Arthurs Honored at Farewell Parties in View of Departure

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Arthur, who have been residents of Medford for some time, are leaving soon to make their home in Crescent City, where Mr. Arthur has been transferred in a business capacity. The Arthurs are among the most well known and popular couples in the city, and their friends here have arranged a number of affairs in view of their departure during the past several days.

Mrs. Arthur was honor guest at a luncheon Tuesday afternoon arranged by Mrs. Evelyn Paddock and Mrs. Jack Simpson at the Simpson home. The tables were arranged for sixteen, flowers, tapers and place-cards in the Valentine motif making a colorful background for the luncheon and surprise handkerchief shower for the honor guest.

Bridge followed luncheon, scoring prizes going to Mrs. Ernest Scott and Mrs. Leland Clark. Guests for the afternoon were Mesdames E. C. Arthur, A. J. Hawk, H. L. Hathaway, Ernest Scott, Leland Clark, Robert Norris, Frank Peril, Foster Cone, Edwin Durso, Chester Hubbard, Bruce Bauer, W. S. Thurlow, Cagle Briggs and the hostesses.

Another farewell feature was given Mr. and Mrs. Arthur when a number of friends arranged a no-host dinner dance Friday evening at Valentine's cafe. Vari-colored anemones formed the table decorations, and guests danced to the music of a three-piece orchestra.

Fifty guests were invited to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur.

Thimble Club Has Luncheon

Mrs. Telettha Pickle was hostess to the Chrysanthemum Thimble club for luncheon at her home in Phoenix Thursday afternoon. Following luncheon, guests spent the afternoon sewing and chatting. Hostess for the next meeting will be Jane Hemstreet.

Mrs. Root Speaker At B. P. W. Meeting

Taking various phases of peace as her subject, Mrs. Myron Root was guest speaker before the Business and Professional Women's club when members met for dinner at the Hotel Medford Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Root discussed war propaganda and war evils and costs, stating that citizens should be thinking citizens rather than to blindly follow the opinions set before them. She also said that anyone dissatisfied or having suggestions as to legislation should write his congressman and let his opinions be made, declaring that public opinion expressed in this way can be very influential.

Mrs. Maybelle Church arranged the program, and Mrs. Effie Kurtz, musical director, introduced Mrs. John R. Knight, guest of the club, who sang two selections. Mrs. H. M. Welsch, vice-president, conducted the meeting in the absence of President Elizabeth Hoffmann. Mrs. Barbara Drury was elected treasurer upon the resignation of Mrs. Grace Robertson.

Founders Honored Friday Afternoon By Jr. Hi P.-T.A.

Friday afternoon the junior high auditorium was the scene of the annual program celebrating Founders' day presented by the Junior High Parent-Teacher association.

The program, arranged by Mrs. O. O. Horner, roused much favor with the audience. Musical numbers and a talk by Irving P. Beasley, newly-appointed head of the Crater Lake area, Boy Scouts, were features of the program.

Also appearing was Mrs. Maybelle Church, presenting a brief history of the local organization. Past presidents took part in a three-act play, "Reminiscences," taking the assembly back to the days of the organization's infancy, and bringing to everyone's mind the ideal toward which the P.-T. A. strives, the highest welfare of the child.

Mrs. J. D. Rickett lighted the birthday cake decorated in P.-T. A. colors at the end of the play in memory of the founders, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst and Mrs. Alice Birney. Mrs. Richard Arnsperger presided at the tea table, bringing the afternoon's ceremonies to an end.

Mrs. Charles E. Roe, national field secretary, will hold a school of instruction in Grants Pass March 17.

Literature Subject At Delphian Meet

"Glimpses of Eighteenth Century Literature" has been selected as this week's topic for the Friday morning meeting of the Delphian society, called for 9:30 at the Girls' Community clubhouse.

Individual topics are: "The Talent of Alexander Pope," Mrs. F. E. Nichols; "Hamilton's Complete," Mrs. James "Essay on Criticism," Mrs. James Orngibby; "Gibbon's Contribution," Mrs. H. N. Butler; "The Influence of Adam Smith," Mrs. A. G. Dunn; "Comments Upon the Spectator," Mrs. Jerry Barr; "Sterling Qualities of Dr. Johnson," Mrs. D. R. Wood; "Characteristics of Boswell's 'Life of Johnson,'" Mrs. C. E. Kuntz; "Swift, Greatest of Satirists," Mrs. W. M. Welshnaar.

Mrs. B. E. Reynolds will have charge of current events.

Art Phases Presented To Club Members at Study Club Meeting

Art was the subject under discussion at this week's meeting of the Thursday Morning Study club.

Mrs. L. P. Wilcox sketched the life of Michael Angelo, stressing his place as sculptor and painter in the world of art and presenting an appreciative review of his best known masterpieces.

Mrs. P. C. Dillard reviewed "Poor Splendid Wings," by Frances Winwar, a book devoted to a study of the founders of the pre-Raphaelite movement, a group of artists and writers who rebelled against Victorian artistic ideals and made an attempt to return to the classic style. The biographical narrative dealt chiefly with the life of the Rossetti family, Ruskin, Millais, Holman Hunt, Swinburne and William Morris.

The morning calendar, under the supervision of Mrs. William Miller, was presented by Mrs. E. A. Moore, Mrs. C. A. Meeker and Mrs. E. H. Hurd.
