheriff Rush Blankenship tonight said a $5800 bank account would be investigated in the unravelling of Kitsap county's baffling "rubbish heap" slaying of Adolph A. Sandell, San Francisco shipping clerk, last May.

A search, launched earlier in the day, for Owen Barton, a cripple, and brother of Mrs. Grace Sandell, divorced wife of the slain man, and Lawson K. and Joshua Barton, turned to Aberdeen, where he was formerly employed in a mill, police said.

Officers said they are wanted merely for questioning about the case.

Mrs. Sandell and Lawson, who, police said, have accused each other of the slaying, were in the county jail. Joshua Barton also was in jail, but Sheriff Blankenship said he was not believed implicated with the slaying.

Prosecutor R. W. Miller said no charges have been filed against either Mrs. Sandell or Lawson K. Barton.

Blankenship said Lawson told him Sandell and Mrs. Sandell had a joint bank account of $5600, and that Sandell followed his former wife to Port Orchard, near the Sandell farm after she had withdrawn the money.

Hitler Now Favors More Motoring to Ease Food Problem

BERLIN, Feb. 15. — (AP) — Reichsfuehrer Hitler, opening the national automobile show today, directed the attention of the German people to the United States' solution of the problem of motorization.

He suggested that Germans could do much toward the amelioration of their food problem by more motoring, pointing out that Germany's food shortage was due to the fact that "we are too many people on too little land."

However, he avoided any specific discussion of Germany's attitude toward colonies.

ROSEBURG NOSES OUT JUNIORS, 16-14

ROSEBURG, Ore., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Roseburg junior high school defeated the Medford juniors, 16 to 14, in a rough game of basketball here last night, holding a narrow lead throughout the entire contest. Medford staged a hard rally in the last few minutes of play, but lacked two points of overtaking Roseburg. In a preliminary game, a team of Medford 8th graders, twice the size of the Roseburg opponents, won easily.

While the junior high school teams were playing at home, the Roseburg senior high school Indians added another conference victory at Myrtle Point, where a fourth-quarter rally gave Roseburg a 28 to 24 victory.

COAST FIVES GET OLYMPIC CHANCE

PULLMAN, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Northern and southern division winners in the Pacific coast conference basketball race had assurance today of qualification for a four-team tournament to select the west's entry in the American Olympic team tryouts in New York, April 3-6.

Dr. J. F. Bohler, chairman of the northwest district said the northern and southern winner, and an additional team from each section to be decided by tournaments, will compete late in March for the New York chance. Non-conference teams also will be eligible for the second place from each section.

Monmouth Evens Up With Sons 37 to 32

ASHLAND, Ore., Feb. 15.—(AP)—The Oregon Normal Wolves returned home today with three out of four games in their sizzling series with the Southern Oregon Normal basketball team.

The Wolves won, 37 to 32, last night, but only by coming from behind in the second half. The Sons won the night before, 34 to 32.

In last night's game Monmouth rallied for five points after the score was tied at 32-all late in the game.
